The Empire of the Dead Walker O'Brien, 2003-01-27 A United States Ambassador and a former KGB Colonel are found murdered in a section of the Paris catacombs known as the Empire de Morte The Empire of the Dead In the hours and days that follow an international crisis of monumental proportions takes shape in the corridors of power beyond the public view The Russian Mafia in possession of a Soviet secret weapon known as Dark Glass will soon threaten the West in a bizarre plot to breathe life back into the old Soviet Union CIA counter terrorism officer Ben Fitzgerald finds himself in a race against time and an opponent who uses the mystic powers of a psychic savant capable of defeating the most sophisticated technology we have to offer From the deserts of Arizona to MI 6 in London from the Kremlin in Moscow to the Grand Bazaar in Istanbul the danger grows and the death toll mounts as Fitzgerald searches for Dark Glass The clock is ticking and he must find a way to stop the madness before the Russian Mafia discovers an even greater secret that could destroy the entire world

The Christian's Prayer Book David C Jantjies, 2019-01-11 In the beginning man had to be in a very distinct relationship with God in order to have passage to his heart However this would dramatically change when Jesus came to earth Early in his ministry Jesus realized man's inability to pray And thus Jesus taught his followers to pray the Lord's Prayer as recorded in Matthew 6:9-13 It is evident that Jesus was teaching his followers that his Father does not expect lengthy supplications We simply had to enter in prayer giving God glory soliciting the things we need begging for forgiveness petitioning a way around evil and finally pouring out our adulations on God in all his majesty David Christian Jantjies in this epic work digs a little deeper and uncovers the untapped treasures of the much neglected individualized focused prayer The time has now come to approach the throne of God with focused prayers less detailed accentuated prayer worship of the Living God themed petitions and crisp thanksgiving for what God has done and is still doing It further preaches for a more frequent interaction with God The Christian's Prayer Book Focused Prayers 101 is a glorious work Readers will be able to identify with most of these prayers The spectrum is wide The glorification of God is immense The petitions are daily contentions The praise giving to God is huge Each prayer is supported by potent quotations However do not miss the teachings on what prayer is where to pray when to pray and how to pray

Helminiak,2015-07-21 A constructive critique of neuropsychological research on human consciousness and religious experience that applies the thought of Bernard Lonergan Brain Consciousness and God is a constructive critique of neuroscientific research on human consciousness and religious experience An adequate epistemology a theory of knowledge is needed to address this topic but today there exists no consensus on what human knowing means especially regarding nonmaterial realities Daniel A Helminiak turns to twentieth century theologian and philosopher Bernard Lonergan s breakthrough analysis of human consciousness and its implications for epistemology and philosophy of science Lucidly summarizing Lonergan s key ideas Helminiak applies them to questions about science psychology and religion Along with Lonergan eminent theorists in consciousness studies and neuroscience get deserved detailed attention Helminiak demonstrates the reality of the immaterial mind and addressing the Cartesian mind body problem explains how body and mind could make up one being a person Human consciousness is presented not only as awareness of objects but also as self presence the self conscious experience of human subjectivity a spiritual reality Lonergan s analyses allow us to say exactly what spiritual means and it need have nothing to do with God This book makes a seminal contribution to the psychology of religion and is on the cutting edge of the growing interest in the spiritual dimensions of human beings Daniel Helminiak writes knowledgeably about neurobiology psychotherapy philosophy and even psychedelic experience His chapter on the God concept is a tour de force and worth the price of the entire book Once I started this book I could barely put it down Stanley Krippner Saybrook University This is an amazing book It is both lucid and brilliant Deeply informed by Bernard Lonergan s systematic treatment of human knowing as a composite of experience understanding and judgment Daniel Helminiak masterfully places study of spirituality within the self transcending dimension of the human mind and in so doing differentiates and interrelates neuroscience psychology spirituality and theology Ralph W Hood University of Tennessee at Chattanooga In this book magnificently and comprehensively Helminiak struggles toward an integrated perspective on the unfolding of the universe Focused on humanity his topic is actually the origins and dynamics of human yearning As best he can he meets contemporary theorists on their own ground and repeatedly nudges their thinking toward a more coherent position The result cuts both ways It challenges students of Lonergan who underappreciate natural and social processes and it challenges natural and social scientists who seek a science of mind while subtly sidestepping their inquiring selves Yet Helminiak presents only a seedling Its full bloom would be Lonergan s new global omnidisciplinary science envisaged in Method It does indeed qualify as Patricia Churchland s sought real humdinger of a solution Philip McShane author of Randomness Statistics and Emergence Intense yet lucidly clear this work by Daniel Helminiak provides a sequel to Michael H McCarthy s The Crisis of Philosophy Helminiak turns a laser on the crisis and not only exposes significant counterpositions but also offers a solution using the intellectual epistemology of Bernard Lonergan Worth a read by anyone seeking real explanation rather than mere description this work invites readers to be weaned from picture thinking to claim the reality of their intelligence whatever their field Carla Mae Streeter Aquinas Institute of Theology
