Form As Content And Rhetoric In The Modern Novel:

Form as Content and Rhetoric in the Modern Novel Michael Boccia, 1989 This book examines the fiction of modern authors who have deviated from the traditional modes of narrative structure to reflect thematic elements In so doing these writers have created new novelistic forms that surprise and entrance readers in new ways The works of Vladimir Nabokov Ismael Reed Manuel Puig William Gaddis Djuna Barnes John Fowles and Lawrence Durrell are examined in terms of the aesthetic theories provided by the writers themselves Form, Content and Rhetoric in the Modern Novel: Or what the Hell is Going on Here Anyway? , 1980 Devotion Garrett Bradley, 2024-02-27 A beautifully illustrated book length publication on the contemporary artist and Academy Award nominated filmmaker Garrett Bradley whose quietly devastating work blurs the space between fact and fiction Garrett Bradley works across narrative documentary and experimental modes of filmmaking to address themes such as race class familial relationships social justice and cultural histories in the United States Her collaborative and research based approach to filmmaking is often inspired by the real life stories of her protagonists This book explores Bradley s work through the lens of devotion and features conversations with the artist and contributions from the likes of Ashley Clark Arthur Jafa Joy James Tyler Mitchell Kevin Quashie and Claudia Rankine This is the first volume in a new series of readers copublished with Lisson Gallery entitled Re which will respond to a number of its artists and themes past and present Adopting archival material alongside newly shot footage Bradley s films exist simultaneously in the past present and future not only disrupting our perception of time but also breaking down our preconceived ideas about objectivity perspective and truth telling These narratives unfold naturally in both feature length and short form revealing a multitude of individual and collective stories The social economic and racial politics of everyday life its joys pleasures and pains are lyrically and intimately rendered on screen Rhetoric in Modern Japan Massimiliano Tomasi, 2004-07-31 Rhetoric in Modern Japan is the first volume to discuss the role of Western rhetoric in the creation of a modern Japanese oral and narrative style It considers the introduction of Western rhetoric clarifying its interactions with the forces and synergies that shaped Japanese literature and culture in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Focusing on the Meiji and Taisho years 1868 1926 it challenges the prevailing view among contemporary scholars that rhetoric did not play a significant role in the literary developments of the period Massimiliano Tomasi chronicles the blooming of scholarship in the field in the early 1870s providing the first descriptive analysis and cogently articulated critique of the major rhetorical treatises of the time In discussing the rise of public speaking in early Meiji society he unveils the existence of crucial links between the study of rhetoric and the social and literary events of the time underscoring the key role played by oratory both as a tool for social modernization and as an effective platform for the reappraisal of the spoken language The collusion and conflicts characterizing rhetoric and its relationship with the genbun itchi movement which sought to unify spoken and written language are explored demonstrating that their perceived antagonism was the uh_product of a misguided notion of rhetoric and the process of rhetorical signification rather than a true theoretical conflict Tomasi makes a convincing argument that in fact Western rhetoric mediated between these equally compelling pursuits and paved the way toward an acceptable compromise between classical and colloquial written styles The Modern Preacher and the Ancient Text Sidney Greidanus,1989-01-19 A fusion of biblical hermeneutics and homiletics this thorough and well researched book offers a holistic contemporary approach to the interpretation and preaching of biblical texts using all the scholarly tools available and focusing especially on literary features Greidanus develops hermeneutical and homiletical principles and then applies them to four specific genres Hebrew narratives prophetic literature the Gospels and the Epistles

Comprehensive Dissertation Index: Language & literature, A-L ,1984 The Westminster Dictionary of New Testament and Early Christian Literature and Rhetoric David Edward Aune,2003-01-01 The Westminster Dictionary of New Testament and Early Christian Literature and Rhetoric details the variety of literary and rhetorical forms found in the New Testament and in the literature of the early Christian church This authoritative reference source is a treasury for understanding the methods employed by New Testament and early Christian writers Aune s extensive study will be of immense value to scholars and all those interested in the ways literary and rhetorical forms were used and how they functioned in the early Christian world This unique and encyclopedic study will serve generations of scholars and students by illuminating the ways words shaped the consciousness of those who encountered Christian teachings Comprehensive Dissertation Index ,1989 New Testament Rhetoric, Second Edition Ben Witherington III,Jason A. Myers,2022-09-28 Witherington and Myers provide a much needed introduction to the ancient art of persuasion and its use within the various New Testament documents More than just an exploration of the use of the ancient rhetorical tools and devices this guide introduces the reader to all that went into convincing an audience about some subject Witherington and Myers make the case that rhetorical criticism is a more fruitful approach to the NT epistles than the oft employed approaches of literary and discourse criticism Familiarity with the art of rhetoric also helps the reader explore non epistolary genres In addition to the general introduction to rhetorical criticism the book guides readers through the many and varied uses of rhetoric in most NT documents not only telling readers about rhetoric in the NT but showing them the way it was employed This brief guide book is intended to provide the reader with an entrance into understanding the rhetorical analysis of various parts of the NT the value such studies bring for understanding what is being proclaimed and defended in the NT and how Christ is presented in ways that would be considered persuasive in antiquity from the introduction Confronting Male Power with Integrity Cindy Jenefsky,1990 New Formalisms and Literary Theory V. Theile,L. Tredennick,2013-04-11 Bringing together scholars who have critically followed New Formalism s journey through time space and learning environment this collection of essays both solidifies and consolidates New Formalism as a burgeoning field of literary criticism and explicates its potential as a varied but viable methodology of contemporary critical theory Circular Narratives in Modern European

