Britain became an island eight millennia ago generations of immigrants have made their home here in Albion creating their own stories which have become part of the richly stocked treasury of British folklore Some are strange some are sad some are exciting some are scary many are silly and at least two are totally daft Brother Bernard retells these restored tales with devotion to the ancient legends but with a fresh eye and added anarchic vim to be enjoyed anew Memoirs of Many in One Patrick White,2019-06-04 An essential late novel from one of the foremost novelists of the twentieth century now a part of the Text Classics series Australia ,2010 Each information packed page is splashed with enticing photographs of the people animals deserts and ocean vistas that make the country Down Under famous the world over Full color maps and at a glance tables make it easy to sort through dining and accommodation choices Artful Histories David McCooey,1996 An important contribution to our understanding of autobiography its history and the Australian experience “Through the long corridor of distance” Valérie Baisnée,2014-08-01 Examined in this study are twentieth and twenty first century autobiographies and memoirs by major New Zealand women writers Brought together for the first time in a single study texts by Sylvia Ashton Warner Janet Frame Lauris Edmond Fiona Kidman Barbara Anderson Ruth Park and Ruth Dallas are analysed with the aid of spatial concepts that probe unexplored aspects of their life narratives Drawing on recent and revised concepts of place and space in cultural geography philosophy and sociology the book acknowledges the link between identities and locations in a non essentialist way by pinpointing the various forms of inhabiting and being in space It refutes the idea of autobiographies as pure self referential texts and shows how these works deploy their own horizon of reference Valérie Baisnée is currently a Senior Lecturer in English at the University of Paris Sud She holds a PhD in English from the University of Auckland New Zealand Her research interests include the personal writings and poetry of twentieth century women with a particular focus on New Zealand women writers She has contributed to several published books and journals on women's autobiographies and diaries and she is the author of Gendered Resistance The Autobiographies of Simone de Beauvoir Maya Angelou Janet Frame and Marguerite Duras 1997 A Dutiful Daughter Thomas Keneally,2019-04-02 Australian literature's strangest novel written by its most familiar novelist Terry Jones' Medieval Lives Alan Ereira,Terry Jones,2009-05-27 Was medieval England full of knights on horseback rescuing fainting damsels in distress Were the Middle Ages mired in superstition and ignorance Why does nobody ever mention King Louis the First and Last And of course those key questions which monks were forbidden the delights of donning underpants and did outlaws never wear trousers Terry Jones and Alan Ereira are your guides to this most misrepresented and misunderstood period and they point you to things that will surprise and provoke Did you know for example that medieval people didn't think the world was flat That was a total fabrication by an American journalist in the 19th century Did you know that they didn't burn witches in the Middle Ages That was a refinement of the so called Renaissance In fact medieval kings weren't necessarily merciless tyrants and peasants entertained at home using French pottery and fine wine Terry Jones Medieval Lives reveals Medieval Britain as you have never seen it before a vibrant society teeming with individuality intrigue and innovation The Fabric of Welfare

Margaret Tennant,2007 Throughout history the welfare of the people has been a contested area Is it the responsibility of the state The churches The extended family Organised charities or informal community groups The Fabric of Welfare is about the many points of contact between voluntary welfare and government social services and the complex pattern woven by these different threads The country s welfare history is shaped by its colonial past with the predominantly British influences transmitted by an immigrant society in the nineteenth century by its Maori population with a strong communal ethos by the shaping forces of the welfare state by two world wars and economic depression and by both free market policies and rapid social change in recent years In tracing the interdependence of state and voluntary provision of welfare from 1840 to 2005 Margaret Tennant offers new perspectives on New Zealand social history This is a rigorous analysis but it is also a history illuminated by people The text is illustrated with stories about the people who were moved to save to reform to care to support and the people who needed that essential sustenance From the nun who sees a distraught woman about to throw her child into the sea and sets out to care for foundlings to city missionaries community minded public servants businessmen philanthropists and the entrepreneurial organisers of floral fetes and telethons these accounts tell us much about the history of welfare in all its interconnections Embodied Geographies Elizabeth Kenworthy Teather,2005-06-23 Embodied

Geographies provides a comprehensive account of different types of life crises which develop our identities and affect how we live our lives Chapters focus on pregnancy childbirth teenagers and parenthood migration the threat and reality of violence illness and disability bereavement the ensuing family responsibilities and death itself It includes case studies from the UK Australia New Zealand Singapore Hong Kong Canada and the USA Picking Up the Traces Lawrence Jones,2003

The story of the generation of New Zealand writers who came of age in the 1930s and who deliberately and decisively changed the course of literature is told in this book shedding important new light on the key participants including Allen Curnow Denis Glover and Robin Hyde The movement is traced through small circulation magazines and small press publications from 1932 to 1941 The repudiations and loyalties by which the movement defined itself are explored including its opposition to the literary establishment and to late Georgian verse its naming of its precursors and allies from the 1920s and its choice of overseas models such as the British Moderns and the new American short story writers for the creation of a new literature oppose the cultural myths supported by the literary establishment and the writers responses to the world wide social upheavals of the period the Depression the international crises of 1935 to 1939 and World War II
