I Shall Save One Land Unvisited Jonathan Williams, Ray Kass, 1978      I SHALL SAVE ONE LAND UNVISITED, 1978

Jonathan Williams: Lord of Orchards Jeffery Beam, Richard Owens, 2017-09-12 Jonathan Williams work of more than half a century is such that no one activity or identity takes primacy over any other he was the seminal small press publisher of The Jargon Society a poet of considerable stature book designer editor photographer legendary correspondent literary art and photography critic and collector early collector and proselytizer of visionary folk art cultural anthropologist and Juvenalian critic curmudgeon happy gardener resolute walker and keen and adroit raconteur and gourmand Williams refined decorum and speech and his sartorial style contrasted sharply yet pleasingly with his delight in the bawdy with his incisive humor and social criticism and his confidently experimental masterful poems and prose His interests raised the common to grace while paying close attention to the earthy At the forefront of the Modernist avant garde yet possessing a deep appreciation of the traditional Williams celebrated rescued and preserved those things he described as more and more away from the High Art of the city settling for what I could unearth and respect in the tall grass Subject to much indifference despite being celebrated as publisher and poet he nurtured the nascent careers of hundreds of emerging or neglected poets writers artists and photographers Recognizing this Buckminster Fuller once called him our Johnny Appleseed Guy Davenport described him as a kind of polytechnic institute while Hugh Kenner hailed Jargon as the Custodian of Snowflakes and Williams as the truffle hound of American poetry Lesser known for his extraordinary letters and essays and his photography and art collecting he is never only a poet or photographer an essayist or publisher This book of essays images and shouts aims to bring new eyes and contexts to his influence and talent as poet and publisher but also heighten appreciation for the other facets of his life and art One might call Williams life a poetics of gathering and this book a first harvest      Photographer's Forum, 1980

Encyclopedia of Twentieth-Century Photography, 3-Volume Set Lynne Warren, 2005-11-15 The Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Photography explores the vast international scope of twentieth century photography and explains that history with a wide ranging interdisciplinary manner This unique approach covers the aesthetic history of photography as an evolving art and documentary form while also recognizing it as a developing technology and cultural force This Encyclopedia presents the important developments movements photographers photographic institutions and theoretical aspects of the field along with information about equipment techniques and practical applications of photography To bring this history alive for the reader the set is illustrated in black and white throughout and each volume contains a color plate section A useful glossary of terms is also included      The Postmoderns Donald Allen, George F. Butterick, 1982 This anthology includes many of the major poets to have emerged and gained pre eminence since World War II and whose writing reflects not only the significant changes in this nation's postwar history and the coming to grips with a nuclear age but also an entirely new way of looking at and structuring reality United by their postmodernist concerns with spontaneity instantism formal and syntactic flexibility and the revelation of both the creator and the process through the writing itself these 38 poets represent very diverse strains of an essential American individualism Included are many of the poets whose work first gained widespread national attention with the 1960 publication of The New American Poetry Charles Olson Allen Ginsberg Paul Blackburn LeRoi Jones Amiri Baraka Denise Levertov Robert Duncan and others Among the poets included here for the first time are Anne Waldman Diane di Prima Ed Sanders Jerome Rothenberg and James Koller In addition to a new preface by Allen and Butterick the book provides autobiographical notes of all the poets and listings of their major works      Southern Writers Joseph M. Flora, Amber Vogel, 2006-06-21 This new edition of Southern Writers assumes its distinguished predecessor's place as the essential reference on literary artists of the American South Broadly expanded and thoroughly revised it boasts 604 entries nearly double the earlier edition's written by 264 scholars For every figure major and minor from the venerable and canonical to the fresh and innovative a biographical sketch and chronological list of published works provide comprehensive concise up to date information Here in one convenient source are the South's novelists and short story writers poets and dramatists memoirists and essayists journalists scholars and biographers from the colonial period to the twenty first century What constitutes a southern writer is always a matter for debate Editors Joseph M Flora and Amber Vogel have used a generous definition that turns on having a significant connection to the region in either a personal or literary sense New to this volume are younger writers who have emerged in the quarter century since the dictionary's original publication as well as older talents previously unknown or unacknowledged For almost every writer found in the previous edition a new biography has been commissioned Drawn from the very best minds on southern literature and covering the full spectrum of its practitioners Southern Writers is an indispensable reference book for anyone intrigued by the subject      Kentucky Renaissance Brian Sholis, John Jeremiah Sullivan, 2016-01-01 A groundbreaking study of the extraordinary photographers writers printmakers and publishers who formed a flourishing modernist community in Kentucky Dozens of American cities witnessed the founding of camera clubs in the first half of the 20th century though few boasted as many accomplished artists as the one based in Lexington Kentucky This pioneering book provides the most absorbing account to date of the Lexington Camera Club an understudied group of artists whose ranks included Ralph Eugene Meatyard Van Deren Coke Robert C May James Baker Hall and Cranston Ritchie These and other members of the Lexington Camera Club explored the craft and expressive potential of photography They captured Kentucky's dramatic natural landscape and experimented widely with different techniques including creating double and multiple exposures or shooting deliberately out of focus images In addition to compiling images by these photographers this book examines their relationships with writers publishers and printmakers based in Kentucky at the time such as Wendell Berry Guy Davenport Jonathan Greene and Thomas Merton Moreover the publication seeks to highlight the unique contributions that the Lexington Camera Club made to 20th century photography thus broadening a narrative of modern art that has long focused on New York and Chicago Featuring a wealth of new scholarship this fascinating catalogue asserts the importance and artistic achievement of these often overlooked photographers and their circle     The New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture Judith H. Bonner, Estill Curtis Pennington, Charles Reagan Wilson, 2013-01-14 From the Potomac to the Gulf artists were creating in the South even before it was recognized as a region The South has contributed to America's cultural heritage with works as diverse as Benjamin Henry Latrobe's architectural plans for the nation's Capitol the wares of the Newcomb Pottery and Richard Clague's tonalist Louisiana bayou scenes This comprehensive volume shows how through the decades and centuries the art of the South expanded from mimetic portraiture to sophisticated responses to national and international movements The essays treat historic and current trends in the visual arts and architecture major collections and institutions and biographies of artists themselves As leading experts on the region's artists and their work editors Judith H Bonner and Estill Curtis Pennington frame the volume's contributions with insightful overview essays on the visual arts and architecture in the American South

