Standing between Life and Extinction David L. Propst, Jack E. Williams, Kevin R. Bestgen, Christopher W. Hoagstrom, 2021-02-15 North American deserts lands of little water have long been home to a surprising diversity of aquatic life from fish to insects and mollusks With European settlement however water extraction resource exploitation and invasive species set many of these native aquatic species on downward spirals In this book conservationists dedicated to these creatures document the history of their work the techniques and philosophies that inform it and the challenges and opportunities of the future A precursor to this book Battle Against Extinction laid out the scope of the problem and related conservation activities through the late 1980s Since then many nascent conservation programs have matured and researchers have developed new technologies improved and refined methods and greatly expanded our knowledge of the myriad influences on the ecology and dynamics of these species Standing between Life and Extinction brings the story up to date While the future for some species is more secure than thirty years ago others are less fortunate Calling attention not only to iconic species like the razorback sucker Gila trout and Devils Hole pupfish but also to other fishes and obscure and fascinating invertebrates inhabiting intermittent aquatic habitats this book explores the scientific social and political challenges of preserving these aquatic species and their habitats amid an increasingly charged political discourse and in desert regions characterized by a growing human population and rapidly changing climate

Religious Life between Jerusalem, the Desert, and the World Kaspar Elm, James D. Mixson, 2015-11-16 Few medievalists of the last generation have contributed more to our understanding of late medieval religious life than Kaspar Elm Over the last half century his reflections now a monumental corpus of books essays and other publications have explored how the life of the cloister canonry and convent intersected with the world of the laity church and society beyond and how that story reflected the broader sweep of European history Until now relatively few Anglophone scholars and students have had direct access to Elm s work The present translation of several of his most important essays offers itself as a modest remedy to that circumstance Bridging the Gap between Life and Physics Ron Cottam, Willy Ranson, 2018-03-19 This is the only book which deals with the correlatory comparison between hierarchical living systems and inorganic physical ones The culmination of the book is the proposition of research to discover and understand the natural underlying level of organization which produces the descriptive commonality of life and physics Traditional science eliminates life from its purview by its rejection of interrelationships as a primary content of systems The conventional procedure of science is that of reductionism whereby complex systems are dismantled to characterize lower level components but virtually no attention is given to how to rebuild those systems the underlying assumption is that analysis and synthesis are symmetrical This book fulfills two main coupled functions Firstly it details hierarchy as the major formulation of natural complex systems and investigates the fundamental character of natural hierarchy as a widely transferable container of structure and or function and this in the case of the new development of a representational or model hierarchy Secondly it couples this hierarchical description to that of the electronic properties of semiconductors as a well modeled canonical example of physical properties The central thesis is that these two descriptions are comparable if care is taken to treat logical and epistemological aspects with prudence a large part of the book is composed of just this aspect of care for grounding consistency As such great attention is given to correct assessment of argumentative features which are otherwise presumed known but which are usually left uncertain Development of the ideas is always based on a relationship between entity or phenomenon and their associated ecosystems and this applies equally well to the consequent derivations of consciousness and information This Part Is Silent: A Life Between Cultures SJ Kim, 2024-04-16 Longlisted for the 2025 Andrew Carnegie Medal for Excellence in Nonfiction A searing essay collection that explores displacement and loss creativity and change institutional power and progress Born in Korea raised in the American South and trying her best to survive British academia SJ Kim probes her experiences as a writer a scholar and a daughter to confront the silences she finds in the world With curiosity and sensitivity she writes letters to the institutions that simultaneously support and fail her intimate accounts of immigration and interrogations of rising anti Black and anti Asian racism She considers the silences between generations especially within the Asian diaspora in the West as she finds her way back to her own family during the pandemic lockdown Embracing the possibilities and impossibilities of language Kim rejoices in the similes of Korean her mother tongue and draws inspiration from K dramas and writers across cultures who sustain her As borders close in and nations enter lockdown the journey that Kim traces is fraught and at once illuminates that the act of remaining present has its own power allowing boundless hope Woman under Monasticism: Chapters on

Saint-Lore and Convent Life between A.D. 500 and A.D. 1500 Lina Eckenstein, 2020-09-28 In order to gain an insight into the causes of the rapid development of monasticism among the German races it is necessary to enquire into the social arrangements of the period which witnessed the introduction of Christianity and into those survivals of the previous period of social development which German Christianity absorbed Among peoples of German race monastic life generally and especially monastic life which gave scope for independent activity among women had a development of its own Women of the newly converted yet still barbarian race readily gathered together and dwelt in religious settlements founded on their own initiative and ruled independently of men A reason for this must be sought in the drift of contemporary life which we shall thus have to discuss at some length During the period of declining heathendom for how long measuring time by centuries it is not yet possible to say the drift of society had been towards curtailing woman's liberty of movement and interfering with her freedom of action When the Germans crossed the threshold of history the characteristics of the father age were already in