Graff, 1981 Social Linguistics and Literacies James Gee, 2015-02-27 In its first edition Social Linguistics and Literacies was a major contribution to the emerging interdisciplinary field of sociocultural approaches to language and literacy and was one of the founding texts of the New Literacy Studies This book serves as a classic introduction to the study of language learning and literacy in their social cultural and political contexts It shows how contemporary sociocultural approaches to language and literacy emerged and Engages with topics such as orality and literacy the history of literacy the nature of discourse analysis and social theories of mind and meaning Explores how language functions in a society Surveys the notion of discourse with specific reference to cross cultural issues in communities and schools This fifth edition offers an overview of the sociocultural approaches to language and literacy that coalesced into the New Literacy Studies It also introduces readers to a particular style of analyzing language in use in society and develops a distinctive specific perspective on language and literacy centered on the notion of Discourses It will be of interest to researchers lecturers and students in education linguistics or any field that deals with language especially in social or cultural terms The Labyrinths Of Literacy Harvey Graff, 2020-02-10 A compelling collection by one of the pioneers of revisionist approaches to the history of literacy in North America and Europe The Labyrinths of Literacy offers original and controversial views on the relation of literacy to society leading the way for scholars and citizens who are willing to question the importance and function of literacy in the development of society today

Contesting Cultural Rhetorics Margaret J. Marshall, 1995 Taken together these texts reveal the complicated public discussion of education in the 1890s a period of transformation in culture schooling and the organization of knowledge Moreover they reveal the rhetorical structure of many of the questions Americans ask about education today who should be educated by whom for what purposes using what methods or materials What of the past should we pass on to the future and how Contesting Cultural Rhetorics will be useful to readers interested in the history of education and nineteenth century popular culture as well as those involved in current debates on education and public policy The Creation of Feminist Consciousness Gerda Lerner, 1993 In its emphasis on the force of ideas the struggle of women for inclusion in the concept of the Divine the repeated attempts by women to form supportive networks and its analysis of the preconditions for the formation of political theories of liberation this brilliant work charts new ground for historical studies the history of ideas and feminist theory Jacket Western Travellers to Constantinople K.N. Ciggaar, 2022-04-19 This volume deals with relations between the West and Byzantium from the accession of Otto I the Great in Germany in 962 until the Fourth Crusade when Constantinople was conquered by the Western crusading armies in 1204 The impact which these contacts and confrontations had on both sides is discussed in sections dealing with specific areas such as the North Britain France

Germany Italy and Spain as well as in sections dealing with specific aspects of the process the journey the attractions of the East and the idea of autoritates and translationes of various political and intellectual ideas An extensive index will help readers to find specific topics The book is illustrated with maps and with a number of objects betraying Byzantine influence in the West or Western presence in Byzantium

Writing on the Tablet of the Heart David M. Carr, 2005-03-10 This book explores a new model for the production revision and reception of Biblical texts as Scripture Building on recent studies of the oral written interface in medieval Greco Roman and ancient Near Eastern contexts David Carr argues that in ancient Israel Biblical texts and other texts emerged as a support for an educational process in which written and oral dimensions were integrally intertwined The point was not incising and reading texts on parchment or papyrus The point was to enculturate ancient Israelites particularly Israelite elites by training them to memorize and recite a wide range of traditional literature that was seen as the cultural bedrock of the people narrative prophecy prayer and wisdom
