Clayton, 2010 Hans Magnus Enzensberger is one of the most widely read and respected writers in post war Germany In the present study a considerable number of his most important poems are closely analyzed including the texts that make up his major poetic cycles Mausoleum 1975 and Der Untergang der Titanic 1978 Central to any discussion of this highly diverse corpus is the way in which Enzensberger creates strikingly original poems on the basis of borrowed material Der Untergang der Titanic for example is closely based on the famous bestseller A Night to Remember 1955 by the American writer Walter Lord and on the film of the same name by Roy Baker 1958 Enzensberger s Versepos is simply unimaginable without Lord s book and certain episodes represented in the poem can be fully understood only by readers who have seen the film The appropriation of documentary material also plays an important role in the series of poems devoted to nature or science many of which present themselves as riddles An entire chapter is devoted to the analysis of these fascinating riddle poems The various personages portrayed in Mausoleum comprise not only scientists inventors explorers and thinkers who were responsible for truly world changing discoveries Gutenberg Humboldt and Darwin for example but also a whole series of historical figures whose admission to this oddball pantheon is best explained by the bizarreness of their often utopian projects or by their compulsive or megalomaniacal personalities The playful and provocative Enzensberger clearly chose several of these latter for their shock value Raimondo di Sangro V M Molotov Ernesto Guevara de la Serna Our reading of this collection demonstrates Enzensberger s willingness to undermine seriousness with irony and humor hence the presence of Dante and Marilyn Monroe on board the sinking Titanic The final chapter examines the relation between poetry and politics and examines the notorious essay Gemeinpl tze die Neueste Literatur betreffend 1968 as well as the disturbing interview with the Weimarer Beitr ge 1971 in which the poet expresses his thankfully short lived rejection of literature as art and his desire to break out of the Ghetto des Kulturlebens This chapter also discusses the influence of Bertolt Brecht Other chapters focus on the poet s taste for anachronism his asynchronous sensibility and the recurrent theme of disappearance The Common Core in Grades K-3 Roger Sutton, Daryl Grabarek, 2014-09-26 The Common Core in Grades K 3 is the second in a series of comprehensive tools to tap into the vast flow of recently published books for children and teens offering recommendations of exemplary titles for use in the classroom Currency meets authority brought to you by the editors of the highly regarded review sources School Library Journal and The Horn Book Magazine This guide includes hundreds of selections for grades K 3 published since 2007 recommended by The Horn Book Magazine The titles are grouped by subject and complemented by School Library Journal s Focus On columns which spotlight specific topics across the curriculum Providing context for the
