Feminists Doing Development:

Feminists Doing Development Marilyn Porter, Ellen R. Judd, 1999 Has feminism transformed development studies What happens to feminist theory and practice within the development industry This book brings together a variety of feminist activists and academics from both North and South engaged in development to answer these questions Each describes her project and its feminist rationale and analyses it through three fundamental challenges the problem of making a feminist agenda work within development agencies including the difficulties of finding funding and the constraints imposed by funders the ethical and methodological issues raised by feminism including the differences between women and the legitimacy of studying the Other the challenge of international feminism looking for new ways to work together for global change without imposing Western feminism on Southern women Including feminist projects from the South in the North the book explores how global feminism actually works in a variety of ways through both activism and academic research It is a fascinating insight into the challenges and rewards of feminist theory in practice As such it is necessary reading for practitioners policy makers activists and academics in gender and development as well as all students and academics of women's studies

Feminists Doing Ethics Peggy DesAutels, Joanne Waugh, 2001-09-10 Feminists Doing Ethics is the debut title in the new Rowman Littlefield series Feminist Constructions In this thoughtful collection contributors refashion essays from the international conference on feminist ethics Feminist Ethics Revisited October 1999 with an aim to critique social practice and develop an ethics of universal justice The essays in this exciting volume explore the intricacies and impact of reasoned moral action the virtues of character and the empowering responsibility that morality generates Feminists Doing Ethics brings to light concepts and ideas that are intended to extend our understanding of morality and of ourselves

Neoliberalism and Globalization in Africa J. Mensah, 2008-12-08 This book looks at Africa's involvement in contemporary neoliberal globalization paying particular attention to the social economic political and cultural cost of the unbalanced structure of global wealth and power between Africa and the rest of the world

Feminist Perspectives on Sociology Barbara Littlewood, 2016-09-17 The Feminist Perspectives Series seeks to provide concise accessible and engaging introductions to key feminist topics and debates The texts in the series are designed to be used on a wide range of courses touching feminist issues and are written by experienced teachers who are also well known in their respective fields Each book in the series includes the most up to date statistics research data key sources and suggestions for further reading Feminist Perspectives on Sociology examines how sociology has been transformed under the influence of feminism in recent years This transformation consists both of a critique of established areas and the opening up of new ones Areas and issues covered include approaches to knowledge and research patriarchal relations work in and outside the home body politics sport and fitness migration violence the state and globalisation The book also reviews a range of post perspectives and arguments including postmodernism postcolonialism and postfeminism Feminism is also a transformative social movement

Its political impact from local to transnational levels has to be taken into account in assessing developments in sociology providing it with a connection between research and action Key features Provides a comprehensive and accessible introduction to feminist perspectives in sociology Discusses and assesses sociological and feminist theories in relation to case studies Covers a wide range of current issues that will interest readers from many disciplinary backgrounds Includes end of chapter summaries suggestions for further reading and a glossary of key terms Barbara Littlewood is Lecturer in Sociology University of Glasgow

Women's Faith Development Nicola Slee, 2021-11-18 Presenting a rich account of women s faith lives and mapping women s meanings in their own right this book offers an alternative to dominant accounts of faith development which failed to account for women s experience Drawing on Fowler s faith development theory feminist models of women s faith and social science methodology the text explores the patterns and processes of women s faith development and spirituality in a group of thirty women belonging to or on the edges of Christian tradition Integrating practical theological concern with Christian education and pastoral practice this book will be of interest to all concerned with women s faith development spirituality education and formation and those working in the fields of practical theology pastoral care adult theological education spiritual direction and counselling

