All Action, No Talk! Y.G. Nygthstorm,2012-11-15 There is an old saying which goes GOD will never give you more than you can handle In most cases this is true Life does have a way of teaching us lessons that build character and wisdom is gained There are times however when life becomes a bully and strong arms us into submission Do you feel as though your problems are insurmountable and there is no positive way to change your life Maybe you have made some bad decisions You are not alone most people share these feelings at some point in their lives I have been there myself countless times The one thing that has kept me going is my belief that as long as I'm alive I still have a chance I've learned over the years that most situations are fixable. You just have to find a positive approach that will bring about the outcome you desire. Whether your challenges involve your career, parenting, relationships, or your mental well-being, I can relate to your situation. As you read the pages of this book, you will learn about the mistakes I have made and the lessons I have learned. I have been through hell, and I have made it out of the other side. Let me show you how I did it because, whether you believe it or not, you can too.

More Love, Less Panic Claude Knobler, 2015-01-02 In this heartwarming and hilarious memoir, Claude Knobler describes how he learned the hard way that the apple actually can fall far from the tree. And that's okay. Already, the biological parents of a seven-year-old son and a five-year-old daughter, Claude Knobler and his wife decided to adopt Nati, a five-year-old Ethiopian boy who seemed different from Knobler in every conceivable way. After more than five years spent trying to turn his wild, silly adopted African son into a quiet, neurotic Jewish guy like himself, Knobler realized the importance of having the courage to love, accept, and let go of his children. In this wonderfully written memoir, Knobler explains how his experiences raising Nati led him to learn a lesson that applied equally well to parenting his biological children. It's essential to spend the time we are given with our children to love them and enjoy them rather than push and mold them into who we think they should be.
