Literary Mind:

From Mind to Text Bartosz Stopel, 2017-10-30 From Mind to Text Continuities and Breaks Between Cognitive Aesthetic and Textualist Approaches to Literature explores the historical context of theory formation and of its contemporary status including an overview of debates about theory's role in literary studies provided both by representatives of theory itself as well as by those who distance themselves from it. Autobiography Rudolf Steiner, 2006-05 4 lectures Dornach June 28 July 18 1923 CW 350 Truth and striving for truth must taste good to you and lies once you are conscious of them must taste bitter and poisonous You must not only know that human judgments have color but also that printer's ink nowadays is mostly deadly nightshade juice You must be able to experience this in all honesty and rectitude and once you can do so you will be in a state of spiritual transformation Rudolf Steiner What is the relationship between coming to see the secrets of the universe and one's own view of the world How far must one go before finding the higher worlds on the path of natural science Do cosmic forces influence all of humanity What connection do plants have with the human being and the human body In answering these questions Steiner covers a wide range of topics from the development of independent thinking and the ability to think backward to the uses of what seems boring and the reversal of thinking between the physical and spiritual worlds and from the physiology of dreams to living into nature and the spiritual dimension of various foods we eat As always in his lectures to the workers Steiner's style is clear direct and accessible This volume is a translation from German of four lectures from Rhythmen im Kosmos und im Menschenwesen Wie kommt man zum Schauen der geistigen Welt GA 350

Health and the Art of Living Antje Richter, 2025-08-22 Health and the Art of Living offers reflections on health and illness in early medieval Chinese literature ca 200 ca 600 through a range of literary sources essays prefaces correspondence religious scriptures and poetry including works by Liu Xie and Xie Lingyun. Mindful Aesthetics Chris Danta, Helen Groth, 2013-11-07 In the last few decades literary critics have increasingly drawn insights from cognitive neuroscience to deepen and clarify our understanding of literary representations of mind This cognitive turn has been equally generative and contentious While cognitive literary studies has reinforced how central the concept of mind is to aesthetic practice from the classical period to the present critics have questioned its literalism and selective borrowing of scientific authority Mindful Aesthetics presents both these perspectives as part of a broader consideration of the ongoing and vital importance of shifting concepts of mind to both literary and critical practice This collection contributes to the forging of a new interdisciplinarity to paraphrase Alan Richardson's recent preface to the Neural Sublime that is more concerned with addressing how rather than why we should navigate the increasingly narrow gap between the humanities and the sciences 文学与科学, 2019-03-10 3 7 3. On Sympathy Sophie Ratcliffe, 2008-05-15 Taking Shakespeare as its starting point this book examines why and how we read poetry how we relate to fictional characters and whether reading is good for you It also focuses on key works by Browning Auden and Beckett and concludes with a critique of contemporary ideas about art sympathy and community

????? John Minford, Joseph S. M. Lau, 2000 Presents translations of two thousand years of Chinese literature from its beginnings to the Tang Dynasty in the tenth century A Cognitive Approach to Ernest Hemingway's Short Fiction Gabriela Tucan, 2021-04-09 How do readers make sense of Hemingway's short stories How is it possible that the camera like quality of his narrative can appeal to our senses and arouse our emotions How does it capture us With reserved narrators and protagonists engaged in laconic dialogs his texts do not seem to say much This book consciously revisits our responses to the Hemingway story a belated response to his invitation to discover what lies beneath the surface of his iceberg What this pioneering critical endeavor seeks to understand is the thinking required in reading Hemingway's short fiction It proposes a cognitively informed model of reading which questions the resources of the reader's imaginative powers The cognitive demonstrations here are designed to have potentially larger implications for the short story's general mode of knowing Drawing from both cognitively oriented poetics and narratology in equal measure this book explains what structures our interaction with literary texts Chinese Aesthetics Zongqi Cai, 2004-01-01 This singular work presents the most comprehensive and nuanced study available in any Western language of Chinese aesthetic thought and practice during the Six Dynasties A.D. 220-589 Despite a succession of dynastic and social upheavals the literati preoccupied themselves with both the sensuous and the transcendent and strove for cultural dominance By the end of the sixth century their reflections would evolve into a sophisticated system of aesthetic discourse characterized by its own rhetoric and concepts Chinese Aesthetics will fill a gap in Western sinological studies of the period It will appeal to scholars and students in premodern Chinese literary studies comparative aesthetics and cultural studies and will be a welcome reference to anyone interested in ancient Chinese culture BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved conditions that impede the creation of art Plus essays from Tiphonie Yanique Xiaolu Guo Jamil Jan Kochai Vida Cruz Borja Femi Kayode Nadifa Mohamed in conversation with Leila Aboulela and Sharlene Teo The start of a more inclusive conversation about storytelling Letters to a Writer of Color will be a touchstone for aspiring and working writers and for curious readers everywhere