the ascendant the social era when the growing desire for certainty of fatherhood caused individual women and their offspring to be brought into the possession of individual men had already begun The influence of women was more and more restricted owing to their domestic subjection But traditions of a time when it had been otherwise still lingered Students of primitive history are recognising for peoples of German race among others the existence of an early period of development when women played a greater part in both social and tribal life Folk lore philology and surviving customs yield overwhelming evidence in support of the few historic data which point to the period conveniently called the mother age when women held positions of authority inside the tribal group and directly exercised influence on the doings of the tribe This period the mother age is generally looked upon as an advance from an earlier stage of savagery and considered to be contemporaneous with the beginnings of settled tribal life It brought with it the practice of tillth and agriculture and led to the domestication of some of the smaller animals and the invention of weaving and spinning achievements with which it is recognised that women must be credited In matters of polity and sex it established the paramount importance of the woman it is she who regulates the home who notes the changes of the seasons who stores the results of experience and treasures up the intellectual wealth of the community in sayings which have come down to us in the form of quaint maxims and old world saws As for family arrangements it was inside the tribal group and at the tribal festival that sex unions were contracted and this festival traditions of which survive in many parts of Europe to this day and which was in its earliest forms a period of unrestrained license for the women as well as the men was presided over by the tribal mothers an arrangement which in various particulars affords an explanation of many ideas associated with women in later times Memoirs From the Edge:

Exploring the Line Between Life and Death Jeb Corliss, 2022-04-28 Jeb Corliss is one of the most iconic BASE jumpers and wingsuit pilots of our time and his autobiography is an odyssey into madness Corliss breaks and rebuilds himself time and again learning what only pain and daring can teach The tales he brings back offer insight into the darkness that exists within the mind as well as his own unique way of coping Many grapple with mental illness in one way or another and Corliss gives a glaringly honest view of his struggle while traversing the world's most dangerous sports Life Between Death and Rebirth Rudolf Steiner, 1975-04 He listened extremely attentively apparently not looking at me at all but totally devoted to my words Franz Kafka The only love that you can show me is to call me anytime day or night when you need me Rudolf Steiner to Friedrich Rittelmeyer For Peter Selg if Anthroposophy to be a living reality we must learn to know and love Rudolf Steiner as he appeared to those who knew and loved him namely as a spiritual teacher To help us do so he gathered recollections of those of who knew Steiner personally historical witnesses to the living phenomenon of the figure of the teacher It is his hope that these firsthand accounts will help readers see and experience the amazing ever mysterious person that Rudolf Steiner was a dynamic energetic dual citizen of both the spiritual and the physical worlds He moved constantly between these two realities while his whole life was dedicated in service to the spiritual evolution of humanity Nonetheless he was also deeply sociable and a true friend convivial cheerful humorous and always able to enjoy and tell a good joke He was also austere and painfully serious In other words Rudolf Steiner was a paradox Steiner was imposing but it would be difficult to say why He was slim there was no heaviness in him Indeed what seemed to strike most people first was his lightness He moved rhythmically youthfully artistically with quick light steps his posture erect but fluid his head seeming to float between Heaven and Earth Yet he was fully grounded When he stood it was as if nothing could move him When he spoke his gestures and tone expressed perfectly what he had to say He was completely one with what he said so that he changed as the content changed Those who listened to his lectures found themselves transported to the source of what they were hearing Sometimes ten Steiners would pass before them To hear a lecture was a meditation experience Quite another figure appeared in conversations which filled his every public moment One experienced luminous kindness selfless interest and intense listening attention It was as though one were singled out in the world and having a sense of being allowed complete inner freedom All who came to him for advice felt Steiner's love They felt that he saw the best in them and spoke from that point of view whether it was a matter of life's journey or esoteric training By his example then he sought to exemplify the kind of spiritual community toward which he hoped anthroposophists would strive For anyone who has wondered what Rudolf Steiner was like this book will open many windows Life Between the Lines John

Izbicki, 2012-07-01 The Daily Telegraph correspondent tells his fascinating history not just of newspapers but of his personal life fleeing Nazi Germany as a child The Independent Berlin born John Izbicki lived through the horrors of Nazi persecution and on the day after his eighth birthday he witnessed the Kristallnacht and the smashing of his parents' shop windows On the day Germany invaded Poland and Berlin experienced its first wartime blackout the Izbickis escaped to Holland and from there on to England The author describes what it feels like to have been a refugee unable to speak or understand a single word of English and how he was persuaded by a kind policeman to change his name from Horst to John He also leads the reader along the remarkable journey he traveled from school to university the first of his family to enter higher education and through his adventurous time as a commissioned army officer during two years of national service spent in Egypt and Libya But the best part of his life was yet to come when this young refugee decided to make journalism his profession The boy who not that many years earlier could speak not a word of English became the distinguished education correspondent of the country's leading quality newspaper the Daily Telegraph After eighteen years in that responsible position he was sent to Paris to head the Telegraph's office there When he left the newspaper to join the Committee of Directors of Polytechnics he