Barbara Richards,2007-02-12 My earliest memories are only fear A great hurting fear that made my heart as big as a pumpkin that welled up into my throat choking me dizzying my head turning my legs to rubber Fear of moving and making noise fear of sleep that was invaded by terrible nightmares fear of waking up to the daily beatings for wet beds fear of the dark fear of guns and knives fear of loud noises fear of making a mistake fear of forgetting fear of Mom going away and most of all fear of the constant presence we called Daddy These are my oldest sister s words Dancing on His Grave is a memoir set on an eastern Montana ranch between 1930 and 1955 My four sisters my mother and I all contribute first person narrative to this story along with excerpts from the extensive journals my mother kept throughout her life It is the story of five sisters who survived unspeakable deprivation and abuse sexual and physical at the hands of our sadistic father A friend gave me his strong opinion As the psychologist for the prison in Deer Lodge he said I meet inmates with stories like yours all the time What makes your story unique is the outcome This story is not about him This is about five little girls who literally survived him excelled in school married and raised families of normal productive contributing citizens My father was not an alcoholic or drug addict All his abuse was administered cold sober I am convinced he was not mentally ill in the legal or moral sense of the phrase He knew right from wrong but as a narcissistic sociopath he believed that the world revolved around him so the rules of decency that other people follow did not apply The only rule he held himself to was Don t get caught The state of being purely evil does not constitute mental illness By my estimation he was born without a conscience and perhaps without a soul The most important message of this story is the resilience and strength of the human spirit      Intercultural Education: Kosovo Stories of Struggle and Resilience Cameron White,Blerim Saqipi,2020-10-06 Intercultural Education Kosovo Stories of Struggle and Resilience offers stories that challenge traditional conceptions regarding often unknown or ignored histories The efforts and fortitude of Kosovo and its people provide a thought provoking case study to learn from history Kosovo still suffers from issues of poverty development and global recognition The ongoing story of education in Kosovo comes alive with educators sharing individual perspectives regarding their struggles and resolve as students teachers and parents Although the focus is on Kosovo the hope is that an intercultural awareness arises in place of the traditional international understanding Celebrating culture perspective difference and similarity is a primary focus of this book which aspires to encourage readers to build bridges through intercultural education This collection will be of interest both to faculty students researchers and scholars in education and cultural studies and to members of international education organizations      The Business Educator ,1927      The Woman with the German Accent Anita Gertrude Roesch Plutte,2011 Many East Germans illegally escaped through Berlin before the wall was built Freedom was possible if one could convince the guards there was a good reason to enter the Western side Anita Plutte was one of those who found a way It was December 1955 and I had just said a long tearful fearful good bye to my sister Renate I found myself walking across the Berlin bridge with Frau Fischer I hoped I was doing the right thing When we got about halfway across a young guard stopped us by holding up his hand and blocking our path Where are you going How long will you be there What is the purpose of your visit The blonde guard on the bridge on the East Berlin side was probably only 20 years old just a little younger than I was at the time My mouth was dry from the nervousness I was feeling My throat was closed I could not answer My heart was pounding so hard I could feel it pushing against my chest My clothes were sticking to my back from the nervous sweat I just looked down I could not meet his eye What I was about to do was so against my nature yet from somewhere within I was determined to try ABOUT THE AUTHOR Anita Plutte resides in Southeastern Pennsylvania at a cozy retirement community Writing has become one of her passionate hobbies She grew up in Germany during WWII and escaped from East Germany as a young adult searching for peace and happiness The rosy life she imagined she would have in the United States never became a reality As a result of trials and disappointments she realized that true happiness could only be found in knowing God and Jesus Christ      We Just Got On With It Doreen McBride,2022-07-14 But we will do what we have always done just get on with it The contributions of Northern Ireland to allied efforts in the Second World War are widely celebrated acknowledged by both Sir Winston Churchill and Theodore Roosevelt as vital to their eventual victory Lesser known are the
