Gender Regimes, Citizen Participation and Rural Restructuring Ildiko Asztalos Morell, Bettina B. Age, Gender and Sexuality through the Life Course Susan Pickard,2018-04-19 Age Gender and Sexuality through the Life Course argues that the gendered structure of temporality defined in the dual sense of everyday time as well as age and stage of life is a key factor underpinning the stalling of the gender revolution Taking as its central focus the idealised young woman who serves as the mascot of contemporary success this book demonstrates how the celebration of the Girl is i representative of social mobility educational and professional achievement ii possesses diligence docility and emotional intelligence and iii displays a reassuring sexuality and youthfulness but is constructed from the outset to have a fleetingly short life span Pickard undertakes a theoretical and empirical exploration of the contemporary female experience of education work motherhood sexuality the challenge of having it all Furthermore through additional analysis of the transitional reproductive regime from youth into mid life and beyond this insightful monograph aims to demonstrate how age and time set very clear limits to what is possible and desirable for the female self yet how the latter factors also if used reflexively can provide the key means of resisting and challenging patriarchy This book is aimed at a broad interdisciplinary audience located in gender studies age studies culture studies sociology and psychology accessible for advanced undergraduates and beyond Poverty, Battered Women, and Work in U.S. Public Policy Lisa D. Place and the Politics of Identity Michael Keith, Steve Pile, 2004-11-23 In the last two decades new political subjects have been created through the actions of the new social movements often by asserting the unfixed and overdetermined character of identity Further in attempting to avoid essentialism people have frequently looked to their territorial roots to establish their constituency A cultural politics of resistance as exemplified by Black politics feminism and gay liberation has developed struggles to turn sites of oppression and discrimination into spaces of resistance This book collects together perspectives which challenge received notions of geography which are in danger of becoming anachronisms without a language to articulate the new space of resistance the new politics of identity

Women Past and Present Maria Zina Gonçalves de Abreu, 2014-06-02 In Western societies many traditional feminist claims have already been fulfilled both in law and in official discourse Indeed legislative steps have already been taken towards securing civil and political rights and equal opportunities for women This of course is not the case in many other regions of the world as some of the chapters in this book clearly testify Yet notwithstanding the gains achieved in Western societies residual forms of resistance and prejudice still persist in discourses categories and discriminative practices in this so called post feminist era Furthermore new manifestations of asymmetries in gender relations and new ways of thinking and experiencing subjectivity are currently emerging as a result of growing globalisation economic crises migration patterns female sex and labour trafficking trans nationalism and new technologies not to mention the beauty and body sculpting industries

Political philosophy discipline governmentality and the genealogy of law Embodiment difference sexuality and the law The subject of rights and ethics Whilst the published work selected for this collection amply accommodates this diversity it also draws together strands in Foucault's work that coalesce in seemingly conflicting theories of law Yet the editors are also committed to showing how that very conflict goes to constitute for Foucault an integral and radical theory of law This theory ranges not just beyond the restrained and diminished conceptions of law usually derived from Foucault but also beyond the characteristic concern in Jurisprudence and Legal Philosophy to constitute law in its difference and separation from other socio political forms
