Church made a pact with the prime minister so that the law on same sex marriages did not include the possibility of adoption And in Belgium the Episcopal conference limited its actions to clearly expressing with religious legal and anthropological arguments its opposition to such laws which all other Episcopal conferences did also In this book the authors analyse the full spectrum of the issue including the emergence of such laws the political discussions the standpoints defended in the media by professionals ethicists and politicians the votes in the parliaments the political interventions of the Episcopal conferences and the attitude of professionals As a result the reader understands what was at stake and the differences in actions of the various Episcopal conferences The authors also analyse the pro and con evaluations among the civil population of such actions by the Church Finally in a comparative synthesis they discuss the public positions taken by Pope Francis to evaluate if a change in Church policy might be possible in the near future Research by GERICR Groupe europeen de recherche interdisciplinaire sur le changement religieux a European interdisciplinary research group studying religious changes coordinated by Alfonso Perez Agote Books in Print Supplement, 1988

Sociology and Catholic Social Teaching Stephen R. Sharkey, 2012-08-31 Sociology and Catholic Social Teaching Contemporary Theory and Research contains essays by key scholars in the territory where Catholic social thought and secular sociology meet and offers a much needed alternative to the relativism and individualism that so often characterize social scientific analysis today Contributors to this volume argue that Catholic social teaching as articulated so powerfully today in recent papal encyclicals and major summations such as the Compendium of the Social Doctrine of the Church offers a powerful moral framework for addressing today's pressing social problems. This is especially true since many of its tenets find solid support in social scientific research on the nature of the person and the workings of culture and social institutions. Sponsored by the Society of Catholic Social Scientists and including work by sociologists from both the Society and the Pontifical Academy of Social Sciences, this volume is offered in the spirit of Pope John Paul II's exhortation to draw from contemporary social science whatever can help the Church better understand contemporary social issues and trends and thus better serve humanity. Specific articles address such topics as the Church as a virtual nation in the international arena, changing cultural norms regarding deviance, the historical and contemporary relationship between Catholicism and mainstream academic sociology, empirical support for a natural law perspective on family relations, the social psychology of happiness and moral behavior among emerging adults, the sociology of knowledge from a distinctively Catholic perspective, and how the principles of subsidiarity and solidarity can be used to analyze and evaluate the functioning of institutions like the family, education, and the state. Each author also offers some autobiographical reflections on how they relate sociology and their life of Faith. This anthology will interest scholars in both sociology and Catholic social thought as well as advanced undergraduate and graduate students in these areas.

Death and Religion in a Changing World Kathleen Garces-Foley, 2022-06-01. Death and Religion in a Changing World is a comprehensive and accessible study of the intersection of death and religion, examining how everyday people enact religious responses to death in the twenty-first century. With contributions from leading religious studies scholars, this book moves away from the field's focus on traditional beliefs to explore how religious traditions evolve in relation to their changing social contexts. Employing an ethnographic approach, Death and Religion in a Changing World further details how people from a wide variety of religious traditions and people without religious affiliation draw on and adapt religious practices as they respond to death in modern societies. Every chapter in this second edition has been thoroughly updated, and new chapters on the ethical issues of dying, including life-prolonging medical treatments, palliative care, physician-assisted suicide, and euthanasia, and the modern hospice movement have been added. This book also covers emerging social and religious phenomena such as public shrines, the COVID-19 pandemic, funeral celebrants, death with dignity, spiritual bereavement groups, and online funeral practices. This cutting-edge work is essential reading for students and scholars of religion who are approaching the subjects of death and religion and ritual studies.
