Feet With Jesus:

Under the Feet of Jesus Helena Maria Viramontes, 1996-04-01 Winner of the John Dos Passos Prize for Literature Stunning Newsweek With the same audacity with which John Steinbeck wrote about migrant worker conditions in The Grapes of Wrath and T C Boyle in The Tortilla Curtain Viramontes presents a moving and powerful vision of the lives of the men women and children who endure a second class existence and labor under dangerous conditions in California s fields At the center of this powerful tale is Estrella a girl about to cross the perilous border to womanhood What she knows of life comes from her mother who has survived abandonment by her husband in a land that treats her as if she were invisible even though she and her children pick the crops of the farms that feed its people But within Estrella seeds of growth and change are stirring And in the arms of Alejo they burst into a full fierce flower as she tastes the joy and pain of first love Pushed to the margins of society she learns to fight back and is able to help the young farmworker she loves when his ambitions and very life are threatened in a harvest of death Infused with the beauty of the California landscape and shifting splendors of the passing seasons juxtaposed with the bleakness of poverty this vividly imagined novel is worthy of the people it celebrates and whose story it tells so magnificently The simple lyrical beauty of Viramontes prose her haunting use of image and metaphor and the urgency of her themes all announce Under the Feet of Jesus as a landmark work of American fiction At the Feet of Jesus Sheridy Walker, 2018-02-01 Dear friends as you pick up this book my prayer is that you would truly find yourself at the feet of Jesus listening to his words and allowing him to change your life In the busyness of life at times we are too busy to stop and listen for the still small voice of Jesus Christ Life overtakes us and we become frazzled because we truly live in a fast paced out of control world Dont shut Jesus out of your life because of your busyness I pray that each day you would take just a moment of your time to sit at his feet to soak up his voice and allow him to heal your soul Because I love him so Sheridy