Indonesian Women in a Changing Society E. Kristi Poerwandari, 2005 Guatemaltecas Susan A. Berger, 2021 After thirty years of military rule and state sponsored violence Guatemala reinstated civilian control and began rebuilding democratic institutions in 1986 Responding to these changes Guatemalan women began organizing to gain an active role in the national body politic and restructure traditional relations of power and gender This pioneering study examines the formation and evolution of the Guatemalan women s movement and assesses how it has been affected by and has in turn affected the forces of democratization and globalization that have transformed much of the developing world Susan Berger pursues three hypotheses in her study of the women s movement She argues that neoliberal democratization has led to the institutionalization of the women s movement and has encouraged it to turn from protest politics to policy work and to helping the state impose its neoliberal agenda She also asserts that while the influences of dominant global discourses are apparent local definitions of femininity sexuality and gender equity and rights have been critical to shaping the form content and objectives of the women s movement in Guatemala And she identifies a counter discourse to globalization that is slowly emerging within the movement Berger's findings vigorously reveal the manifold complexities that have attended the development of the Guatemalan women's movement Feminist Thought, Student Economy Edition Rosemarie Tong, 2018-10-03 This book provides a clear comprehensive and incisive introduction to the major traditions of feminist theory from liberal feminism radical feminism and Marxist and socialist feminism to care focused feminism psychoanalytic feminism women of color feminisms and ecofeminism Women, the Environment and Sustainable Development Rosi Braidotti, International Research and Training Institute for the Advancement of Women, 1994 There is a widespread perception that the development process is in a state of multiple crisis While the notion of sustainable development is supposed to address adequately its environmental dimensions there is still no agreed framework relating women to this new perspective This book is an attempt to present and disentangle the various positions put forward by major actors and to clarify the political and theoretical issues that are at stake in the debates on women the environment and sustainable development Among the current critiques of the western model of development which the authors review are the feminist analysis of Science itself and the power relations inherent in the production of knowledge Women Environment and Development WED Alternative Development Environmental Reformism and Deep Ecology Social Ecology and Ecofeminism In traversing this important landscape of ideas they show how they criticise the dominant developmental model at the various levels of epistemology theory and policy The authors also go further and put forward their own ideas as to the basic elements they consider necessary in constructing a paradigmatic shift emphasising such values as holism mutuality justice autonomy self reliance sustainability and peace This unique work is a signally useful contribution to clarifying thinking on a topic with immense implications for all women Publisher's description Postsecular Feminisms Nandini Deo, 2018-07-26 Postsecular Feminisms explores the contested relationship between feminism and secularism through a series of case studies featuring perspectives from the global North and South It offers insights beyond those of the Abrahamic traditions and includes multiple examples from South Asia By decentering the European experience Postsecular Feminisms shows how secularism and feminism have been constituted in North America South Asia and Anglophone West Africa The book asks can postsecular feminism offer a way to think about religion and gender so as to support women in all the variety of their lived experiences The contributors show that postsecular feminism is a variety of feminism that is not necessarily either secularist or anti secular Rather it is feminism informed by a history of secularist bias within liberal feminism Postsecular Feminisms explores both the potentials and pitfalls of postsecular feminisms with some authors arguing that a contextually grounded praxis is possible while others make a strong case against postsecular feminism as theory and practice The Future of Women's Rights Joanna Kerr, Ellen Sprenger, Alison Symington, 2004-09 The Future of Women's Rights identifies the emergence of various trends threatening the advance of gender equality women's human rights and sustainable human development These phenomena include the impacts of globalization and neoliberal economics developments in biotechnology the neo conservative backlash against women's rights monopolistic ownership patterns over information technologies the rise of identity politics marginalizing women's issues and the increase in violent conflict and war The contributors to this volume are united in seeing a pressing need for women's movements to evaluate their methods with a view to making their future political work more effective They identify current issues and trends in the world thinking through how these may impact women and the work of women's movements

Feminist Thought Rosemarie Putnam Tong, 2013-07-09 A classic resource on feminist theory Feminist Thought offers a clear comprehensive and incisive introduction to the major traditions of feminist theory from liberal feminism radical feminism and Marxist and socialist feminism to care focused feminism psychoanalytic feminism and ecofeminism The fifth edition has been thoroughly revised and now includes a new chapter on Third Wave and Third Space Feminism Also added to this edition are significantly expanded discussions on women of color feminisms psychoanalytic and care feminisms as well as new examinations of queer theory LGBTQ and trans feminism Learning tools like end of chapter discussion questions and the bibliography make Feminist Thought an essential resource for students and thinkers who want to understand the theoretical origins and complexities of contemporary feminist debates

