Tong, Shouren Wang, Douglas Kerr, 2005-03-01 Amid the globalizing forces whether economic political or cultural there remain conspicuous differences and divergences that divide and antagonize scholarly communities How should we understand and respond to those discursive gaps among different traditions and systems of knowledge production Critical Zone is a book series that is envisaged as a forum where communities of critical scholarship can come together to share ideas and participate in the debates that preoccupy the humanities today The series aims to improve understanding across cultures traditions discourses and disciplines and to produce international critical knowledge Critical Zone is an expression and an embodiment of timely collaboration among scholars in Hong Kong mainland China the United States and Europe and is conceived as an intellectual bridge between China and the rest of the world Each volume in the series has two sections The first section contains original articles on a set of related topics by scholars from around the world the second section includes review essays highlighting one or two issues in regional critical scholarship and translations that reflect intellectual trends and concerns in the region in particular in China The Art of Resistance

Allyson Fiddler,2018-10-19 Well before the far right resurgence that has most recently transformed European politics Austria's 1999 parliamentary elections surprised the world with the unexpected success of the Freedom Party of Austria and its charismatic leader Jörg Haider The party's perceived xenophobia isolationism and unabashed nationalism in turn inspired a massive protest movement that expressed opposition not only through street protests but also in novels plays films and music Through careful readings of this varied cultural output The Art of Resistance traces the aesthetic styles and strategies deployed during this time providing critical context for understanding modern Austrian history as well as the European protest movements of today Subversive Performance in the Age of Human Capital Pil Kollektiv,Galia Kollektiv,2023-08-04

Contemporary art relies on an expansionist modernist ideal and still progresses through a critique of earlier forms of democratisation But beneath this democratic drive lurks a creeping crisis Under neoliberalism criticality has become a zone of value production A self deprecating irony exposing and re enacting this position of impotence is one of the few gestures left in the arsenal of critical art Against this irony this book pits overidentification This term has been taken to mean a kind of parodic mimicry of institutional power Using a broad tapestry of sources from political philosophers to art theorists from post Marxist critiques of labour to ethnographic studies it proposes an interpretation of overidentification that does not collapse into ironic posturing The authors differentiate this from bad faith flirting with taboo aesthetics by focusing on practices grounded in a genuine identification with power that ushers the kind of excess implied by overidentification It is these forms of overidentification that destabilise the metastasis of liberal democracy Staging forms of critique not so readily absorbed into the structure of the present these subversive performances herald a future beyond the democratic paradox Situation

Russell Storer,2005 Situation is inspired by a number of concerns surrounding contemporary artistic production presentation and reception Live Coding Alan F. Blackwell,Emma Cocker,Geoff Cox,Alex McLean,Thor Magnusson,2022-11-22 The first comprehensive introduction to the origins aspirations and evolution of live coding Performative improvised on the fly live coding is about how people interact with the world and each other via code In the last few decades live coding has emerged as a dynamic creative practice gaining attention across cultural and technical fields from music and the visual arts through to computer science Live Coding A User's Manual is the first comprehensive introduction to the practice and a broader cultural commentary on the potential for live coding to open up deeper questions about contemporary cultural production and computational culture This multi authored book by artists and musicians software designers and researchers provides a practice focused account of the origins aspirations and evolution of live coding including expositions from a wide range of live coding practitioners In a more conceptual register the authors consider liveness temporality and knowledge in relation to live coding alongside speculating on the practice's future forms Thomas Hirschhorn Christina Braun,2018-03-06

Thomas Hirschhorn a leading installation artist whose work is owned and exhibited by modern art museums throughout Europe and the United States is known for compelling often site specific and interactive environments tackling issues of critical theory global politics and consumerism His work initially engages the viewer through sheer superabundance Combining found images and texts bound up in handcrafted constructions of cardboard foil and packing tape the artworks reflect the intellectual scavenging and sensory overload that characterize our own attempts to grapple with the excess of information in daily life Christina Braun the first to compile and systematically analyze the extensive source material on this artist's theoretical principles sheds light on the complicated yet constitutive relations between Hirschhorn's work and theory Her study now translated into English makes a major contribution to the study of contemporary art Visible Deeds of MUSIC Simon Shaw-Miller,Simon Miller,2002-01-01 This text explores the relationship between music and the visual arts in the late 19th and 20th centuries focusing on the modernist period It argues that the boundaries between art and music were permeable at this time Assembly and its Other in German Romantic Literature and Thought Robert E.

