Our Stories Matter Robert J. Nash, Sydnee Viray, 2013 Our Stories Matter explains and exemplifies the methodology of Scholarly Personal Narrative SPN writing for marginalized underrepresented and previously disappeared students at all levels of higher education Presently no book looks at the whys and hows of scholarly personal narrative writing that focuses on this particular audience of underrepresented students SPN writing has its origins in early slave narratives 1960s feminist liberation stories religio spiritual autobiographies existential postmodern and postcritical theory and memoir autobiographies of victimization and victory Our Stories Matter attempts to fill a huge vacuum in the literature on the art and craft of personal narrative writing for undergraduates and graduates because it appeals to a hugely expanding previously underrepresented audience It also provides faculty with a substantive pedagogical rationale and a writer s guide for teaching this kind of scholarly research not just to underrepresented students but to all students who are ready to tell their stories in their own original creative ways
