A Comprehensive Manchu-English Dictionary Jerry Norman, 2020-10-26 Jerry Norman's Comprehensive Manchu English Dictionary a substantial revision and enlargement of his Concise Manchu English Lexicon of 1978 now long out of print is poised to become the standard English language resource on the Manchu language As the dynastic language of the Qing dynasty 1644 1911 Manchu was used in official documents and was also the vehicle for an enormous translation literature mostly from the Chinese The new Dictionary based exclusively on Qing sources retains all of the information from the earlier Lexicon but also includes hundreds of additional entries cited from original Manchu texts enhanced cross references and an entirely new introduction on Manchu pronunciation and script All content from the earlier publication has also been verified This final book from the preeminent Manchu linguist in the English speaking world is a reference work that not only updates Norman's earlier scholarship but also summarizes his decades of study of the Manchu language The Dictionary which represents a significant scholarly contribution to the field of Inner Asian studies and to all students and scholars of Manchu and other Tungusic and related languages around the world will become a major tool for archival research on Chinese late imperial period history and government

Slow Looking Shari Tishman, 2017-10-12 Slow Looking provides a robust argument for the importance of slow looking in learning environments both general and specialized formal and informal and its connection to major concepts in teaching learning and knowledge A museum originated practice increasingly seen as holding wide educational benefits slow looking contends that patient immersive attention to content can produce active cognitive opportunities for meaning making and critical thinking that may not be possible through high speed means of information delivery Addressing the multi disciplinary applications of this purposeful behavioral practice this book draws examples from the visual arts literature science and everyday life using original real world scenarios to illustrate the complexities and rewards of slow looking

Stories of Childhood Dean W. Duncan, 2015-11-03 This study questions the widely held perception that books as an artistic medium are superior to and more respectable than film or television sometimes considered frivolous and pernicious Criticism of both the big and small screens often obscures their signal accomplishments and the entertainment and insight they provide The author analyzes our distaste for these media and the romanticizing of the printed word that accompanies it and argues that books and films are in fact quite complementary A broad survey of film and TV offerings explores what enacted narratives have taught us about the nature of childhood

Policing in Japan Setsuo Miyazawa, 1992-03-26 This book is an observational study of the Japanese detective demonstrating with extensive field data the process of criminal investigation It is the first in depth study of the Japanese criminal justice system at work Utilizing Ericson's concept of making crime Setsuo Miyazawa analyzes the restraints under which Japanese detectives work and the unique freedoms they have in the investigative process in comparison to American police generally He also provides a comparative analysis of law enforcement in Japan the United States and Europe and questions how effectively these systems evaluate and enable investigative police work

Conversational Dominance and Gender Hiroko Itakura,2001 Annotation In this study Itakura The Hong Kong Polytechnic U analyzes gender dominance in conversations among Japanese speakers in both their native tongue L1 and in English L2 The interactions studied include institutional talk as well as everyday conversation The author s approach draws upon Conversation Analysis the Birmingham school of discourse analysis and dialogical analysis to examine whether patterns of gender dominance in Japanese L2 conversation are similar to those found in L1 conversation Annotation c Book News Inc Portland OR booknews com

Challenges of Mapping the Classical World Richard J.A. Talbert,2018-09-04 Challenges of Mapping the Classical World collects together in one volume fourteen varied items written by Richard Talbert over the past thirty years They cohere around the theme of mapping the classical world since the nineteenth century All were originally prompted by Talbert s commission in the late 1980s to produce a definitive classical atlas after more than a century of failed attempts by the Kiepert and others These he evaluates as well as probing the Smith Grove atlas a successful twenty year initiative launched in the mid 1850s with a cartographic approach that departs radically from established practice Talbert s initial vision for the international collaborative project that resulted in the Barrington Atlas of the Greek and Roman World 2000 is presented and the successive twice yearly reports on its progress from 1991 through to completion are published here for the first time A further item reflects retrospectively on the project s cartographic challenges and on how developments in digital map production were decisive in overcoming them This volume will be invaluable to anyone with an interest in the development and growing impact of mapping the classical world

Asian Children's Literature and Film in a Global Age Bernard Wilson,Sharmani Patricia Gabriel,2020-03-06 This volume provides a key analysis of Asian children s literature and film and creates a dialogue between East and West and between the cultures from which they emerge within the complex symbiosis of their local national and transnational frameworks In terms of location and content the book embraces a broad scope including contributions related to the Asian American diaspora China India Indonesia Iran Japan Malaysia the Philippines South Korea Sri Lanka and Taiwan Individually and collectively these essays broach crucial questions What elements of Asian literature and film make them distinctive both within their own specific culture and within the broader Asian area What aspects link them to these genres in other parts of the world How have they represented and shaped the societies and cultures they inhabit What moral codes do they address underpin or contest The volume provides further voice to the increasingly diverse and fascinating output of the region and emphasises the importance of Asian art forms as depictions of specific cultures but also of their connection to broader themes in children s texts and scholarship within this field

Getting Beyond "Interesting" Olga M. Nesi,2012-07-19 Make use of a detailed plan and ready to use lessons for teaching appeal terms and Book Hook writing to students Getting Beyond Interesting

Teaching Students the Vocabulary of Appeal to Discuss Their Reading is a practical application book that gives librarians all the tools they need to implement the teaching of both appeal terms and Book Hook writing and sharing. When students know how to write Book Hooks and have access to an easy to use system for allowing students to share Book Hooks the result is greatly increased reading through the power of peer recommendations. This book not only supplies a detailed plan for teaching appeal terms and Book Hook writing but it also provides two extensive appendices containing all the black line masters and forms needed to implement these lessons. As a result practitioners will be able to enhance their students reading culture through increased sharing of reading and most importantly by empowering students with the ability to clearly define their reading preferences.

Grammar of Poumai Naga (Poula) Sahiinii Lemaina Veikho, 2021-09-20. This is the first complete description of Poumai Naga Poula, an understudied language spoken in Manipur in northeast India. Poumai Naga belongs to the Angami Pochuri clade of the Trans Himalayan family. The book comprises all aspects of the language including phonology, lexicon, morphosyntax, syntax, and discourse. This work employs the tone periodic table, an innovative method used for documenting tone languages. A bilingual lexicon and a collection of fully analysed texts are provided in the appendices. This research work represents a substantial contribution to the field of comparative Trans Himalayan linguistics.
