Felix And The New Building:

Building musical culture in Nineteenth-century Amsterdam Darryl Cressman, 2016-03-15 When people attend classical music concerts today they sit and listen in silence offering no audible reactions to what they're hearing. We think of that as normal but as Darryl Cressman shows in this book it's the product of a long history of interrelationships between music, social norms and technology. Using the example of Amsterdam's Concertgebouw in the nineteenth century Cressman shows how its design was in part intended to help discipline and educate concert audiences to listen attentively and analysis of its creation and use offers rich insights into sound studies, media history, science and technology studies, classical music and much more. The Reform Advocate, 1911 History of Buchanan County and the City of St. Joseph and Representative Citizens, 1826 to 1904 Christian Ludwig Rutt, 1904 Contemporary Architects Muriel Emanuel, 2016-01-23

The Warburgs Ron Chernow, 2016-11-15 From the Pulitzer Prize winning bestselling author of Alexander Hamilton the inspiration for the hit Broadway musical comes this definitive biography of the Warburgs one of the great German Jewish banking families of the twentieth century. Bankers, philanthropists, scholars, socialites, artists and politicians the Warburgs stood at the pinnacle of German and later of German American Jewry. They forged economic dynasties, built mansions and estates, assembled libraries, endowed charities and advised a German kaiser and two American presidents. But their very success made the Warburgs lightning rods for anti-Semitism and their sense of patriotism became increasingly dangerous in a Germany that had declared Jews the enemy. Ron Chernow's hugely fascinating history is a group portrait of a clan whose members were renowned for their brilliance, culture and personal energy yet tragically vulnerable to the dark and irrational currents of the twentieth century. Building, 1896 Legislative Proposals to Preserve Public Housing United States Congress. Allegory of the Church Calvin Kendall, 2011-11-01 The Allegory of the Church is the first full length study of Romanesque verse inscriptions in the context of church portals and portal sculpture and is the product of a twenty year study. The Jewish Center, 1923 Morphological Research in Planning, Urban Design and Architecture Vítor Oliveira, 2021-02-25 This book is about the relation between scientific research and professional practice on the built environment. The physical form of cities is structured in different elements of urban form. Each of these elements and the way they are combined into distinct patterns is shaped by various agents and processes of change. Planning, urban design and architecture are practice oriented activities that have a significant impact on these elements. Yet this action on the physical form of cities tends to be separated from scientific knowledge on this complex object. In fact, none of these activities is strongly related to urban morphology, the science of urban form. There are many reasons for this gap. One of the reasons is the lack of significant examples of how the bridging process can happen. The book addresses this specific issue. It gathers a number of cases developed in the last years in different geographical contexts from Latin America to Eastern Asia that exemplify how to move from scientific research to professional practice Each case or set of cases is presented in one chapter The first part of each chapter presents the morphological view of his/her author's on the process of city building the second part exemplifies how this author moves from reading to design
