Book I Testify Life Is Forever is a collection of works from one Black man's experience growing up in the Deep South of Alabama. A powerful look into the Deep South Black community and racial tensions, Curtis Malcolm Monroe Sr.'s prose and verse provide a raw, real perspective on the state of America and the lack of liberty and justice for all. About the Author: Curtis Malcolm Monroe Sr. was born in Tuskegee, Alabama, in 1951. He spent much of his youth living in an old shanty house with his single mother and five siblings. He and his siblings would chop wood for heat, eat wild game they caught for their mother to cook, and worked in the cotton fields. When she received enough money, his mother moved their family to a new town, and Monroe went on to graduate from Carver High School, class of 1970, the last class of all Black students. He and his brother went on to join the USMC during the Vietnam War. After the military, Monroe was married and had two sons. After his divorce, he went back to school. Now retired, he spends most of his time writing poems, short stories, and creating art. From Azaleas to Zydeco Mark W. Nichols, 2014-02-01. Inspired by a 1937 account of a newspaperman's tour, author Mark Nichols began his own long journey into the cities of the South. Along the way, he met beekeepers, cheese makers, crawfish bawlers, duck callers, and a licensed alligator hunter, as well as entrepreneurs and politicians. His observations encompass ten southern states from Virginia to Arkansas and points south, and he unpacks the unique qualities of every city he visits. Back cover Panama Canal Treaties (United States Senate Debate), 1977-78: March 17 thru April 19, 1978, 1979 Dominos Donna M. Calhoun, 2007-09. It's impossible to know when and how the dominos of someone's life will start to fall. When Katie Race, a working Alabama foster mom with a passion for hunting deer, gets a summons for jury duty, she has no idea how far she would actually go to see justice served. At the trial, she learns about the despicable transgressions of Larry Cunningham, a forty-two-year-old unmarried youth minister from Loxley Lutheran Church, just down the street from where she lives. Cunningham was once adored by the female parishioners at his church, but he had a rule: He never dated the mothers of the children. Of course, that didn't stop young women from swooning over him, and it didn't stop Larry from molesting their young boys. The grand jury on which Katie serves promptly indicts Cunningham, who is arrested and brought to court. But before a trial can ever really begin, the charges are dropped because of a technicality. Katie can't tolerate the idea of the authorities doing nothing as a known child molester endangers the community, so she decides to put her hunting skills to the test to track down Cunningham. Dominos tells the riveting story of a community betrayed and one woman's decision to do what she thinks is right, no matter the consequences.
