Canada's Residential Schools: The History, Part 1, Origins to 1939 Commission de vérité et réconciliation du Canada, 2016-01-01 Between 1867 and 2000 the Canadian government sent over 150 000 Aboriginal children to residential schools across the country Government officials and missionaries agreed that in order to civilize and Christianize Aboriginal children it was necessary to separate them from their parents and their home communities For children life in these schools was lonely and alien Discipline was harsh and daily life was highly regimented Aboriginal languages and cultures were denigrated and suppressed Education and technical training too often gave way to the drudgery of doing the chores necessary to make the schools self sustaining Child neglect was institutionalized and the lack of supervision created situations where students were prey to sexual and physical abusers Legal action by the schools former students led to the creation of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada in 2008 The product of over six years of research the Commission's final report outlines the history and legacy of the schools and charts a pathway towards reconciliation Canada's Residential Schools The History Part 1 Origins to 1939 places Canada's residential school system in the historical context of European campaigns to colonize and convert Indigenous people throughout the world In post Confederation Canada the government adopted what amounted to a policy of cultural genocide suppressing spiritual practices disrupting traditional economies and imposing new forms of government Residential schooling quickly became a central element in this policy The destructive intent of the schools was compounded by chronic underfunding and ongoing conflict between the federal government and the church missionary societies that had been given responsibility for their day to day operation A failure of leadership and resources meant that the schools failed to control the tuberculosis crisis that gripped the schools for much of this period Alarmed by high death rates Aboriginal parents often refused to send their children to the schools leading the government adopt ever more coercive attendance regulations While parents became subject to ever more punitive regulations the government did little to regulate discipline diet fire safety or sanitation at the schools By the period s end the government was presiding over a nation wide series of firetraps that had no clear educational goals and were economically dependent on the unpaid labour of underfed and often sickly children Illustrated History of Canada's Native People, Fourth Edition Arthur J. Ray,2016-05-01 Canada s Native people have inhabited this land since the Ice Age and were already accomplished traders artisans farmers and marine hunters when Europeans first reached their shores Contact between Natives and European explorers and settlers initially presented an unprecedented period of growth and opportunity But the two vastly different cultures soon clashed Arthur Ray charts the history of Canada s Native people from first contact to current land claims The result is a fascinating chronicle that spans 12 000 years and culminates in the headlines of today In the preface to this new edition Ray elaborates on the increasing effectiveness of Indigenous peoples and their leaders in bringing demands for justice to centre stage He discusses recent court decisions the final report of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada and the hope for change following promises made by the new Trudeau government dynamic fur trade era and examines its evolution through reserve selection and settlement scrip distribution and the participation of Natives in the new resource industries of commercial fishing transportation lumbering and mining His analysis clearly shows that Native people in northern Manitoba responded to the challenge of an expanding market economy in rational and enterprising ways but that they were repeatedly obstructed by government policy Numerous interpretive maps figures and illustrations provide indispensable aids to Tough's argument His book will be essential reading for anyone interested in the history of western Canada and the role of Native people in the post fur trade era Our Bit of Truth Agnes Grant, 1990 This anthology of Indian and Metis writing in Canada in the twentieth century includes genre ranging from traditional myths legends and poetry to memoirs biography and contemporary literature Immigrants in Prairie Cities Royden Loewen, Gerald Friesen, 2009-01-01 In Immigrants in Prairie Cities Royden Loewen and Gerald Friesen analyze the processes of cultural interaction and adaptation that unfolded in these urban centres and describe how this model of diversity has changed over time Kelly's Oxford directory, with Abingdon, Woodstock and neighbourhood [afterw.] Kelly's directory of Oxford, Abingdon, Woodstock and neighbourhood Kelly's directories, Ltd, 1903 The Gentleman's Magazine, 1846 Gentleman's Magazine and Historical Review, 1846 The Gentleman's magazine section is a digest of selections from the weekly press the Trader's monthly intelligencer section consists of news foreign and domestic vital statistics a register of the month's new publications and a calendar of forthcoming trade fairs Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson, L.W.
