I Remember Hiroshima:

I Remember Hiroshima Stephen Kelen, 1983 Peace Museums Peter van den Dungen, 2024-12-31 This book is the first comprehensive study of the history nature and purposes of peace museums comprising twenty one essays by a leading authority in the field It presents a powerful argument for the need for this new kind of museum that informs and inspires visitors that a world of peace and nonviolence is both necessary and possible Whereas there are numerous museums about war and the armed forces museums about peacemaking and peacemakers are rare indeed the very concept of peace museums is still largely unknown This is a reflection of the traditional writing and teaching of history which is dominated by narratives of war and warriors with little or no attention being paid to the history of efforts to prevent and abolish war Peace museums are ideal instruments to bring the long fascinating and vitally important history of peace to life for a large public Among the essays included are histories of two forgotten and unknown yet heroic efforts to prevent World War I and then World War II through museums that educated and alerted visitors about the disasters ahead if war was not avoided and ways to steer a different course following the catastrophe that was the Great War At a time when a barbaric war in Europe continuing wars in Africa and ominous threats of war in Asia are raising the specter of nuclear war and World War III the need for anti nuclear bomb and anti war museums is greater than ever Such museums are essential for the development of a global culture of peace and nonviolence The book provides inspiration and hope for everyone interested in efforts to overcome an existential threat to civilization that is wholly man made Countdown 1945 Chris Wallace, 2020-06-09 The 1 national bestselling riveting The New York Times propulsive Time behind the scenes account that reads like a tense thriller The Washington Post of the 116 days leading up to the American attack on Hiroshima by Chris Wallace veteran journalist and CNN anchor and Max host April 12 1945 After years of bloody conflict in Europe and the Pacific America is stunned by news of President Franklin D Roosevelt s death In an instant Vice President Harry Truman who has been kept out of war planning and knows nothing of the top secret Manhattan Project to develop the world s first atomic bomb must assume command of a nation at war on multiple continents and confront one of the most consequential decisions in history Countdown 1945 tells the gripping true story of the turbulent days weeks and months to follow leading up to August 6 1945 when Truman gives the order to drop the bomb on Hiroshima In Countdown 1945 Chris Wallace the veteran journalist and CNN anchor and Max host takes readers inside the minds of the iconic and elusive figures who join the quest for the bomb each for different reasons the legendary Albert Einstein who eventually calls his vocal support for the atomic bomb the one great mistake in my life lead researcher J Robert Oppie Oppenheimer and the Soviet spies who secretly infiltrate his team the fiercely competitive pilots of the plane selected to drop the bomb and many more Perhaps most of all Countdown 1945 is the story of an untested new president confronting a decision that he knows will change the world forever But more than a book about the atomic bomb Countdown 1945 is also an unforgettable account of the lives of ordinary American and Japanese civilians in wartime from

Calutron Girls like Ruth Sisson in Oak Ridge Tennessee to ten year old Hiroshima resident Hideko Tamura who survives the blast at ground zero but loses her mother and later immigrates to the United States where she lives to this day as well as American soldiers fighting in the Pacific waiting in fear for the order to launch a possible invasion of Japan Told with vigor intelligence and humanity Countdown 1945 is the definitive account of one of the most significant moments in history

Pacific Exposures Melissa Miles, Robin Gerster, 2018-12-19 Photography has been a key means by which Australians have sought to define their relationships with Japan From the fascination with all things Japanese in the late nineteenth century through the era of White Australia the bitter enmity of the Pacific War the path to reconciliation in the post war period and the culturally complicated bilateralism of today Australians have used their cameras to express a divided sense of conflict and kinship with a country that has by turns fascinated and infuriated The remarkable photographs collected and discussed here for the first time shed new light on the history of Australia's engagement with its most important regional partner Pacific Exposures argues that photographs tell an important story of cultural production response and reaction not only about how Australians have pictured Japan over the decades but how they see their own place in the Asia Pacific Pacific Exposures presents the first study of the photographic exchanges between Australia and Japan its photographers personalities motivations anxieties and tensions based on a diverse range of archival materials interviews and well chosen photographs Dr Luke Gartlan University of St Andrews Pacific Exposures will become a key text on Australia's interactions with Japan and the way that photographs can inform cross cultural relations through their production consumption and circulation Prof Kate Darian Smith University of Tasmania

