I Hate North Carolina:

I Hate North Carolina Paul Finebaum, 1995 You never knew there were so many reasons to hate Michigan State This title enables you to laugh out loud as Paul Finebaum goes down the list North Carolina Reports North Carolina. Supreme Court, 1919 Cases argued and determined in the Supreme Court of North Carolina Proceedings of the Annual Convention of the North Carolina Good Roads Association, Held at Charlotte, N.C., August 1 and 2, 1912, 1912 North Carolina English, 1861-1865 Michael E. Ellis, 2024-01-12 In North Carolina English 1861 1865 Michael E Ellis offers an Oxford English Dictionary like take on regional language based on more than two thousand letters and diaries composed by North Carolinians during the Civil War These documents are part of a larger project the Corpus of American Civil War Letters CACWL aimed at locating photographing and transcribing letters written during the period from all parts of the country With little formal education the correspondents were men and women who wrote by ear often reproducing their spoken language through unconventional spellings and grammatical forms as well as regional or archaic words and usages The core of the book is an alphabetically arranged glossary of words and expressions characteristic of mid nineteenth century North Carolina each containing excerpts from the letters themselves to illustrate meaning and usage While the majority of the writers were Confederate soldiers and their family members the collection also includes letters from slaves former slaves and African Americans from North Carolina serving in the Union Army The soldiers letters rarely contain details about battles except to list the names of relatives or neighbors among the killed or wounded After a battle a soldier might simply write the Like of ded men an horses I never saw before or we hav lost a heap of men and kild a heap of yankeys As Joel Howard of Lincoln County wrote home in June 1863 I have bin in the ware and Saw the ware and heard tell of the ware till I have got tired of it if I Could get clear of this ware I neve r want to Read of A nother Food is perhaps the most common topic followed by illness Numerous terms relate to farming clothing religion and the effects of the war itself as well as entries for expressions that have long since disappeared from American English in the gants on the goose and up the spout In addition to the glossary Ellis offers an extensive overview of North Carolina English of the period delves into the social background of the letter writers and provides invaluable guidance to the ways in which Civil War letters should be read A unique window into a largely neglected corner of our extraordinarily rich and regionally distinct language this volume will prove an indispensable reference for scholars and students seeking to reconstruct the world of the common Civil War soldier Fear in North Carolina Cornelia Catherine Smith Henry, 2008 Cornelia Henrys three journals written between 1860 and 1868 offer an excellent source for daily information on western North Carolina during the Civil War period The North Carolina Historical Review, 1926 Proceedings of the ... Perry,2012-08-08 During the Civil War Confederate military courts sentenced to death more soldiers from North Carolina than from any other state This study offers the first exploration of the service records of 450 of these wayward Confederates most often deserters Arranged by army corps division and brigade it chronicles their military trials and frequent executions and offers explanations of how the lucky and the clever were able to avoid their fate Focus on court activity by company allows for comparisons that emphasize the wide disparity in discipline within a regiment and brigade By stressing the effectiveness of these deadly decisions as deterrents to others this work maintains that an earlier and wider reliance on execution would have strengthened the Confederacy sufficiently to force a negotiated end to the war thus saving many Confederate and Federal lives Five-day Selling Week for Flue-cured Tobacco United States. Congress. House. Committee on Agriculture. Subcommittee on Tobacco,1979 Proceedings of the Good Roads Institute, Held at the University of North Carolina Good Roads Institute, Chapel Hill, N.C.,1912
