Feminist Visions Of Development Gender Analysis And Policy:

Feminist Visions of Development Cecile Jackson, Ruth Pearson, 2005-07-27 Key issues in gender studies and development today are explored in detail from rural and urban poverty to population and family planning resulting from the 1995 UN Conference on Women

Gender, Development, and Poverty Caroline Sweetman, 2002 This work examines how gender inequalities impact on men's women's and children's experiences of poverty and demonstrates the importance of integrating gender analysis into every aspect of development initiatives

Targeting Development Richard Black, Howard White, 2003-11-20 The Millennium Development Goals accepted by the UN in 2000 are along with the targets set by the OECD in 1996 the subject of this expertly written book Is development achievable in the time frames given How useful were the goals in the first place How far have we come in solving the aching problems of the developing world These questions and

The Ashgate Research Companion to Anthropology Andrew J. Strathern, 2016-03-03 This companion provides an indispensable overview of contemporary and classical issues in social and cultural anthropology Although anthropology has expanded greatly over time in terms of the diversity of topics in which its practitioners engage many of the broad themes and topics at the heart of anthropological thought remain perennially vital such as understanding order and change diversity and continuity and conflict and co operation in the reproduction of social life Bringing together leading scholars in the field the contributors to this volume provide us with thoughtful and fruitful ways of thinking about a number of contemporary and long standing arenas of work where both established and more recent researchers are engaged The companion begins by exploring classic topics such as Religion Rituals Language and Culture Violence and Gender This is followed by a focus on current developments within the discipline including Human Rights Globalization and Diasporas and Cosmopolitanism It provides an interesting and challenging look at the state of current thinking in anthropology serving as a rich resource for scholars and students alike

Crossing Borders in Gender and Culture Konrad Gunesch, Olena Lytovka, Aleksandra Tryniecka, 2018-09-30 While gender issues are almost always multidimensional and complex this book discusses them from a cultural angle and with a focus on crossing borders to represent their concepts meaningfully and to illuminate their realities as sharply as possible Its five parts detail specific aspects and issues within that focus namely communication literary representation equality and violence work and politics and cross cultural connections This combination of a wide topical range with specific discussions of gender issues makes the volume's insights worthwhile for a wide range of readers from individuals and groups engaging with current gender challenges to institutional and political decision makers entrusted with improving gender relations on national or international levels up to social economic or educational institutions empowered to implement such solutions in everyday reality Its unity in diversity contributes to gender and cultural studies by offering considerations and conclusions that are specific and generalizable theoretically robust and empirically tested professionally rational and poetically ravishing

Gender, Asset Accumulation and Just Cities Caroline O.N. Moser, 2015-10-05 With more than half the world's population now living in urban areas urbanisation is undoubtedly one of the most important phenomena of the 21st century However despite increasing recognition of the critical relationship between economic and social development in cities gender issues are often overlooked in understanding the complexities of current urbanisation processes This book seeks to rectify this neglect Gender Asset Accumulation and Just Cities explores the contribution that a focus on the gendered nature of asset accumulation brings to the goal of achieving just more equitable cities To date neither the academic debates nor the formulated policy and practice on just cities has included a focus on gender based inequalities discriminations or opportunities From a gender perspective a separate discourse exists closely associated with gender justice particularly in relation to urban rights and democracy Neither however has addressed the implications for women's accumulation of assets and associated empowerment for transformational pathways to just cities In this book contributors specifically focus on gender and just cities from a wide range of gendered perspectives that include households housing land gender based violence transport climate and disasters

Nationbuilding, Gender and War Crimes in South Asia Bina D'Costa, 2012-07-26 This book gives a detailed political analysis of nationbuilding processes and how these are closely linked to statebuilding and to issues of war crime gender and sexuality and marginalization of minority groups With a focus on the Indian subcontinent the author demonstrates how the state itself is involved in the construction of a gendered identity and how control of women and their sexuality is central to the nationbuilding project She applies a critical feminist approach to two major conflicts in the Indian subcontinent the Partition of India in 1947 and the Liberation War of Bangladesh in 1971 and offers suggestions for addressing historical injustices and war crimes in the context of modern Bangladesh Addressing how the social and political elites were able to construct and legitimize a history of the state that ignored these issues the author suggests a critical re examination of the national narrative of the creation of Bangladesh which takes into account the rise of Islamic rights and their alleged involvement in war crimes Looking at the impact that notions of nation state and nationalism have on women from a critical feminist perspective the book will be an important addition to the literature on gender studies international relations and South Asian politics

Gender and Practice Vasiliki (Vicky) Demos, Marcia Texler Segal, Kristy E. Kelly, 2019-09-30 In Gender and Practice Insights from the Field twelve chapters contribute to the creation of an accessible body of knowledge that looks to provide gender practitioners with examples of what works and what doesn't in the attainment of gender equality

Gender and Agriculture in Turkey Emine Erdogan, 2020-10-15 How have attempts to integrate Turkish agriculture into the global economy impacted rural populations This book reveals the extent to which the increasingly authoritarian political regime in Turkey and the neoliberal economy impacts minority ethnic groups and women The tomato industry in Turkey has the highest export rate amongst fresh and processed fruit and vegetables But Emine Erdogan shows here that global production is gendered relying on the labour of unpaid or poorly paid women and based on a system of what she calls intersectional patriarchy The book is based on participant observation and interviews to foreground the stories of the those involved in production including local rural workers Kurdish seasonal migrant workers women factory workers and factory managers as well as the landowning families This provides a detailed picture of the transformation of rural Turkey and the inequalities of gender class ethnicity and age A detailed ethnographic account the book is unique in providing an intersectional and feminist analysis on processes of capitalization

