Lirica Espanola De Tipo Popular:

A Comparative History of Literatures in the Iberian Peninsula Fernando Cabo Aseguinolaza, Anxo Abuín Gonzalez, César Domínguez, 2010-05-26 A Comparative History of Literatures in the Iberian Peninsula is the second comparative history of a new subseries with a regional focus published by the Coordinating Committee of the International Comparative Literature Association. As its predecessor for East Central Europe, this two-volume history distances itself from traditional histories built around periods and movements and explores from a comparative viewpoint a space considered to be a powerful symbol of inter-literary relations. Both the geographical pertinence and its symbolic condition are obviously discussed when not even contested. Written by an international team of researchers who are specialists in the field, this history is the first attempt at applying a comparative approach to the plurilingual and multicultural literatures in the Iberian Peninsula. The aim of comprehensiveness is abandoned in favor of a diverse and extensive array of key issues for a comparative agenda. A Comparative History of Literatures in the Iberian Peninsula undermines the primacy claimed for national and linguistic boundaries and provides a geo-cultural account of literary inter-systems which cannot otherwise be explained. Lírica popular, lírica tradicional Pedro M. Piñero Ramírez, 1998 Love Songs from al-Andalus Otto Zwartjes, 2023-08-21 Love Songs from al-Andalus presents an updated survey of the debates concerning Andalusian strophic poetry and their Kharjas. Attention is focused on the texts themselves and their literary implications as testimonies of the multicultural and multilingual society of al-Andalus. Since languages and alphabets of the three major religions have been used, these texts are studied historically, prosodically, thematically, and stylistically and are related to the three literary traditions. One of the novelties of this study is the fact that it has been based upon the most updated edition and interpretations of the texts, introducing emendations in over a third of its contents and making obsolete most of the hundreds of previous articles and books on the topic. Another novelty is the fact that stylistic features have been studied according to the Arabic model, casting new light on them. The survey of thematic relationships and the analysis of code-switching phenomena add weight to the conclusions of this research. The Cambridge History of Spanish Literature David T. Gies, 2004 Publisher Description

In the Light of Contradiction Roberta Ann Quance, 2017-07-05 In 1926, as a young man of 28 with a growing reputation as an oral poet, Federico García Lorca (1898-1936) toyed with the idea of proving his worth in writing by bringing out a boxed set of three volumes of his verse. Because the Suites Canciones and the Poema del cante jondo eventually came out singly, in the case of the Suites posthumously, readers have not always realized that they formed a single body of work, one which Lorca himself was surprised to note has una rarísima unidad, an odd unity of aims and accomplishment. This is poetry which takes up the question of desire in progressively depersonalizing ways and shows modernism coming into being through renunciation by cutting away the personal and the taboo. Lorca created a poetry that like no other in Europe stood between the avant-garde and oral traditions, making their contradictions his truth. Roberta Ann Quance is Senior Lecturer in Spanish