Dao and Sign in History Daniel Fried, 2018-10-29 Provides a new perspective on important linguistic issues in philosophical and religious Daoism through the comparative lens of twentieth century European philosophies of language From its earliest origins in the Dao De Jing Daoism has been known as a movement that is skeptical of the ability of language to fully express the truth While many scholars have compared the earliest works of Daoism to language skeptical movements in twentieth century European philosophy and have debated to what degree early Daoism does or does not resemble these recent movements Daniel Fried breaks new ground by examining a much broader array of Daoist materials from ancient and medieval China and showing how these works influenced ideas about language in medieval religion literature and politics Through an extended comparison with a broad sample of European philosophical works the book explores how ideas about language grow out of a given historical moment and advances a larger argument about how philosophical and religious ideas cannot be divided into content and context Fried combines the disciplines of semiotics with a largely philosophical approach thus offering fresh insights into both disciplines while looking at issues from multiple perspectives Steven Burik author of The End of Comparative Philosophy and the Task of Comparative Thinking Heidegger Derrida and Daoism

Beauty and Human Existence in Chinese Philosophy Keping Wang, 2021-05-26 This book considers the Chinese conception of beauty from a historical perspective with regard to its significant relation to human personality and human existence It examines the etymological implications of the pictographic character mei the totemic symbolism of beauty the ferocious beauty of the bronzeware Further on it proceeds to look into the conceptual progression of beauty in such main schools of thought as Confucianism Daoism and Chan Buddhism Then it goes on to illustrate through art and literature the leading principles of equilibrium harmony spontaneous naturalness subtle void and synthetic possibilities It also offers a discussion of modern change and transcultural creation conducted with particular reference to the theory of the poetic state par excellence yi jing shuo and that of art as sedimentation ji dian shuo The Later Works of John Dewey, Volume 10, 1925 - 1953 John Dewey, 2008 Art as Experience evolved from John Dewey's William James Lectures delivered at Harvard University from February to May 1931 In his Introduction Abraham Kaplan places Dewey's philosophy of art within the context of his pragmatism Kaplan demonstrates in Dewey's esthetic theory his traditional movement from a dualism to a monism and discusses whether Dewey's viewpoint is that of the artist the respondent or the critic How to Overcome Digital Distraction Swami Vireshananda, Today human beings are living more in the parallel world known as the Digital World or the Virtual World This computer based online community environment has no doubt its incredible benefits and advantages not even dreamt of by our preceding generations At the same time it has also the frightening potential to make human beings mentally sick and isolated and suppress all those healthy elements which make human beings human Today it is a fact that this digital or virtual world is something which cannot be done away with This being so the only option left to us is to develop the art or skill of using it intelligently without endangering the mental and physical well being of the individual and the society How to handle this digital distraction caused by digital slavery is the focus of this book the importance of which doesn't need to be emphasised The book endeavours to address this important issue from various angles through articles written by experts and thinkers from various backgrounds Published by Advaita Ashrama a branch of Ramakrishna Math Belur Math India The Perversity of Poetry Dino Franco Felluga, 2005-01-01 Explains why poetry gave way to the realist novel as the dominant literary form in nineteenth century England A New History of the Humanities Rens Bod, 2013 Offers the first overarching history of the humanities from Antiquity to the present Inspiration and Technique John Roe, Michele Stanco, 2007 While Plato extols inspired poetry as opposed to poetry produced by means of technique Aristotle conceives of poetry only in terms of techn Underlying the opposition between inspiration and technique are two different approaches to form inspiration is concerned with the impression of ideas or forms within the poet's psyche the author's forma mentis whereas technique deals with the transposition of the artist's idea into the material form of the work the forma operis This dual view of form and of its complex relation to matter may be said to lie at the basis of a dual approach to aesthetic issues a psychological and a textual one Taking their cue from this opposition the essays gathered here explore some of the most momentous phases in the history of aesthetics from Graeco Roman philosophy and oratory to Renaissance poetry and literary criticism from neoclassical poetics to Romantic and Victorian views on inspired visions to recent issues in neuroaesthetics philosophy of art and literary linguistics In so doing they collectively point to the irremediable and continuing dualism of a critical tradition that has alternately emphasized the ideal elements of beauty and the material constituents of art
