Forgotten Ones Women And Children Under Nippon:

The Forgotten Ones Shirley Fenton Huie, 1992 Forgotten Captives in Japanese-Occupied Asia Kevin Blackburn, Karl Hack, 2007-12-14 Experiences of captivity in Japanese occupied Asia varied enormously Some prisoners of war POWs were sent to work in Japan others to toil on the Death Railway between Burma and Thailand Some camps had death rates below 1 per cent others of over 20 per cent While POWs were deployed far and wide as a captive labour force civilian internees were generally detained locally This book explores differences in how captivity was experienced between 1941 and 1945 and has been remembered since differences due to geography and logistics to policies and personalities and marked by nationality age class gender and combatant status Part One has at least one chapter for each National Memory Australian British Canadian Dutch Indian and American Part Two moves on to forgotten captivities It covers women children camp guards internee experiences upon the end of the war and local heroines who fought back By juxtaposing such a wide variety of captivity experiences differentiated both by category of captive and by approach this book transcends place to become a collection about captivity as a category It will interest scholars working on the Asia Pacific War on captivities in general and on the individual histories of the countries and groups covered The Romance of K'tut Tantri and Indonesia Timothy Lindsey, 2008 This historiographic study of K tut Tantri alias Vannen Walker the journalist from the Isle of Man Muriel Pearson the unhappy wife and Surabaya Sue the notorious revolutionary compares her romantic and colorful autobiography Revolt in Paradise with other versions of her past including those of her fellow Bali colonists and her revolutionary comrades as well as her foes the Dutch and various intelligence organizations These alternative accounts of her past question the image of K tut Tantri as hero portraying her instead as dishonest unstable egotistical and immoral Such criticisms have overshadowed proper recognition of her role in the development of modern Indonesia both as a bohemian hotelier in between wars Bali and later as propaganda broadcaster and adviser to Indonesian revolutionary leaders including Soekarno Sutomo and Syarifuddin Focusing on the nature of biography and autobiography this book analyses K tut Tantri's self defeating battle to use history in text and film script to define her identity and reappropriate her past An examination of the use of ideas of truth and fiction in understanding the past leads to broader consideration of the nature of history and its uses Finally an attempt is made to reconcile the deconstruction of K tut Tantri's autobiography with both an acceptance of the validity of alternative historical genres and an acceptance of the problems inherent in writing a history of a living person ABOUT THE AUTHOR Timothy Lindsey is Professor of Law Director of the Asian Law Centre Director of the Centre for Islamic Law and Society and Federation Fellow in the Law School at the University of Melbourne The Comfort Women George L. Hicks, 1997 Over 100 000 women across Asia were victims of enforced prostitution by the Japanese Imperial Forces during World War II Until as recently as 1993 the Japanese government continued to deny this shameful aspect of its wartime history George Hicks's book is the only history in English regarding this terrible enslavement of women The Comfort

Women: Japan's Brutal Regime of Enforced Prostitution in the Second World War George Hicks,1997-10-17 The most extensive record available in English of the ugly story Elisabeth Rubinfein New York Newsday Over 100 000 women across Asia were victims of enforced prostitution by the Japanese Imperial Forces during World War II Until as recently as 1993 the Japanese government continued to deny this shameful aspect of its wartime history George Hicks s book is the only history in English regarding this terrible enslavement of women Homes and Homecomings K. H. Adler,Carrie Hamilton,2011-07-12 In Homes and Homecomings an international group of scholars provide inspiring new historical perspectives on the politics of homes and homecomings Using innovative methodological and theoretical approaches the book examines case studies from Africa Asia the Americas and Europe Provides inspiring new historical perspectives on the politics of homes and homecomings Takes an historical approach to a subject area that is surprisingly little historicised Features original research from a group of international scholars The book has an international approach that focuses on Africa Asia the Americas and East and West Europe Contains original illustrations of homes in a variety of historical contexts Japan ,1994 A History of Modern Indonesia Adrian Vickers,2013-03-29 This updated edition examines the rise of fundamentalist Islam in Indonesia and asks why the country s democratic aspirations have yet to be realized Race War! Gerald Horne,2004 A new look at a well covered piece of history the book looks at how racism shaped WW2 Indonesia Jean Gelman Taylor,Yale Univ Pr,2003-01-01 Sociale geschiedenis van Indonesi Hong Kong Internment, 1942-1945 Geoffrey Charles Emerson,2008-03-01 Hong Kong Internment 1942 1945 Life in the Japanese Civilian Camp at Stanley tells the story of the more than three thousand non Chinese civilians British American Dutch and others who were trapped in the British colony and interned behind barbed wire in Stanley Internment Camp from 1942 to 1945 From 1970 to 1972 while researching for his MA thesis the author interviewed twenty three former Stanley internees During these meetings the internees talked about their lives in the Stanley Camp during the Japanese occupation Long regarded as an invaluable reference and frequently consulted as a primary source on Stanley since its completion in 1973 the study is now republished with a new introduction and fresh discussions that recognize later work and information released since the original thesis was written Additional illustrations including a new map and photographs as well as an up to date bibliography have also been included in the book Japan - Restless Competitor Malcolm Trevor,2013-12-16 In this important new and controversial study about the nature and focus of the Japanese economic agenda the author argues forcefully that the official mind set of leading bureaucrats top politicians and big business makes it virtually impossible for the western industrialized world to do business on an equal footing Put simply it is a question of western free market economics facing Japanese economic nationalism which is by its very nature both an expansive and a protectionist ideology International observers continue to ask is Japan changing or more forcefully is Japan capable of change Notions of reform and restructuring are today part of the Japanese lexicon but appear to hold little substance Trevor argues that any western notion of Japan changing fundamentally i.e. adopting western or Anglo Saxon philosophies is facile completely unrealistic This book is for everyone who wonders what motivates Japan's politico economic system and whether it is changing Japan Malcolm Trevor,2001 This controversial study examines Japan's economic nationalism which forms the basis of central government policy i.e. the system in which business and politics are inseparable and which impacts on Japan's relations with the world

