I Cannot Go Back:

YOU CANNOT GO away Lorenzo Miraglia, 2018-08-30 Ok I m hiding there right there I m going fast so no one can stop me I go in and I hide inside the low door of the closet I m between his sweaters Here in the midst of the heat in this cold winter in its typical smell the pain that its words cause fades a little The Palgrave Handbook of Popular Culture as Philosophy Dean A. Kowalski, Chris Lay, Kimberly S. Engels, 2024-04-30 Much philosophical work on pop culture apologises for its use using popular culture is a necessary evil something merely useful for reaching the masses with important philosophical arguments But works of pop culture are important in their own right they shape worldviews inspire ideas change minds We wouldn't baulk at a book dedicated to examining the philosophy of The Great Gatsby or 1984 why aren't Star Trek and Superman fair game as well After all when produced the former were considered pop culture just as much as the latter This will be the first major reference work to right that wrong gathering together entries on film television games graphic novels and comedy and officially recognizing the importance of the field It will be the go to resource for students and researchers in philosophy culture media and communications English and history and will act as a springboard to introduce the reader to the other key literature in the field The Crown of Thorns Linus Asong, 2009-07-15 Chief Nchindia held the Elders of his Council in total contempt inwardly vowing to disagree with them at every point where disagreement was possible What starts like a big joke develops into grim tragedy the statue of the god of Nkokonoko Small Monje is discovered to have been stolen and sold to a white man The tradition demands instant execution of the culprits Was their Chief involved in the theft What was worse the crime or the punishment Linus Asong was born in the South West Region of Cameroon in 1947 With a combined B A honours in Education in 1980 he entered the University of Windsor in Canada whence he graduated with a terminal degree in Creative Writing He holds an M A and a PhD in Comparative Literature from the University of Alberta in Edmonton Canada and is presently Associate Professor of Literature and Creative Writing at Ecole Normale Supérieure Bambili University of Yaounde 1 Asong is a stand up humorist a consummate portrait painter an accomplished literary scholar and a celebrated prolific writer with over a dozen novels to his credit Not a Hopeless Case Halee Gray Scott, 2023-04-25 Is America the next missionary graveyard Or is it ripe for spiritual revolution The statistics seem grim Every year the decline of Christianity continues at a rapid pace especially among young adults Churches across the country are closing their doors dying or are being adopted by nearby larger churches What is the story church leaders hear We've lost the next generation But this decline in religious affiliation has not made us less spiritual Young adults are still asking questions that only faith or religion can fully answer Questions are like seeds buried in the rich dark soil of our hearts Nurtured with oxygen and water they unfold into that which they were meant to become Absent these conditions they wither in the dark Those most resistant to Christianity are those whose questions did not receive oxygen in their faith communities while they were children and teenagers Not a Hopeless Case is the story of questions the questions of young adults about faith and spirituality young adults who are lost and want to be found and the questions of pastors who seek to find them
