Lidwien Van De Ven:

Lidwien van de Ven, still untitled Lidwien van de Ven, Ruud Welten, Dirk Lauwaert, Carmen Schliebe, 1997 Catalogus van een tentoonstelling van de Nederlandse kunstenares Lidwien Van de Ven , Kimmerle's Intercultural Philosophy and Beyond Renate Schepen, 2022-08-11 This book offers a concise overview of the development of intercultural philosophy since the early 1990s focusing on one of its key pioneers Heinz Kimmerle 1930 2016 Building on influences from Gadamer Heidegger Derrida and Ramose Kimmerle's approach to intercultural philosophy is radical and fosters epistemic justice Kimmerle critically reflected on his own western philosophical tradition highlighting the problems of a discourse based on a dominant concept of rationality and of excluding different approaches and participants Instead Kimmerle developed an alternative way of thinking emphasizing the importance Of recognizing philosophies of different cultures He focused particularly on African philosophies in academic discourse In the book the many layers of Kimmerle's intercultural philosophy are revealed exploring how dialectics hermeneutics deconstruction and decolonization can contribute to epistemic justice The author goes beyond Kimmerle and demonstrates how Kimmerle's approach can be further enhanced by using an intersectional approach and by engaging in dialogue with female philosophers and artists This new study which also introduces unpublished and untranslated texts from Kimmerle's work in German and Dutch will be of considerable interest to researchers of continental philosophy intercultural and African philosophy political philosophy decolonial and feminist studies Now Vincent Lavoie, 2003-01-01 While the crisis that took place in photojournalism during the 1960's brought about a significant shift in the practices discourses and institutional structures of press photography it also affected the practices of artists specifically with regard to work devoted to revitalizing the depiction of events The art world attempted to revitalize the historical genre by undertaking its critical rereading in the spirit of restoring a tradition diminished by the mass media The problem may be expressed in these terms How can history be depicted bearing in mind that the media mainly photojournalism and the electronic press have claimed a monopoly of the genre unto themselves At issue is the sizeable problem of mass media omnipotence as an obligatory referential universe for historiographical artistic practices Today it seems impossible to depict the event in any way other than by accentuating or eschewing the formal attributes rhetorical artifices and ideological precepts of the mass media These approaches to addressing historical moments have been examined in this article both because they epitomize contemporary historical writing and for the most part they constitute critical responses to stereotyped depictions of events Above all they represent a paradigm shift the mass media's prerogatives for depicting historical moments has shifted towards the field of art Contemporary depictions of catastrophe crimes sensationalist news items terrorist attacks humanitarian disasters genocides common themes in many of the artistic projects represented in the 8th edition of the Mois de la Photo a Montreal have been especially striking in this respect For of all contemporary events catastrophes are the most likely to be spontaneously propelled to the top of the news roster and the

Lidwien Van de Ven Lidwien van de Ven,2003 The title of this book by Dutch artist Lidwien van de Ven is a quote from French filmmaker Jean Luc Godard A few years after World War II Godard spoke these words to express his thoughts about the incapacity of art and film to discuss the Holocaust In her own introverted and intense black and white films and photographs van de Ven concerns herself with ethical matters and questions about what an image can and cannot tell us about how the visible relates to the invisible and about the processes of registration perception concealing and revealing exactly do we mean Are we talking about a reading strategy About an interpretive model as would be derived from the linguistic turn of the 1970s or rather about a stratigraphic structure that could be read across multiple cultural practices Do we wish to read one system by means of another system in a way that one nurtures the other so that it can open us up to other forms of being Or is it rather about a generative movement in which a new horizon emerges in the process leaving behind the practice that was its point of departure The recurrence of turn in place of style ism or tendency would ultimately respond to a clear urgency of the contemporary global world a movement characterised by aesthetic pluralism by the simultaneousness of various modi operandi and by a great multiplicity of languages that constantly change their state while having many features in common And turn would also allow within the space of the contemporary of here and now a great diversity of stories from all around the world that should be confronted simultaneously in an intellectual outlook that is continuous and disjunctive essential to understanding the present as a whole