Mottram,Christopher R. Clason,2022-10-15 This collection of essays turns on a shift in Romantic studies from viewing wholeness as an absolute value to critiquing it as a limiting construction Wholeness and its concomitant sense of harmony rather than a natural given is a construct that was assembled and disassembled theorized and criticized by diverse authors and artists in a wide variety of disciplines and socio historical contexts and instrumentalized for diverse purposes The plurality of these constructions that Goethe's Urpflanze for example is not synonymous with Friedrich Schlegel's universal progressive poetry is but one manifestation of how assembly strives but fails to be absolute The other of assembly referenced in the title suggests two divergent but inseparable tendencies firstly how a construction can take on the appearance of a natural given and secondly how assemblages of wholeness harbor within themselves their own principle of disarticulation These two tendencies underlie the inexhaustible character of Romantic gatherings As a construction passes itself off as nature the natural fails to account for itself as a whole The scope of this volume encompasses the establishment mapping and interrogation of assembly and its other in German Romanticism through interdisciplinary studies on literature aesthetics philosophy drama music synaesthesia mathematics science and exploration List of contributors Beate Allert Frederick Burwick Alexis B Smith Margaret Strair Christina Weiler Joshua Wilner Performing the Body/Performing the Text

Amelia Jones, Andrew Stephenson Nfa, Andrew Stephenson, 2005-08-12 This book explores the new performativity in art theory and practice examining ways of rethinking interpretive processes in visual culture Since the 1960s visual art practices from body art to minimalism have taken contemporary art outside the museum and gallery by embracing theatricality and performance and exploding the boundaries set by traditional art criticism The contributors argue that interpretation needs to be recognised as much more dynamic and contingent Offering its own performance script and embracing both canonical fine artists such as Manet De Kooning and Jasper Johns and performance artists such as Vito Acconci and Gunter Brus this book offers radical re readings of art works and points confidently towards new models for understanding art Frieze ,2002

Problems of Communism , An Innocent Abroad J. Hillis Miller, 2015-11-30 Since 1988 J Hillis Miller has traveled to China to lecture on literary theory especially the role of globalization in literary theory Over time he has assisted in the development of distinctively Chinese forms of literary theory Comparative Literature and World Literature The fifteen lectures gathered in An Innocent Abroad span both time and geographic location reflecting his work at universities across China for more than twenty five years More important they reflect the evolution of Miller s thinking and of the lectures contexts in China as these have markedly changed over the years especially on either side of Tiananmen Square and in light of China s economic growth and technological change A foreword by the leading theorist Fredric Jameson provides additional context Primary Documents Laura J. Hoptman, Tomáš Pospiszyl, 2002 This text presents documents drawn from the artistic archives of Eastern and Central Europe during the second half of the 20th century

The Nazarbayev Generation Marlene Laruelle, 2019-08-30 This social and cultural analysis provides a new understanding of Kazakhstan s younger generations that emerged during the rule of Nursultan Nazarbayev who has been presiding over Kazakhstan for the thirty years since the collapse of the Soviet Union Half of Kazakhstan s population was born after he took power and have no direct memory of the Soviet regime Since the early 2000s they have lived in a world of political stability and relative material affluence and have developed a strong consumerist culture Even with growing government restrictions on media religion and formal public expression they have been raised in a comparatively free country This book offers the first collective study of the Nazarbayev Generation illuminating the diversity of the country s younger generations and the transformations of social and cultural norms that have taken place over the course of three decades The contributors to this collection move away from state centric top down perspectives in favor of grassroots realities and bottom up dynamics in order to better integrate sociological data The Concept of the New Livia Andrea Piazza, 2017-05-15 In this book the author takes the concept of the New as a starting point to open the way to a broader reflection on art production within neoliberal capitalism Piazza explores the notions of innovation and New respectively in the Social Sciences and in the Humanities tracing the differences from the conceptual and temporal perspective in relation to the most recent debates on creativity and postmodernism The book investigates the field of theatre and dance focusing on the essential aspects that link the New with the contemporary condition and its discourse Combining theory and practice this book calls for an art production able to slip out of the framework of innovation and builds the ground to rethink the New and its political value in the arts Collected
