Good Things to Do Rüdiger Bittner, 2023 Rüdiger Bittner argues that the aim of thinking about what to do of practical reason is to find not what we ought to do but what it is good to do under the circumstances Neither under prudence nor under morality are there things we ought to do There is no warrant for the idea of our being required by natural law or by our rationality to do either what helps us attain our ends or what is right for moral reasons While common moral understanding is committed to there being things we ought to do and to our being guilty and deserving blame if we fail to do them we can lay aside these notions without loss indeed with benefit The volume also explains what it is for something to be good to do under the circumstances and argues for understanding practical reason in these terms What is good to do we find by experience what we go through teaches us what helps and what hinders and helps us figure out what is prudentially useful and what is morally right to do although ultimately this difference itself gives way and morality turns out to be a part of prudence

Choosing Love Dawne Moon,Theresa W. Tobin,2025-05-05 What does the battle between conservative Christians and LGBTQ people look like from the vantage point of those who are both If a culture war is happening LGBTQ conservative Christians are on the front lines While many people assume LGBTQ people have to say goodbye to the religions they grew up with and many do others occupy the intersection of LGBTQ existence and conservative Protestantism Choosing Love shows what happens when two identities that seem diametrically opposed conservative Christian and LGBTQ are joined together within one person Drawing on participant observation conducted within organizations for LGBTQ Christians and on more than 100 interviews with LGBTQ Christians former Christians and allies especially Black people Indigenous people and other people of color Dawne Moon and Theresa W Tobin show how a number of LGBTQ Christians and their heterosexual cisgender allies are working to make their families churches and communities more inclusive loving and just In telling their stories Choosing Love shares lessons about what it means to be human relational beings who need mutual connection to thrive These stories expose the brutality of treating shame as a special sacrament for LGBTQ people and the toxicity of treating a particular construction of gender as sacred They teach us the difference between arrogance and relational pride and that humility is the core of true allyship Finally they offer contemporary examples of the radical potential of love in movements for social justice Written in an approachable style and drawing from such diverse sources as Martin Buber Martin Luther King Black Third World feminism and queer thinkers of color Choosing Love is for anyone interested in the centrality of relationships in human life the place of love in the struggle for justice and the need for justice in any effort to love
