Forgotten Victims Of The Holocaust:

Forgotten Victims Mitchel G Bard, 2019-08-28 The outbreak of war in Europe in 1939 put tens of thousands of American civilians especially Jews in deadly peril and yet the US State Department failed to help them Consequently many suffered and some died Later when the United States joined the war against Hitler many American and in particular Jewish American soldiers were captured and Forgotten Survivors Richard C. Lukas, 2004 Richard Lukas presents the eyewitness accounts of these and other Polish Christians who suffered at the hands of the Germans They bear witness to unspeakable horrors endured by those who were tortured forced into slavery shipped off to concentration camps and even subjected to medical experiments Their stories provide a somber reminder that non Jewish Poles were just as likely as Jews to suffer at the hands of the Nazis who viewed them with nearly equal contempt Jehovah's Witnesses and the Third Reich M. James Penton, 2004-01-01 Using materials from Witness archives the U S State Department Nazi files and other sources M James Penton demonstrates that while many ordinary German Witnesses were brave in their opposition to Nazism their leaders were quite prepared to support the Hitler government from publisher description Germany and Its Gypsies Gilad Margalit, 2002-10-07 Historian Gilad Margalit eloquently fills a tragic gap in the historical record with this sweeping examination of the plight of Gypsies in Germany before during and since the era of the Third Reich Germany and Its Gypsies reveals the painful record of the official treatment of the German Gypsies a people whose future in the shadow of Auschwitz remains uncertain Margalit follows the story from the heightened racism of the nineteenth century to the National Socialist genocidal policies that resulted in the murder of most German Gypsies from the shifting attitudes in the two Germanys in 1945 through reunification and up to the present day Drawing upon a rich variety of sources Margalit considers the pivotal historic events legal arguments debates and changing attitudes toward the status of the German Gypsies and shines a vitally important light upon the issue of ethnic groups and their victimization in society The result is a powerful and unforgettable testament Intimate Histories Nadja Klopprogge, 2024-04-01 Intimate Histories focuses on intimate relations as sites of shared pasts connecting African American and German history in the years between 1933 and 1990 By tracing topics that include anti miscegenation laws forced sterilization casual sexual encounters marriage and friendships Intimate Histories broadens our understanding of African American German relations during the so called century of extremes Hitler's Black Victims Clarence Lusane, 2004-11-23 Drawing on interviews with the black survivors of Nazi concentration camps and archival research in North America Europe and Africa this book documents and analyzes the meaning of Nazism's racial policies towards people of African descent specifically those born in Germany England France the United States and Africa and the impact of that legacy on contemporary race relations in Germany and more generally in Europe The book also specifically addresses the concerns of those surviving Afro Germans who were victims of Nazism but have not generally been included in or benefited from the compensation agreements that have been developed in recent years In the Shadow of the Holocaust James F. Tent, 2003 James Tent recounts how these men and women from all over Germany and from all walks of life struggled to survive in an increasingly hostile society even as their Jewish relatives were disappearing into the East It draws on extensive interviews with twenty survivors many of whom were teenagers when Hitler came to power to show how half Jews coped with conditions on a day to day basis and how the legacy of the hatred they suffered still lingers in their minds

The Men with the Pink Triangle Heinz Heger, 2010-11 The first and still the best known testimony by a gay survivor of the Nazi concentration camps translated into English this harrowing autobiography opened new doors onto the understanding of homosexuality and the Holocaust when it was first published in 1980 by Gay Men s Press THE MEN WITH THE PINK TRIANGLE has been translated into several languages with a second edition published in 1994 by Alyson Books Heger s book also inspired the 1979 play Bent by Martin Sherman which was filmed as the 1997 movie of the same name directed by Sean Mathias

Studies in Contemporary Jewry Ezra Mendelsohn, 1997-01-30 Literary Strategies Jewish Texts and Contexts collects essays on Jewish literature which deal with the manifold ways that literary texts reveal their authors attitudes toward their own Jewish identity and toward diverse aspects of the Jewish question Essays in this volume explore the tension between Israeli and Diaspora identities and between those who write in Hebrew or Yiddish and those who write in other non Jewish languages The essays also explore the question of how Jewish writers remember history in their search for a useable past From essays on Jabotinsky s virtually unknown plays to Philip Roth s novels this book provides a strong overview of contemporary themes in Jewish literary studies

