Librarianship as a Bridge to an Information and Knowledge Society in Africa Alli Mcharazo,Sjoerd Koopman,2008-11-03 Knowledge Management was the theme of the Standing Conference of Eastern Central and Southern African Library and Information Associations SCECSAL XVII in 2006 This selection of conference papers provides a cross disciplinary approach to knowledge information and development and how the three together can mould a new and more informed society The challenge is to make our libraries more people centered and Afro centric not simply serving the interests of the elite and paying little attention to the plight of the less well off This needs to change with libraries becoming more inclusive and serving the needs of all These papers raise provocative questions and provide an insight into the struggle of information services in this part of Africa to be part of an emerging information and knowledge society

Index-catalogue of the Library of the Surgeon-General's Office, United States Army National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1948 Routledge Library Editions: Criminology Various Authors,2021-02-25 Reissuing seven works originally published between 1940 and 1997 this collection spans the time in which Criminology has been a recognised academic discipline It offers a set of excellent works on diverse aspects of the field from nineteenth century criminality to burglary in the 1980s The set includes a Dictionary and several works looking at the social and psychological side of crime

Routledge Library Editions: Historiography Various,2021-06-23 The greatest problem in historical scholarship theoretically and practically is the relation between historians and their subject matter The past is gone and historians can only study its remnants On what basis do scholars select certain facts from the mass of data left from the past How do they explain the interrelationship of the facts they select What criteria do they use to evaluate their subject The 35 volumes in this set originally published between 1926 and 1990 discuss and answer these essential questions faced by historians The development of historical understanding during the 18th and 19th centuries was one of the most striking features of Western culture Both historiography and historical thinking advanced as never before The historial movment of the 19th century was perhaps second only to the scientific revolution of the seventeenth century in transforming Western thought One consequence was extensive organisation and professionalization of research which the volumes in this set reflect
