I Sweep The Sun Off Rooftops:

I Sweep the Sun Off Rooftops Hanan al-Shaykh, 2013-04-03 Since the U S publication of Women of Sand and Myrrh which has now sold more than 35 000 copies and was selected as one of the Fifty Best Books of 1992 by Publishers Weekly Hanan al Shaykh has attracted an ever larger following for her dazzling tales of contemporary Arab women In these seventeen short stories eleven of which are appearing in English for the first time al Shaykh expands her horizons beyond the boundaries of Lebanon taking us throughout the Middle East to Africa and finally to London Stylistically diverse her stories are often about the shifting and ambiguous power relationships between different cultures as well as between men and women Often compared to both Margaret Atwood and Margaret Drabble Hanan al Shaykh is a gifted and courageous writer Middle Eastern International I Sweep the Sun Off Rooftops Hanān Shaykh, 1994 Subtle intensely pleasurable collection of stories luring the reader forward to find out what next while never failing to also convey what is desired erotic unwritten

I Sweep the Sun Off Rooftops Hanan Al-Shaykh, 2002 At the intersection of tradition and modernity East and West childhood and adulthood Hanan al Shaykh s characters find their way through the shifting and ambiguous power relationships that shape the landscape of the modern Arab world A woman feigns insanity to escape from an empty marriage only to have her plans backfire a young Danish missionary finds herself slowly and inexorably drawn into the world of the Yemeni village where she has been stationed and a woman s lighthearted attempt to contact the world of the dead turns serious when she encounters the spirit of her late husband At once clever and evocative I Sweep the Sun Off Rooftops is a collection of great insight wit and poignancy placing Hanan al Shaykh among the foremost cosmopolitan writers of our time

Short Story Index , 1999 I Sweep the Sun Off Rooftops Hanan Al-Shaykh, 1998-08-01 In the seventeen short stories that comprise I Sweep the Sun Off Rooftops al Shaykh limns in evocative prose the shifting and ambiguous power relationships that shape the landscape of the modern Arab world Al Shaykh s characters find themselves at the intersection of tradition and encroaching modernity of East and West of the innocence of childhood and the realities of adult life of the everyday and the fantastical In these stories a woman feigns insanity to escape from an empty marriage only to have her plans backfire a young Danish missionary finds herself slowly and inexorably drawn into the world of the Yemeni village where she has been sent to work a woman s lighthearted attempt to contact the world of the dead turns serious when she encounters the spirit of her late husband Chewing Over the West , 2009-01-01 The orientation of academic institutions has in recent years been moving away from highly specialized area studies in the classical sense towards broader regional and comparative studies Cultural studies points to the limitation of Western approaches to non Western cultures a development not yet reflected in actual research and data collections Bringing together scholars from all over the world with specialized knowledge in both Western and non Western languages literatures and cultures this collection of essays provides new insights into the agency of non Western literatures in relation to the West a term used with critical caution and like

Women of Sand and Myrrh Hanan al-Shaykh, 2013-04-10 A powerful and moving novel by the Arab world s leading woman novelist about four women coping with the insular oppressive society of an unnamed desert state

Lebanon William W. Harris, 2012 The book explores the affairs of Mount Lebanon and its surrounds through fourteen centuries beginning with the emergence of its Christian Muslim and Islamic derived communities between the sixth and eleventh centuries Against this backdrop it interprets the modern republic of Lebanon from Ottoman antecedents to present day crises

Arab Representations of the Occident Rasheed El-Enany, 2006-04-18 This is one of the first books in English to explore Arab responses to Western culture and values in modern Arab literature Through in depth research El Enany examines the attitudes as expressed mainly through works of fiction written by Arab authors during the twentieth and to a lesser extent nineteenth century It constitutes an original addition to the age old East West debate and is particularly relevant to the current discussion on Islam and the West Alongside raising highly topical questions about stereotypical ideas concerning Arabs and Muslims in general the book explores representations of the West by the foremost Arab intellectuals over a two century period up to the present day and will appeal to those with an interest in Islam the Middle East nationalism and the so called Clash of Civilizations

The Locust and the Bird Hanan Al-Shaykh, 2010-04-05 A richly woven and breathtaking memoir from the perspective of the author s own mother a Radio 4 Book of the Week It is an extraordinarily brave act for a writer to undertake to inhabit fully and sympathetically the life her mother lived before she was born particularly when her mother was no jewel of wifely virtue J M Coetzee This is a book that wears its heart firmly on its sleeve offering an insight into an unfamiliar culture and a cinematic love story The Times Kamila is nine years old when she is taken from the poverty of her childhood village in southern Lebanon to Beirut She has never learned to read or write though she longs to go to school Stories poetry and film are her passion and a beautiful boy called Muhammad They fall in love before Kamila is forced into an arranged marriage despite her tears and screams She is only fourteen years old On her wedding night her first daughter is conceived four years later Hanan is born Kamila and Muhammad continue to see each other in secret risking their lives It is eight years before Kamila can bring herself to divorce her husband as to do so means leaving her daughters behind Beautifully evoking the dusty streets of Beirut and life in Lebanon this is a heartbreaking memoir of an extraordinary woman

Contemporary World Fiction Juris Dilevko, Keren Dali, Glenda Garbutt, 2011-03-17 This much needed guide to translated literature offers readers the opportunity to hear from learn about and perhaps better understand our shrinking world from the perspective of insiders from many cultures and traditions In a globalized world knowledge about non North American societies and cultures is a must Contemporary World Fiction A Guide to Literature in Translation provides an overview of the tremendous range and scope of translated world fiction available in English In so doing it will help readers get a sense of the vast world beyond North America that is conveyed by fiction titles from dozens of countries and language traditions Within the guide approximately 1 000 contemporary non English language fiction titles are fully annotated and thousands of others are listed Organization is primarily by language as language often reflects cultural cohesion better than national borders or geographies but also by country and culture In addition to contemporary titles each chapter features a brief overview of earlier translated fiction from the group The guide also provides in depth bibliographic essays for each chapter that will enable librarians and library users to further explore the literature of numerous languages and cultural traditions

Mothers and Daughters in Arab Women's Literature Dalya Abudi, 2010-11-11 This study explores the mother daughter relationship as the most fundamental and most intimate female relationship It draws on both early and contemporary writings of Arab women to illuminate the traditional and evolving nature of mother daughter relationships in Arab families and how these family dynamics reflect and influence modern Arab life

Opening Hearts by Opening Minds Connie Wineland, 2007-06-01 This book is for Christian readers of fiction who might experience difficulty trying to make an informed choice beyond what is being published by evangelical presses Marketed to a specific target audience evangelical fiction oftentimes leaves a reader with a strong emotional response but lacks the literary depth or the breadth of subject that could inspire life changing spiritual growth With this premise at the heart of her book Connie Wineland includes her own story of conversion to Christianity by way of reading fiction During her late twenties and early thirties particularly while in graduate school Wineland became immersed in literary and rhetorical studies while also practicing an Eastern form of religion as well as Native American spirituality However despite all her training in literary theory her readings in Romantic Victorian modern and postmodern literature which she explains as well as her personal interest in mythology and world religions kept her questioning the existence of God and the possible nature of God Then as a relatively new convert to Christianity she faced several challenges at a small Christian college where she taught literature and writing courses Eventually wanting to reach beyond the academic community Wineland began a local Christian readers group which she ran for four years She includes in this book resources and materials such as sample syllabi and study guide questions useful Web addresses and plenty of how to information for starting and running your own book club Also included is an extensive list of annotated titles of recommended reading to get anyone started