The Holocaust's Forgotten Victims? Jews, Suicide, and Resistance Mark Alan Mengerink, 2006 The debate surrounding Jewish resistance to the Holocaust has raged for 60 years yet until relatively recently scholars and commentators have narrowly defined resistance focusing on armed action against the perpetrators to the exclusion of other actions taken by Jews Drawing on scholarship that has attempted to broaden the definition of Jewish resistance this dissertation examines suicide as a potential act of resistance to Nazi persecution an idea first postulated by Konrad Kwiet but since ignored by the scholarly community Roger Gottlieb argued in part that to view any act as resistance we must examine several factors including the intention of the actor To view suicide as an act of resistance we must not only consider whether the suicide victim intended to resist the Nazis but also how Jewish witnesses and German perpetrators viewed suicidal acts by Jews When viewed from these different perspectives we can conclude some suicides of Jews during the Holocaust were acts of resistance because the victim Jewish witnesses and German perpetrators saw these acts as such Viewing suicide as resistance to oppression has deep roots in the Western tradition not only by victims dissatisfied with life but also by religious and political authorities who attempted to maintain the traditional economic social and political order Yet an examination of suicide as Jewish resistance to Nazi persecution humiliation and murder will also help scholars rescue Jewish victims of suicide from obscurity In many respects Jews who ended their lives during the Holocaust have become forgotten victims because they have generally not entered the normal Holocaust discourse By examining suicide among Jews especially in the camp environment using survivor accounts memoirs and diaries we can also better understand attitudes of survivors toward those Jews ended their lives voluntarily and attitudes about life and death during the Holocaust

The Healing of Individuals, Families & Nations John L. Payne, 2012-06-01 Body Mind Spirit Self Help This book's perspective on healing will expand the reader's vision beyond the scope of healing as a purely individual and personal matter to one that spans generations in its scope crosses racial and cultural barriers and sheds new light on the relationships between victims and perpetrators be they from governments and regimes wars sexual abuse or crime Payne's Orders of Love describe a natural pattern that has been observed in the practice of Family Constellations namely that there is a distinct order stating who belongs and who does not belong not only in a family system but also in larger groups such as nations With its many examples and stories Payne's book brings back into belonging those who have been excluded and bridges the gap between the healing of an individual and the healing of family ethnic and national souls John L. Payne also known as Shavasti has travelled the length and breadth of this globe firstly in childhood and then in his adult life in search of deeper meaning and experience His multi cultural background created a childhood that was spread over three continents and an adult life spent living in Europe Africa Central and South America and Asia with much time being spent in the USA With the experience of having given more than 400 workshops on 6 continents you are receiving a wealth of cultural ethnic and historical experience that makes his work finely tuned for ancestral healing having worked with hundreds of individuals across the globe

Tracing and Documenting Nazi Victims Past and Present Henning Borggräfe, Christian Höschler, Isabel Panek, 2020-06-08 After World War II tracing and documenting Nazi victims emerged against the background of millions of missing persons and early compensation proceedings This was a process in which the Allies international aid organizations and survivors themselves took part New archives documentation centers and tracing bureaus were founded amid the increasing Cold War divide They gathered documents on Nazi persecution and structured them in specialized collections to provide information on individual fates and their grave repercussions the loss of relatives the search for a new home physical or mental injuries existential problems social support and recognition but also continued exclusion or discrimination By doing so institutions involved in this work were inevitably confronted with contentious issues such as varying political mandates neutrality vs solidarity with those formerly persecuted data protection vs public interest and many more Over time tracing bureaus and archives changed methods and policies and even expanded their activities using historical documents for both research and public remembrance This is the first publication to explore this multifaceted history of tracing and documenting past and present

The Night Travelers Armando Lucas Correa, 2023-01-10 Separated by time but united by sacrifice four women experience love loss war and hope from the rise of Nazism to the fall of the Berlin Wall as they embark on journeys of self discovery and find themselves to be living testaments to the power of maternal love

Reparations for Nazi Victims in Postwar Europe Regula Ludi, 2012-08-27 A history of reparations from a comparative and transnational perspective tracing back to their origins in the final years of the Second World War Legacies of Christian Language and Literacies in American Education Mary M. Juzwik, Jennifer C. Stone, Kevin J. Burke, Denise Dávila, 2019-10-23 Because spiritual life and religious participation are widespread human and cultural phenomena these experiences unsurprisingly find their way into English language arts curriculum learning teaching and teacher education work Yet many public school literacy teachers and secondary teacher educators feel unsure how to engage religious and spiritual topics and responses in their classrooms This volume responds to this challenge with an in depth exploration of diverse experiences and perspectives on Christianity within American education Authors not only examine how Christianity the historically dominant religion in American society shapes languaging and literacies in schooling and other educational spaces but they also imagine how these relations might be reconfigured From curricula to classroom practice from narratives of teacher education to youth coming to faith chapters vivify how spiritual lives beliefs practices communities and religious traditions interact with linguistic and literate practices and pedagogies In relating legacies of Christian languaging and literacies to urgent issues including White supremacy sexism and homophobia and the politics of exclusion the volume enacts and invites inclusive relational configurations within and across the myriad American Christian sub cultures coming to bear on English language arts curriculum teaching and learning This courageous collection contributes to an emerging scholarly literature at the intersection of language and literacy teaching and learning religious literacy curriculum studies teacher education and youth studies It will speak to teacher educators scholars secondary school teachers and graduate and postgraduate students among others The Roma Struggle for Compensation in Post-War Germany Julia Von Dem Knesebeck, 2011-06 Thirty years passed before it was accepted in West Germany and elsewhere that the Roma Gypsies of Germany had been Holocaust victims Drawing upon a substantial body of previously unseen sources this record examines the history of the Roma struggle for recognition as racially persecuted victims of National Socialism in postwar Germany Looking at West Germany in the period between the end of the war and the beginning of the Roma civil rights movement in the early 1980s this authoritative analysis demonstrates how pejorative attitudes continued unchallenged and how compensation was eventually achieved