played a leading part in transforming the country's polytechnics into its new universities From Nazi Germany to Fleet Street the story of a charming survivor The Guardian Life Between the Keys 5 Browns, 2009 With sold out concerts and screaming fans the 5 Browns are redefining what it means to be classical musicians In Life Between the Keys these charming warm and funny siblings reveal their impressions and memories along their journey from obscurity to stardom Between Life and Fate Charu Maggo, 2025-05-22 Between Life and Fate is a deeply emotional story of Ilahi a young woman caught between modern independence and traditional expectations between a love that feels like destiny and a family that demands conformity Ilahi never imagined that coming back home would feel so unfamiliar After seven years abroad she returns to India to find a house filled with memories a city weighed down by expectations and a family ready to choose her future for her She's independent She's built a life of her own But none of that matters here not when her silence is mistaken for obedience and her freedom is a threat to tradition And then she meets Kabir What begins as a late night conversation quickly unravels everything Ilahi thought she knew about love Kabir is steady kind deeply rooted in his world and quietly entirely unlike anyone she's ever known Their connection is undeniable But so is the weight of their worlds Families Caste Culture Commitments As Ilahi fights for the one thing that finally feels real Kabir struggles to find the courage to hold onto her And when timing turns cruel choices must be made not between right and wrong but between love and everything else Because sometimes love isn't about endings Sometimes it's about what you carry even after the goodbye Between Life and Thought Don Seeman, Devaka Premawardhana, 2024-03-26 Existential anthropology is an approach inspired by existential and phenomenological thought to further our understanding of the human condition Its ethnographic methodology emphasizes embodied experience and focuses on what is at stake for people amid the contingencies struggles and uncertainties of everyday life While anthropological research on religion abounds there has been little systematic attention to the ways anthropology and religious studies might benefit from better consideration of one another or from the adoption of a shared existential perspective Between Life and Thought gathers leading anthropologists and religion scholars including some of existential anthropology's most recognized advocates and thoughtful critics The collection opens with a comprehensive introduction to phenomenology and existentialism in anthropology and religious studies and concludes with an analysis of how existential anthropology might address the long standing problem of constructivism and perennialism in religious studies The chapters altogether present existential anthropology as an especially generative paradigm with which to rethink and remake both anthropology and the academic study of religion A timely and significant intervention across multiple areas of research Between Life and Thought is an invaluable source for critically exploring the prospects as well as the limits of an anthropological approach to religion grounded in experiential ethnography and existential thought A Life Between Us Louise Walters,2017-02-28 The day was set in her mind if not in her heart She knew what happened For many years she had re lived it frequently slotting things into place arranging them to her satisfaction But had she got it wrong Tina Thornton s twin sister Meg died in a childhood accident but for almost forty years Tina has secretly blamed herself for her sister s death During a visit to her aging Uncle Edward and his sister Lucia who both harbour dark secrets of their own Tina makes a discovery that forces her to finally question her memories of the day her sister died Who if anyone did kill Meg As Tina finds the courage to face the past she unravels the tangled family mysteries of her estranged parents her beautiful French Aunt Simone the fading compassionate Uncle Edward and above all the cold bitter Aunt Lucia whose spectral presence casts a long shadow over them all Praise for Louise s previous book Mrs Sinclair s Suitcase A first novel of great charm and assurance beautifully told and utterly gripping The Times A heart breaking tale of loss missed chances and enduring love Good Housekeeping a charming debut Daily Mail A Life Between Us is a beautifully evocative story of a family torn apart at the seams which will appeal to readers who enjoy family sagas and modern day mysteries Overcoming Life'S Challenges N. George Utuk PhD,2012-05-15 In todays world innumerable books articles and websites give advice on how to cope with lifes situations But it is how we think about our faith family and goals that remains at the heart of our desire to change If we want ultimate victory peace and joy then the solution is simple we need to turn our minds to the Lord A unique self help guide Overcoming Lifes Challenges shares scriptural principles that if implemented properly give you powerful tools for dealing with difficult times and circumstances Through personal testimonies and biblical examples Dr N George Utuk illustrates fourteen key concepts to developing right thinking during times of severe trials Dr Utuk shares how to change thought patterns by focusing on God and developing a personal relationship with Him Discover how to maximize your faith become your own cheerleader thrive in the midst of despair and trust in God to keep you anchored to Him In addition you can learn how to live in joyful hope But above all you can decide that quitting is never an option Sure to give strength and hope for whatever journey awaits you Overcoming Lifes Challenges reveals the triumph we can find within the arms of the Lord Assessment of Rehabilitative and Quality of Life Issues in Litigation Patricia Murphy,John M. Williams,1998-08-26 Written in response to the Supreme Court s landmark Daubert decision regarding provision of expert witness scientific testimony Assessment of Rehabilitative and Quality of Life Issues in Litigation focuses on quality of life as a means of conceptualizing and measuring pain and suffering in the controversial enjoyment of life debate The authors make a compelling argument for a quality of life paradigm based on a rehabilitation and health economics analysis demonstrating that qualified rehabilitationists are the best experts to provide analyses of the impact of disability or injury on quality of life over the lifespan The extensive literature review enables attorneys and litigation experts to easily access quality of life literature
