

Forgotten Language

Once I spoke the language of the flowers,
Once I understood each word the caterpillar said,
Once I smiled in secret at the gossip of the starlings,
And shared a conversation with the housefly in my bed.

Once I heard and answered all the questions of the crickets,
And joined the crying of each falling dying
flake of snow,

Once I spoke the language of the flowers. . . .
How did it go?
How did it go?

Small-Language Fates and Prospects Nancy Dorian,2014-05-22 In Small language Fates and Prospects Nancy C Dorian gathers findings from decades of documenting an endangered Scottish Gaelic dialect presenting detailed evidence of contraction and loss but also recording a positive role for imperfect speakers Retention of language skills undervalued by linguists but positively viewed by the community has supported the survival of local Gaelic English bilingualism well beyond early predictions Nonetheless potent factors that threaten small language survival everywhere have also operated here Negative social attitudes towards the minority population loss of a traditional occupation the increasing impact of majority culture ideologies are recurrent phenomena in small language settings Maintenance or revitalization efforts pose special challenges under these circumstances as does fieldwork itself when adverse sociohistorical forces have left very few fluent speakers

Artful Leadership Michael Jones,2006-05-31 As an accomplished musician and composer Michael Jones brings a unique sensibility to the subject of leadership While other writers address style process and leadership issues Michael illuminates the deep parallels between leadership and the creative process Peter M Senge author of The 5th Discipline Founding Chair SoL The Society for Organizational Learning Senior Lecturer and MIT Sloan School of Management In the future we need to envision a new leadership story one that involves a transformation in awareness from performance to presence from uniformity to uniqueness from abstraction to beauty from efficiency to improvisation and from instrumentality to the expressive power of story and voice Together they awaken a commons of the imagination a collective field of possibility that transforms our mechanistic view of the world to a more sustainable and transcendent vision that is creative organic and whole The primary purpose of Artful Leadership is to explore these fundamental shifts in awareness in the context of cultivating a mind that is more subtle refined undefinable and free flowing a mind that can perceive underlying patterns of meaning and therefore offer a portal for creating new understandings in an interconnected world Michael Jones explores this journey of awakening in the form of a series of conversations with John a successful senior leader who is searching for greater meaning and purpose in his work As the conversation unfolds it becomes clear that this journey cannot be achieved alone Instead leaders will need to come together to reclaim the commons a space of wholeness and possibility in the personal and public imagination in order to explore the less tangible dimensions of leadership as preparation for engaging a more complex and changeable world In this original and thought provoking book Michael Jones foresees a renaissance in leadership practice one based upon mindful attention authentic inquiry an aliveness to the artistic creation and an abundant curiosity for exploring whatever is fresh and new

The Saint Louis Courier of Medicine ,1890 Chinese Theories of

Reading and Writing Ming Dong Gu, 2012-02-01 This ambitious work provides a systematic study of Chinese theories of reading and writing in intellectual thought and critical practice The author maintains that there are two major hermeneutic traditions in Chinese literature the politico moralistic mainstream and the metaphysico aesthetical undercurrent In exploring the interaction between the two Ming Dong Gu finds a movement toward interpretive openness In this the Chinese practice anticipates modern and Western theories of interpretation especially literary openness and open poetics Classic Chinese works are examined including the Zhouyi the I Ching or Book of Changes the Shijing the Book of Songs or Book of Poetry and selected poetry along with the philosophical background of the hermeneutic theories Ultimately Gu relates the Chinese practices of reading to Western hermeneutics offering a cross cultural conceptual model for the comparative study of reading and writing in general

English as a Language of Teaching and Learning for Community Secondary Schools in Tanzania Elia Shabani Mligo,Mikael Mwashilindi,2017-08-07 This book examines the challenges posed by English a foreign language as a language of teaching and learning for community secondary schools in Tanzania in terms of academic performance The book probes the necessity for having two languages of instruction in the Tanzanian educational system While Kiswahili the native language is predominantly understood by the majority of people the discussion in this book indicates that most students in community secondary schools in Tanzania are incompetent in understanding writing listening reading and speaking English a language they use in learning and doing their examinations especially in the early stages of their secondary studies The incompetence in the above mentioned skills is mostly caused by their inability to cope with the abrupt transition in the languages of instruction from their pre primary and primary school study Kiswahili to secondary school study English Moreover most teachers are unable to use the English language as a means to impart knowledge or facilitate learning to their students leading them to code switching and code mixing This book poses a challenge to countries whose students pass through a transition from one language of instruction to another in their educational systems helping them to make appropriate decisions in regard to the appropriate language of teaching and learning
