Talk about Careers in Science, 2010-01-01 Non scholae sed vitae discimus we learn for life rather than for school In this Roman saying the ultimate reason for school is recognized as being a preparation for life High school science too is a preparation for life the possible careers students identify and for defining possible future Selves In this book the contributors take one dataset as their object of scholarship informed by discursive psychology Bakhtin and poststructural positions to investigate the particulars of the language used in interviews about possible careers conducted both before and after an internship in a university science laboratory Across this collection some contributors focus on data driven analyses in which the authors present more macro perspectives on the use of language in science career talk whereas others see the data using particular lenses that provide intelligible and fruitful perspectives on what and how students and interviewer talk careers in science Other contributors propose to transform the database into different representations that allows researchers to single out and demonstrate particular dimensions of discourse Thus these contributions roughly fall into three categories that are treated under the sections entitled Discourse Analyses of Career Talk Discursive Lenses and Foci and Innovations in Theory Method and Representation of Career Talk Research Everybody's Autobiography Gertrude Stein, 2013-03-13 Alice B Toklas wrote hers and now everybody will write theirs In 1933 Gertrude Stein's The Autobiography of Alice B Toklas skyrocketed to the top of the bestseller lists and the author found herself a celebrity Everybody's Autobiography is the very Steinian account of her soul satisfying next five years in France England and America where she made a triumphant tour of the country Here are Stein's devastating analyses of some of the major figures of the day whom she met among them Dashiell Hammett Charlie Chaplin Pablo Picasso Marianne Moore Mrs Roosevelt and Sherwood Anderson and also of her own life and work Dearlove Frances Campbell, 1906 Three Two-Act Comedies George J. Flynn, 2005 Three new modern comedies have been published in the book Three Plays The Little Greenie Hellcat Kate Come in Hypno All three comedies have been successfully produced for short runs at a theater on Long Island and are suitable for all audiences Subject matter treated by the three plays varies widely from the problems of a butler who's been cut out of a will and seeks satisfaction to the romantic perils of life in New York City to the complications that arise when computers start to talk and listen to people The butler of The Little Greenie tries to solve his de willed problem by enticing a young law student into marrying the daughter of the rich family he works for An agreement is signed whereby the butler is to get 10% of whatever the student latches onto The girl's mother becomes suspicious and brings in the family lawyer and together they engage a private detective Meanwhile the maid of the house is trying to get the butler to marry her while the boyfriend of the girl thinks he can buy off this latest fortune hunter with a few hundred dollars This play has been made into a video movie and is available in VHS or DVD from www

customflix.com or order from the author at www.thelittlegreenie.com In Hellcat Kate an unemployed engineer has to cope with a live in girlfriend who is a travel agent and goes on a short trip to Brazil with a customer who appears to be excessively amorous The girl's mother Hellcat Kate does not get along well with the engineer and decides that her daughter should marry the man she goes to Brazil with even if he is married at the moment Kate works to get the engineer and an old girlfriend of his together again when she learns that she is the wife of the man she wants her daughter to marry When this attempt fails Kate even tries to seduce the engineer Come In Hypno explores the world of computer programs that understand in a crude way what people say and can talk back to them Students at a modern college are writing so many talk and listen programs that the professor in charge Ms Ardis McPherson is driven to distraction and would love to get rid of some of the hackers When a student has a fainting spell he is misdiagnosed by a pre med student as being dead and some students are willing to believe that Professor McPherson actually murdered him One of the programs Hypno has been designed to hypnotize people especially girls Another program Feeder runs to college's food and nutrition program buying food and watching out for various student allergies Things can go wrong in a situation of this kind and they do Report