Women and War Bernard A. Cook, 2006-05-19 In this unique encyclopedia 120 leading scholars from around the world provide comprehensive treatment of the role of women in war from the first written history to the present This authoritative encyclopedia presents the work of leading scholars from all over the world to give the first detailed coverage of the role of women in wars throughout history Histories of war are typically histories of men great leaders and heroic fighters Yet the roles of women often receive only limited coverage Except for such notables as Joan of Arc traditional histories give short shrift to women as leaders and fighters Similarly the direct victimization particularly sexual abuse as a weapon of terror and domination and cultural dislocations women suffer in war float as background without detailed coverage This work represents a first devoted in its entirety to thorough examination of all aspects of women in war For the first time readers have a single source for information on the scope of women's role in war and war's effects on them

Alone Everywhere Khaled Hafidhi, 2016-01-11 The novel tells the story of an educated young African male who moved from his homeland by boat in a long terrible voyage to Britain then Japan and eventually to the USA with the American dream of a better life in his mind In every place he made different experiences discovering people languages and cultures but in every place he went he finished up by being alone In the middle of the story he fell in love with an English girl and tasted many terrible experiences different jobs a prison experience a famous writer experience All his experiences end by many failures He is a selfish man guided only to one truth his individual talent It is because of such selfishness that he was lost He was unable to see the real achievements he started before traveling to Europe his job his family his girl and everything he gained in his native land in North Africa He followed his own truth that of being a man of literature regardless to the harm he may cause to himself and his North African people GenTech Rick

Chromey, 2020-02-04 A social historian examines the use of technology in modern U S history and offers a different way to group American generations The G I Generation Silents Baby Boomers Gen Xers Millennials Generation Z Every generation has its label and box But the real question is Why Enter GenTech It s a whole new way to look at American generations Instead of the conventional fixed and linear dates for generational cohorts Dr Rick Chromey proposes a fresh understanding that s fluid and more of a loop rooted to the technology each generation experiences in their coming of age years Since 1900 there has been more technological change than in all of previous combined history The airplane The automobile Radio Television Nuclear energy Rockets Internet Cellphones Robots Furthermore there s a massive cultural shifting unlike anything witnessed since the Dark Ages gave way to the Renaissance Reformation Enlightenment Scientific and Industrial Ages Consequently postmodern generations born since 1960 have grown up in a new cyber wireless and visual high tech culture that s forever changed how we do business learn socialize broadcast entertain and worship It s technology that shapes us gives every generation its personality and seeds who we ll become tomorrow GenTech opens a whole new perspective on how to view the world and understand why every generation matters Praise for GenTech Whether you re a technology nerd or wizard this intriguing book will help you connect the digital dots You ll see how technology is profoundly shaping our culture and you like it or not Plus you ll discover how technology affects each generation differently for better or worse Thom Schultz co author of Don t Just Teach Reach The Minor Intimacies of Race Christine Kim, 2016-04-30 An attempt to put an Asian woman on Canada s 100 bill in 2012 unleashed enormous controversy The racism and xenophobia that answered this symbolic move toward inclusiveness revealed the nation s trumpeted commitment to multiculturalism as a lie It also showed how multiple minor publics as well as the dominant public responded to the ongoing issue of race in Canada In this new study Christine Kim delves into the ways cultural conversations minimize race s relevance even as violent expressions and structural forms of racism continue to occur Kim turns to literary texts artistic works and media debates to highlight the struggles of minor publics with social intimacy Her insightful engagement with everyday conversations as well as artistic expressions that invoke the figure of the Asian allows Kim to reveal the affective dimensions of racialized publics It also extends ongoing critical conversations within Asian Canadian and Asian American studies about Orientalism diasporic memory racialized citizenship and migration and human rights An Ethic for Enemies Donald W. Shriver, 1995 The author of this text examines how former enemies learn to live together in peaceful political association despite their suffering at each other s hands He seeks to reclaim the concept of forgiveness from personal and religious realms and restate its

Mr Two Bomb William Coles, 2006-08-27 Compellingly vivid the most sustained description of apocalypse since Robert Harris's Pompeii The Financial Times One man miraculously survives the Atomic Bomb of Hiroshima Two days later he catches the last train home Home to Nagasaki He arrives just 90 minutes before the world's second atomic bomb explodes into his life As he battles through the scene of apocalyptic destruction surrounded by unthinkable suffering he is plagued by one constant question is he lucky or unlucky This is his answer he's the luckiest man alive

