The founder of the Black Doctors Consortium shares her inspiring story of overcoming mind numbing obstacles Will Smith highlighting the devastating racial injustices in our healthcare system in this empowering call to action Dr Ala Stanford knew she wanted to be a doctor by the time she was eight years old But role models were few and far between in her working class North Philly neighborhood Her teachers were dismissive and the realities of racism sexism and poverty threatened to derail her at every turn Nevertheless thanks to her faith family and the sheer strength of her will today she is one of the vanishingly small number of Black women surgeons in America and an unrelenting force in the fight for health justice In Take Care of Them Like My Own Dr Stanford shares an unflinching account of her story explaining how her experiences on both sides of the scalpel have informed her understanding of America s racial health gap an insidious and lethal form of inequality that exacts a devastating toll on Black communities across the county affluent and underserved alike When Covid 19 arrived in her hometown of Philadelphia she knew it would disproportionately affect the Black population As the city stood idly by unwilling or unable to protect its most vulnerable citizens Dr Stanford took matters into her own hands She rented a van made some calls and began administering tests in church parking lots Soon she found herself at the helm of a powerful grassroots campaign that successfully vaccinated tens of thousands of Philadelphians She and her movement are living proof that by drawing on faith community and inner strength everyday people can affect tremendous change With extraordinary insight sensitivity and intelligence Dr Drew Weissman Nobel Laureate Take Care of Them Like My Own offers urgent lessons about the power of communities working together to take care of one another and the importance of fighting for a health care system that truly fulfills its promise to all Americans The Private Journal and Literary Remains of John Byrom John Byrom,1855