Literature Juan Luis Toribio Vazquez, 2022-06-16 Breaking with linearity the ruling narrative model in the Jewish Christian tradition since the ancient world many 20th century European writers adopted circular narrative forms Juan Luis Toribio Vazquez shows this trend was not a unified nor conscious movement but rather a series of works arising sporadically in different countries at different times using a variety of circular structures to express similar concerns and ideas about the world This study also shows how the renewed understanding of narrative form leading to this circular trend was anticipated by Nietzsche's critiques of truth knowledge language and metaphysics and especially by his related discussions of nihilism and the eternal recurrence Starting with an analysis of the theory and genealogy of linear narrative the author charts the emergence of Nietzsche's idea of eternal return before then turning to the history of the circular narrative trend This history is explored from its inception in the works of August Strindberg Gertrude Stein and Azorín through its development in the interwar years by writers such as Raymond Queneau and Vladimir Nabokov to its full flowering in the work of authors James Joyce or Samuel Beckett among others and its later employment by post war writers including Alain Robbe-Grillet Italo Calvino and Maurice Blanchot Through a series of close readings the book aims to highlight the various ways in which narrative circularity serves to break with an essentially teleological and theological thinking Finally Toribio Vazquez concludes by proposing a new typology of non linear narratives which builds on the work of recent narratologists The Rhetoric of Topics and Forms Gianna Zocco, 2021-01-18 The fourth volume of the collected papers of the ICLA congress The Many Languages of Comparative Literature includes articles that study thematic and formal elements of literary texts Although the question of prioritizing either the level of content or that of form has often provoked controversies most contributions here treat them as internally connected While theoretical considerations inform many of the readings the main interest of most articles can be described as rhetorical in the widest sense given that the ancient discipline of rhetoric did not only include the study of rhetorical figures and tropes such as metaphor irony or satire but also that of topoi which were originally viewed as the places where certain arguments could be found but later came to represent the arguments or intellectual themes themselves Another feature shared by most of the articles is the tendency of undeclared thematology which not only reflects the persistence of the charge of positivism but also shows that most scholars prefer to locate themselves within more specific often interdisciplinary fields of literary study In this sense this volume does not only prove the ongoing relevance of traditional fields such as rhetoric and thematology but provides contributions to currently flourishing research areas among them literary multilingualism literature and emotions and ecocriticism Handbook of Hispanic Cultures in the United States: Literature and Art Nicolàs Kanellos, Claudia Esteva-Fabregat, Francisco Lomelí, 1993-01-01 Recovering the U S Hispanic Literary Project is a national project to locate identify preserve and make accessible the literary contributions of U S Hispanics from colonial times through 1960 in what today comprises the fifty states of the United States The Change of Narrative Modes in Chinese Fiction (1898-1927) Pingyuan

Chen,2022-02-17 This book examines the Chinese fictions xiaoshuo published between 1898 and 1927 three pivotal decades during which China underwent significant social changes It applies Narratology and Sociology of the Novel methods to analyze both the texts themselves and the social cultural factors that triggered the transformation of the narrative mode in Chinese fiction Based on empirical data the author argues that this transformation was not only inspired by translated Western fiction but was also the result of a creative transformation in tradition Chinese literature 2 Corinthians, a Letter about Reconciliation Ivar Vegge,2008 Ivar Vegge argues that Paul in line with ancient moral philosophers letter writers and rhetoricians used idealized praise in 2 Cor 1 9 and particularly in 2 Cor 7 5 16 and blame or threats especially in 2 Cor 10 13 to promote reconciliation between the Corinthians and Paul as apostle BOOK JACKET The Indiana Companion to Traditional Chinese Literature William H. Nienhauser,1986 A vertitable feast of concise useful reliable and up to date information all prepared by top scholars in the field Nienhauser s now two volume title stands alone as THE standard reference work for the study of traditional Chinese literature Nothing like it has ever been published Choice The second volume to The Indiana Companion to Traditional Chinese Literature is both a supplement and an update to the original volume Volume II includes over 60 new entries on famous writers works and genres of traditional Chinese literature followed by an extensive bibliographic update 1985 1997 of editions translations and studies primarily in English Chinese Japanese French and German for the 500 entries of Volume I Rhetoric, Literature, and Interpretation Harry Raphael Garvin,1983 In what sense does the literary critic exist in his own right and in what way does his role go beyond that of the teacher mystic philologist historian philosopher rhetorician and literary artist This issue of the Bucknell Review focuses on the opposition of rhetoric and interpretation presenting essays which explore the problems and possibilities critics confront when they adopt either interpretation or rhetoric as a critical starting point Illustrated Nonmodern Practices Elisabeth Arnould-Bloomfield,Claire Chi-ah Lyu,2020-10-01 This collection of essays responds to the urgent call in the humanities to go beyond the act of negative critique which so far has been the dominant form of intellectual inquiry in academia The contributors take their inspiration from Bruno Latour s pragmatic relational approach and his philosophy of hybrid world where culture is immanent to nature and knowledge is tied to the things it co creates In such a world nature society and discourse relate to rather than negate each other The 11 essays ranging from early modern humanism and modern theorization of literature to contemporary political ecology and animal studies propose new productive ways of thinking reading and writing with not against the world In carrying out concrete practices that are inclusive rather than exclusive contributors strive to exemplify a form of scholarship that might be better attuned to the concerns of our post humanist era Resources in Education ,1985-11