I Glanced Out the Window and Saw the Edge of the World Catherine Halsall,2020-07-08 This book is about WAR not the causes and results not the planning and the campaigns not the artillery and the bombs It is about the heinous crimes committed by the combatants the horrifying experiences of civilians the devastation of cities and villages the killing and the dying the glory leading to revulsion and guilt and the assimilation of suffering that either ends in death or in the triumph of the soul It looks at the struggle of the church to remain faithful and the servants of the church who seek to bring sense and solace to the victims It discusses antisemitism racism and war itself from biblical perspectives It reveals the unjustifiable reasons for engaging in war and how this brings catastrophic results for all peoples the mental instability of the survivors and the loss and grief of those on the home front In war how can men and women carry out the actions that they do As Viktor Frankl writes After all man is that being who has invented the gas chambers of Auschwitz however he is also that being who has entered those gas chambers upright with the Lord's Prayer or the Shema Yisrael on his lips Young Soeharto David Jenkins ,2021-05-06 When a reluctant President Sukarno gave Lt Gen Soeharto full executive authority in March 1966 Indonesia was a deeply divided nation fractured along ideological class religious and ethnic lines Soeharto took a country in chaos the largest in Southeast Asia and transformed it into one of the Asian miracle economies only to leave it back on the brink of ruin when he was forced from office thirty two years later Drawing on his astonishing range of interviews with leading Indonesian generals former Imperial Japanese Army officers and men who served in the Dutch colonial army as well as years of patient research in Dutch Japanese British Indonesian and US archives David Jenkins brings vividly to life the story of how a socially reticent but exceptionally determined young man from rural Java began his rise to power an ascent which would be capped by thirty years 1968-98 as President of Indonesia the fourth most populous nation on earth Soeharto was one of Asia's most brutal most durable most avaricious and most successful dictators In the course of examining those aspects of his character this book provides an accessible highly readable introduction to the complex but dramatic and utterly absorbing social political religious economic and military factors that have shaped and which continue to shape Indonesia Shadows Over Paradise Isabel Wolff,2015-02-10 For readers of Kate Morton and Jamie Ford comes a captivating novel of two very different women struggling to come to terms with the ghosts from their past by the internationally bestselling author of A Vintage Affair and The Very Picture of You Sometimes the only way forward is through the past Jenni Clark is a ghostwriter She loves to immerse herself in other people's stories a respite from her own life and from a relationship that appears to be nearing its end Jenni's latest assignment takes her to a coastal hamlet in England where she's agreed to pen the memoir of an elderly farm owner named Klara Jenni assumes the project will be easy a quiet ordinary tale of a life well lived But Klara's story is far from quiet She recounts the tale of a family torn apart by World War II and of disgraceful acts committed against a community in the Japanese prison camps on the Pacific island paradise of Java As harrowing details emerge and stunning truths come to light Jenni is compelled to confront a secret she's spent a lifetime burying Weaving together the lives of two very different women Isabel Wolff has created a captivating novel of love loss and hope that reaches across generations Praise for Shadows Over Paradise An excellent choice for fans of Sarah Jio and Kate Morton Booklist Shifting focus from the present to the past with ease this novel brings to the page the reality of the horrors of the Japanese run internment camps in vivid and gory detail Wolff's latest will please fans of women's stories that include a realistic depiction of life during wartime and the ability to overcome adversity Library Journal Beautifully written an outstanding book club selection If you liked Jamie Ford's novels then you'll like Shadows Over Paradise Huntington News

Artistic Ambassadors Brian Russell Roberts, 2013 During the first generation of black participation in U S diplomacy in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries a vibrant community of African American writers and cultural figures worked as U S representatives abroad Through the literary and diplomatic dossiers of figures such as Frederick Douglass James Weldon Johnson Archibald and Angelina Grimké W E B Du Bois Ida Gibbs Hunt and Richard Wright Brian Roberts shows how the intersection of black aesthetic trends and U S political culture both Americanized and internationalized the trope of the New Negro This decades long relationship began during the days of Reconstruction and it flourished as U S presidents courted and rewarded their black voting constituencies by appointing black men as consuls and ministers to such locales as Liberia Haiti Madagascar and Venezuela These appointments changed the complexion of U S interactions with nations and colonies of color in turn state sponsored black travel gave rise to literary works that imported international representation into New Negro discourse on aesthetics race and African American culture Beyond offering a narrative of the formative dialogue between black transnationalism and U S international diplomacy Artistic Ambassadors also illuminates a broader literary culture that reached both black and white America as well as the black diaspora and the wider world of people of color In light of the U S appointments of its first two black secretaries of state and the election of its first black president this complex representational legacy has continued relevance to our understanding of current American