Handbook of International Relations Walter Carlsnaes, Thomas Risse, Thomas Risse-Kappen, Beth A Simmons, 2002 NEW IN PAPERBACK FEBRUARY 2005 The most systematic and wide ranging survey of the multi faceted field of International Relations yet produced It is sure to become a standard reference work and teaching text and is unlikely to be superseded at any time in the near future It should be considered as essential reading International Affairs The Handbook of International Relations published 2002 in hardback quickly established itself as the benchmark volume providing a state of the art review and indispensable guide to the study of international relations It is now released in paperback in order to be accessible to students in classroom use Divided into three parts the volume reviews both the historical philosophical analytical and normative roots to the discipline and the key contemporary topics of research and debate today The first part introduces the major approaches within the field and unpacks many of the on going debates within the discipline including those between rationalist and constructivist approaches The second part moves on to explore the key concepts and contextual factors important to the subject from concepts like the state and power to international and transnational actors debates around globalization and contending feminist perspectives The final part reviews a number of the key substantive issues in international relations and is designed to complement the analytical tools and perspectives presented in Parts I and II Examples of the many topics included are foreign policy war and peace security nationalism and ethnicity finance trade development the environment and human rights

Gender, Generation and Poverty Sylvia H. Chant, 2007-01-01 The feminisation of poverty is viewed as a global trend and of particular concern in developing regions Yet although popularisation of the term may have raised women s visibility in development discourses and gone some way to en gender policies for poverty reduction the construct is only weakly substantiated This work covers this topic

Legislating Gender and Sexuality in Africa Lydia Boyd, Emily Burrill, 2020-05-26 In recent decades a more formalized and forceful shift has emerged in the legislative realm when it comes to gender and sexual justice in Africa This rigorous timely volume brings together leading and rising scholars across disciplines to evaluate these ideological struggles and reconsider the modern history of human rights on the continent Broad in geographic coverage and topical in scope chapters investigate such subjects as marriage legislation in Mali family violence experienced by West African refugees sex education in Uganda and statutes criminalizing homosexuality in Senegal These case studies highlight the nuances and contradictions in the varied ways key actors make arguments for or against rights They also explore how individual countries draft and implement laws that attempt to address the underlying problems Legislating Gender and Sexuality in Africa details how legal efforts in the continent can often be moralizing enterprises illuminating how these processes are closely tied to notions of ethics personhood and citizenship The contributors provide new appraisals of recent events with fresh arguments about the relationships between local and global fights for rights This interdisciplinary approach will appeal to scholars in African studies anthropology history and gender studies

Gender in Agriculture Agnes R. Quisumbing, Ruth Meinzen-Dick, Terri L. Raney, André Croppenstedt, Julia A. Behrman, Amber Peterman, 2014-04-29 The Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations FAO produced a 2011 report on women in agriculture with a clear and urgent message agriculture underperforms because half of all farmers women lack equal access to the resources and opportunities they need to be more productive This book builds on the report's conclusions by providing for a non specialist audience a compendium of what we know now about gender gaps in agriculture

Political Language and Metaphor Terrell Carver, Jernej Pikalo, 2008-03-04 This book is the first to develop new methodological approaches to understand and analyze the use of metaphor in political science and international relations

Handbook on the International Political Economy of Gender Juanita Elias, Adrienne Roberts, 2018-02-23 This Handbook brings together leading interdisciplinary scholarship on the gendered nature of the international political economy Spanning a wide range of theoretical traditions and empirical foci it explores the multifaceted ways in which gender relations constitute and are shaped by global politico economic processes It further interrogates the gendered ideologies and discourses that underpin everyday practices from the local to the global The chapters in this collection identify analyse critique and challenge gender based inequalities whilst also highlighting the intersectional nature of gendered oppressions in the contemporary world order

Mainstreaming Men Into Gender and Development Sylvia H. Chant, Matthew C. Gutmann, 2000 Based on research commissioned by the World Bank this book's primary focus is on incorporating men in gender and development interventions at the grass roots level It draws attention to some of the key problems that have arisen from male exclusion as well as to the potential benefits of and obstacles to men's inclusion

The Routledge Handbook of Feminist Economics Günseli Berik, Ebru Kongar, 2021-05-23 The Routledge Handbook of Feminist Economics presents a comprehensive overview of the contributions of feminist economics to the discipline of economics and beyond Each chapter situates the topic within the history of the field reflects upon current debates and looks forward to identify cutting edge research Consistent with feminist economics goal of strong objectivity this Handbook compiles contributions from different traditions in feminist economics including but not limited to Marxian political economy institutionalist economics ecological economics and neoclassical economics and from different disciplines such as economics philosophy and political science The Handbook delineates the social provisioning methodology and highlights its insights for the development of feminist economics The contributors are a diverse mix of established and rising scholars of feminist economics from around the globe who skilfully frame the current state and future direction of feminist economic scholarship This carefully crafted volume will be an essential resource for researchers and instructors of feminist economics

Gender and Social Equity in Primary Education Vimala Ramachandran, 2004-08-19 In recent years India has made impressive strides in increasing literacy rates and in enabling access to education The country now seems well set to provide universal and good quality basic education Yet behind this otherwise rosy picture lie serious concerns relating primarily to gender and equity This volume provides an insightful understanding of the ground realities of primary education programmes particularly those run by the District Primary Education Programme DPEP Combining secondary research with field studies conducted in six states the contributors explore gender and social equity issues in primary education They conclude that there is a subtle but nevertheless discernible hierarchy of access to education which has resulted in new forms of segregation in primary schools
