Theology as Performance Philip Stoltzfus,2006-06-05 Theology as Performance breaks new ground in the growing conversation between modern theology and philosophical aesthetics Stoltzfus proposes that significant moments in the Western development of the concept of God in particular as represented in the figures of Friedrich Schleiermacher Karl Barth and Ludwig Wittgenstein have been deeply influenced by concepts and approaches borrowed from the discipline of musical aesthetics Each thinker develops fundamentally different ways of writing about God that have in significant respects been derived from each one s reading and writing about music The aesthetic implications of Schleiermacher s so called subjectivist turn Barth s objectivist reaction and Wittgenstein s language game pragmatism can thus be fully understood only by attending to the musical culture and distinctly musicological discourses that gave rise to them Stoltzfus constructs two trajectories of thought with which to trace theological reflection upon music throughout the pre modern period the traditions of Orpheus and Pythagoras Schleiermacher s aesthetic approach then becomes a modern representative of the Orpheus trajectory and Barth s approach a representative of the Pythagoras trajectory Stoltzfus interprets Wittgenstein as putting forward a radical critique of these trajectories and pointing toward a third performative theological aesthetic method Theology as Performance offers a provocative rethinking of the aesthetic roots of modern theology Competency-Based Performance Reviews Robin Kessler,2009-04-02 Competency Based Performance Reviews offers you a new and more effective way to handle performance reviews and to coach your employees to emphasize the knowledge skills and abilities
