The Thai Girl Ian H. James, 2024-09-13 This is the true story of Anna a Thai girl being raised in poverty in a poor area of Bangkok This story is about real people and real events it tells the tale of not only from rags to riches but that of emotional trauma and how a beautiful child and then woman suffered throughout her life Poverty such as Anna experienced is not an isolated event it just happens to be one of which I became aware after meeting her and talking to her As emails and messages flowed the story of her life began to unravel At times her recount of events is tragic the feeling of despair and pain merely because she was raised on the wrong side of the tracks is as heartbreaking as it is pathetic As her story began to unfold it didn't feel real it felt as though it was an imaginary tale based on imaginary people but the account and people are very real It defied credibility This is the story of Anna a Thai girl