Ralph Eugene Meatyard Ralph Eugene Meatyard, Guy Davenport, International Center of Photography, 2004 The photographs of Ralph Eugene Meatyard defy convention they have been called visionary surrealistic and meditative Whatever the label these evocative images of friends and family and the natural world around his home illustrate a delicate psychology of human interaction Meatyard was trained as an optician a profession that he maintained all his life in Lexington Kentucky he bought a camera in 1950 for the sole purpose of photographing his first born son But shortly thereafter he joined the Lexington Camera Club and developed a friendship with his photography teacher Van Deren Coke as well as a circle of local writers and photographers including Guy Davenport Thomas Merton Wendell Berry Jonathan Williams and Minor White Family and friends freely participated in Meatyard's staged and mysterious images which often involve masks and abandoned spaces and obliquely reference social political and cultural issues A key subject in Meatyard's work is the natural environment which is featured in his Light on Water series in which long exposures seem to create calligraphic texts and his No Focus series in which he deliberately photographed stems and twigs out of focus In one of his last series titled Motion Sound the pictures were made by moving the camera gently creating multiple exposures of the woodland scenes that suggest abstract sound patterns The book accompanies an exhibition organized by ICP Assistant Curator Cynthia Young with acclaimed writer and Meatyard friend Guy Davenport who also wrote the text Also included are the exhibition history chronology and bibliography     International Photography: Exhibitions Andrew H. Eskin, Greg Drake, Kirsti Ringger, Lynne Rumney, 1998 This is a collection of the George Eastman House index to international photographers collections and exhibitions     Painting in the South, 1564-1980 Donald Burton Kuspit, 1983     Un/common Ground Virginia Museum of Fine Arts, 1988     The Lexington Camera Club, 1936-1972 Robert Carl May, 1989 The Lexington Camera Club was organized in the Fall of 1936 by Professor Brooks Hamilton and Dr Louis Mulligan Olin E Hinkle was the first president elected They met at the University of Kentucky campus in the Funkhouser Building The first formal public exhibition of the

Lexington Camera Club was held in 1940 on the mezzanine of the old Phoenix Hotel It comprised 112 prints Dr Stanley Parks won first prize In February and March of 1941 the first annual Kentucky Photographic Salon was held Van Deren Coke took first place with Foggy Morning Yarmouth Exhibitions were held in the Phoenix Hotel on Main Street and in the old Kentucky Utilities Building until 1948 when locations began to vary Monthly meetings averaged forty five to fifty prints Most members were using twin lens reflex cameras square format camera and the 4 x 5 view camera for their work It was not until the early 1960 s that anyone began using the 35mm camera for black and white photography In the 1950 s club meetings moved to the Fine Arts Building until 1967 In 1972 there were approximately thirty active members of the Lexington Camera Club Gene Meatyard was president of the organization and Robert May was vice president Gene Meatyard died in May of that year and the club was dissolved within that year

International Photography Andrew H. Eskind, Greg Drake, 1998 This 3 vol work constitutes a vastly enlarged and expanded new edition of the Index to American Photographic Collections 3rd enlarged edition differing from the previous editions in two important respects First is the inclusion of holdings from outside the United States a natural evolution in our shrinking world The second is the inclusion of exhibition histories cross referenced by photographer and sponsoring institution providing a useful new context for evaluating less well known photographers
