The Magic Lantern Jose Tomas de Cuellar,2000-11-16 Jos Tomas de Cuellar 1830 1894 was a Mexican writer noted for his sharp sense of humor and gift for caricature Having a Ball and Christmas Eve are two novellas written in the costumbrista style made popular in the mid nineteenth century by the periodical press in which these sketches of contemporary manners were first published The stories are a sensitive reflection of the effects of modernization brought by an authoritarian regime dedicated to order and progress Christmas Eve describes a volatile middle class in which people pursue pleasure and entertainment without regard to morality Having a Ball depicts women and their dedication to fashion It is through them that Cuellar examines a society susceptible to foreign values the importation of which radically altered the face of Mexico and its traditional customs

Priestess, Mother, Sacred Sister Susan Starr Sered,1996-04-11 Religion is often denounced as one of the tools used by patriarchal societies to maintain the status quo and especially to persuade women to accept subordinate roles This does not explain however the existence of many religious groups in which women are both leaders and the majority of participants How are these women s religions different from those dominated by men What can we learn from them about the special ways in which women experience their unique reality In this fascinating and pathbreaking work the first comparative study of women s religions Susan Starr Sered seeks answers to these compelling questions Looking for common threads linking groups as diverse as the ancestral cults of the Black Caribs of Belize Korean shamanism Christian Science and the Feminist Spirituality movement Sered finds that motherhood and motherly concerns play a vital role in these female dominated groups Nurturing and concern for others are at the center as are healing arts and ways of dealing with illness and the death of children Religion not only enables women to find sacred meaning in their daily lives from the preparation of food to caring for their families but an offer intense and personal relationships with deities and spirits often through ecstatic possession trance as well as opportunities to celebrate and mourn with other women By examining the shared experiences of women across great cultural divides Priestess Mother Sacred Sister offers a new understanding of the role gender plays in determining how individuals grapple with the ultimate questions of existence In the process it not only highlights the profound differences between men and women but the equally important ways in which we are all alike

Institutions And Gender Empowerment In The Global Economy Kartik C Roy,Cal Clark,Hans C Blomqvist,2008-06-16 Since women account for almost 50 percent of the world s population the sustainability of development of the global economy can be greatly impaired if the state authorities in individual countries pay less attention to the improvement in the socio economic status of women relative to men Improvement in socio economic status which facilitates empowerment of individuals is greatly dependent on conducive informal institutions and state institutions This book is the first of its kind to critically examine the role of these institutions in women s empowerment in five continents in the world The analysis of the role of institutions in individual countries is underpinned by a robust theoretical background presented in the first three chapters The chapters on individual countries also include a section dealing with recommendations for changes in state policies affecting women s empowerment