A Bit Different Pauline Conroy, 2018-11-22 A Bit Different Disability in Ireland brings the reader on a journey exploring the ideas that influence our thinking about people with disabilities In the year when Ireland ratified the UN Convention on the rights of people with disabilities A Bit Different answers the question as to why the road to equal rights for people with disabilities is strewn with so many potholes Its chapters analyse the impact of the Nazi programme to annihilate people with disabilities and create an Aryan race as well as the Irish habit of placing people with perceived differences into closed institutions Drawing on examples from Germany Romania Italy and the US the book casts a different or alternative light on the Army Deafness cases of the 1970s and the more recent Tuam discovery of unburied babies Among its ten chapters the author provides a new look at the rise of the independent living movement in Ireland among people with disabilities themselves and provides a critical appraisal of the increasing State regulation and enforcement of standards of living in residential centres for people with disabilities Students of Disability Studies will find the first historical timeline of disability policy events over two centuries especially useful in understanding the history of disability rights in Ireland The intended readership for this book is among the 600 000 Irish people who describe themselves as having a disability or long standing health condition their friends families advocates carers social care supporters work colleagues and employers

Scripturalizing Jewishness through Blackness Aurélien Mokoko Gampiot, 2024-08-27 While conversions to Judaism are generally understudied in France conversions of Black persons go unnoticed The past three decades witnessed an increasing number of claims to Jewishness in Africa and conversions in the African diaspora and Israel Their diverse life stories reflect deep spiritual quests Scripturalizing Jewishness through Blackness Black Jews in France describes the multiple ways in which they practice and claim their Judaism relate to their fellow Jews and reconstruct their identities Whether former Christians or native Jews they re define their racial and ethnic identities as members of two minority groups in their interactions with Jewish texts and communities to find their place in the French Jewry and the broader French society where they have to face both anti Semitism and racism After fifteen years of fieldwork Aurélien Mokoko Gampiot offers an original analysis of their individual and collective itineraries Rethinking Poles and Jews Robert Cherry, Annamaria Orla-Bukowska, 2007-06-07 Since Polish Catholics embraced some anti Jewish notions and actions prior to WWII many intertwined the Nazi death camps in Poland with Polish anti Semitism As a result more so than local non Jewish population in other Nazi occupied countries Polish Catholics were considered active collaborators in the destruction of European Jewry Through the presentation of these negative images in Holocaust literature documentaries and teaching these stereotypes have been sustained and infect attitudes toward contemporary Poland impacting on Jewish youth trips there from Israel and the United States This book focuses on the role of Holocaust related material in perpetuating anti Polish images and describes organizational efforts to combat them Without minimizing contemporary Polish anti Semitism it also presents more positive material on contemporary Polish American organizations and Jewish life in Poland To our knowledge this will be the first book to document systematically the anti Polish images in Holocaust material to describe ongoing efforts to combat these negative stereotypes and to emphasize the positive role of the Polish Catholic community in the resurgence of Jewish life in Poland Thus this book will present new information that will be of value to Holocaust Studies and the 100 000 annual foreign visitors to the German death camps in Poland Black Europe and the African Diaspora Darlene Clark Hine, Trica Danielle Keaton, Stephen Small, 2023-12-11 The presence of Blacks in a number of European societies has drawn increasing interest from scholars policymakers and the general public This interdisciplinary and multi disciplinary collection penetrates the multifaceted Black presence in Europe and in so doing complicates the notions of race belonging desire and identities assumed and presumed in revealing portraits of Black experiences in a European context In focusing on contemporary intellectual currents and themes the contributors theorize and re imagine a range of historical and contemporary issues related to the broader questions of blackness diaspora hegemony transnationalism and Black Europe itself as lived and perceived realities Contributors are Allison Blakely Jacqueline Nassy Brown Tina Campt Fred Constant Alessandra Di Maio Philomena Essed Terri Francis Barnor Hesse Darlene Clark Hine Dienke Hondius Eileen Julien Trica Danielle Keaton Kwame Nimako Tiffany Ruby Patterson T Denean Sharpley Whiting Stephen Small Tyler Stovall Alexander G Weheliye Gloria Wekker and Michelle M Wright