The Women, Gender and Development Reader Nalini Visvanathan, Lynn Duggan, Nan Wiegersma, Laurie Nisonoff, 2011-07-07 The Women Gender and Development Reader is the definitive volume of literature dedicated to women in the development process Now in a fully revised second edition the editors expertly present the impacts of social political and economic change by reviewing such topical issues as migration persistent structural discrimination the global recession and climate change Approached from a multidisciplinary perspective the theoretical debates are vividly illustrated by an array of global case studies This now classic book has been designed as a comprehensive reader presenting the best of the now vast body of literature The book is divided into five parts incorporating readings from the leading experts and authorities in each field The result is a unique and extensive discussion a guide to the evolution of the field and a vital point of reference for those studying or with a keen interest in women in the development process

Making Development Geography Victoria Lawson, 2014-03-18 Making Development Geography is a timely new book which introduces readers to the major themes and debates in development geography It argues cogently that the field is engaged in an ongoing process of reinventing itself as critical development geography and highlights issues such as identity globalization social movements and sexuality Readers are guided through the key concepts and developments of the last 50 years surveying the themes of Keynesianism Marxism and post colonialism At the same time each chapter uses international examples to discuss important contemporary issues so that the real world applications of theory can be understood This enlightening book offers a comprehensive introduction to the fundamental debates for anyone with an interest in development issues Scholars, Policymakers, and International Affairs Abraham F. Lowenthal, Mariano E. Bertucci, 2014-11-24 How to strengthen both academic research and international policies by improving the connections between scholars and policymakers Scholars Policymakers and International Affairs shows how to build mutually beneficial connections between the worlds of ideas and action analysis and policy Drawing on contributions from top international scholars with policy experience in the United States Europe Asia Canada and Latin America as well as senior policymakers throughout the Americas Abraham F Lowenthal and Mariano E Bertucci make the case that scholars can both strengthen their research and contribute to improved policies while protecting academia from the risks of active participation in the policy process Many scholars believe that policymakers are more interested in processes and outcomes than in understanding causality Many policymakers believe that scholars are absorbed in abstract and self referential debates and that they are primarily interested in crafting theories and impressing other scholars rather than developing solutions to pressing policy issues The contributors to this book confront this gap head on They do not deny the obstacles to fruitful interaction between scholars and policymakers but drawing on their own experience discuss how these obstacles can be and have been overcome They present case studies that illustrate how scholars have helped reduce income inequality promote democratic governance improve gender equity target international financial sanctions manage the Mexico U S border and enhance inter American cooperation These success stories are balanced by studies on why academic analysts have failed to achieve much positive impact on counternarcotics and citizen security policies The editors astute conclusion identifies best practices and provides concrete recommendations to government agencies international institutions nongovernmental organizations and funding sources as well as to senior university officials academic departments and centers think tanks established scholars junior faculty and graduate students Clearly written and thoughtfully organized this innovative book provides analytic insights and practical wisdom for those who want to understand how to build more effective connections between the worlds of thought and action Mapping Women, Making Politics Lynn Staeheli, Eleonore Kofman, Linda Peake, 2013-03-07 Mapping Women Making Politics demonstrates the multiple ways in which gender influences political processes and the politics of space The book begins by addressing feminism s theoretical and conceptual challenges to traditional political geography and then applies these perspectives to a range of settings and topics including nationalism migration development international relations elections social movements governance and the environment in the Global North and South Women, Work, and Gender Relations in Developing Countries Claire Bélanger, Parvin Ghorayshi, 1996-10-21 The chapters in this collection are based on qualitative fieldwork studies and collectively offer the reader a perspective on women work and gender relations that is at once multidisciplinary and feminist Women s work in the household agriculture industry and in the so called informal sector is explored with a concern for the ways in which gender class and ethnicity are constructed by the larger socioeconomic structures in which women live By taking concrete analyses of women s lives as their point of departure the contributors to this volume strive to bridge the gap between socio economic structure of the society and the actual circumstances in which women find themselves In this way readers and scholars alike are better able to untangle the complex dynamics of gender relations and to develop strategies for social change