Hiroshima in the Morning Rahna Reiko Rizzuto, 2010-09-14 The award winning author of Shadow Child embarks on a simple journey to record history that changes her life as a wife and mother In June 2001 Rahna Reiko Rizzuto went to Hiroshima Japan in search of a deeper understanding of her war torn heritage She planned to spend six months there interviewing the few remaining survivors of the atomic bomb A mother of two young boys she was encouraged to go by her husband who quickly became disenchanted by her absence It is her first solo life adventure immediately exhilarating for her but her research starts off badly Interviews with the hibakusha feel rehearsed and the survivors reveal little beyond published accounts Then the attacks on September 11 change everything The survivors carefully constructed memories are shattered causing them to relive their agonizing experiences and to open up to Rizzuto in astonishing ways Separated from family and country while the world seems to fall apart Rizzuto's marriage begins to crumble as she wrestles with her ambivalence about being a wife and mother Woven into the story of her own awakening are the stories of Hiroshima in the survivors own words The parallel narratives explore the role of memory in our lives and show how memory is not history but a story we tell ourselves to explain who we are 2010 FINALIST FOR THE NATIONAL BOOK CRITICS CIRCLE AWARD A brave compassionate and heart wrenching memoir of one woman's quest to redeem the past while learning to live fully in the present Kate Moses author of Wintering This searing and redemptive memoir is an explosive account of motherhood reconstructed Ayelet Waldman author of Red Hook Road Remembering Japanese Baseball Robert K. Fitts, 2005

Religion, War, and Ethics Gregory M. Reichberg, Henrik Syse, 2014-05-26 This volume offers a comprehensive selection of texts from the world's major religions on the ethical dimensions of war and armed conflict Despite a considerable rise of interest in Eastern and Western religious teachings on issues of war and peace the principal texts in which these teachings are expounded have in most cases remained inaccessible to all but a handful of specialists This is especially true of traditions such as Islam Buddhism and Judaism where the key authoritative treatments are often embedded in texts e.g. Koranic jurisprudence religious epics or Talmudic commentary that are not overtly about matters pertaining to the ethics of war thus requiring a difficult process of interpretation and selection and for which English translations frequently do not exist Topical and timely for today's debates in the public arena and essential reading for students of religious ethics and the relationship between religion and politics this book aims to give the reader a proper knowledge of the textual traditions that inform the key struggles over issues of peace and security identity and land A Pilgrim Pope Pope John Paul II, 2012-12-18 Pope John Paul II redefined the role of the papacy as an active living presence in the lives of the diverse faithful worldwide He accomplished this in part through the remarkable breadth of his travels visiting every continent around the globe In the course of an unprecedented 85 trips with stops to lands rich and poor at peace and strife torn he shared his universal message of joy hope and comfort This powerful collection of over 175 of his most compelling messages is presented in chronological order around the three themes that mark the progression of his papacy Evangelization and Global Politics Solidarity and Unity and New Evangelization Toward the Millennium and Beyond Introductory notes clarifying the time and context for each selection further enhance this inspiring volume Remaking Reality Sara Blair, Joseph B. Entin, Franny Nudelman, 2018-03-15 After World War II U.S. documentarians engaged in a rigorous rethinking of established documentary practices and histories Responding to the tumultuous transformations of the postwar era the atomic age the civil rights movement the Vietnam War the emergence of the environmental movement immigration and refugee crises student activism the globalization of labor and the financial collapse of 2008 documentary makers increasingly reconceived reality as the site of social conflict and saw their work as instrumental to struggles for justice Examining a wide range of forms and media including sound recording narrative journalism drawing photography film and video this book is a daring interdisciplinary study of documentary culture and practice from 1945 to the present Essays by leading scholars across disciplines collectively explore the activist impulse of documentarians who not only record reality but also challenge their audiences to take part in reality s remaking In addition to the editors the volume s contributors include Michael Mark Cohen Grace Elizabeth Hale Matthew Frye Jacobson Jonathan Kahana Leigh Raiford Rebecca M Schreiber Noah Tsika Laura Wexler and Daniel Worden
