productions naturally were and utterly condemned by the writer's later judgment they are nevertheless highly interesting and characteristic giving as they do the keynote of much that afterwards unfolded itself in her life One cannot fail to be rather painfully impressed by the profound melancholy pervading the book The opening poem is In Memoriam on the death of a school friend and companion and the two following poems also have death for theme On a Lock of my Mother's Hair gives us reflections on growing old These are the four poems written at the age of fourteen There is not a wholly glad and joyous strain in the volume and we might smile at the recurrence of broken vows broken hearts and broken lives in the experience of this maiden just entered upon her teens were it not that the innocent child herself is in such deadly earnest We are delighted to publish this classic book as part of our extensive Classic Library collection Many of the books in our collection have been out of print for decades and therefore have not been accessible to the general public The aim of our publishing program is to facilitate rapid access to this vast reservoir of literature and our view is that this is a significant literary work which deserves to be brought back into print after many decades The contents of the vast majority of titles in the Classic Library have been scanned from the original works To ensure a high quality product each title has been meticulously hand curated by our staff Our philosophy has been guided by a desire to provide the reader with a book that is as close as possible to ownership of the original work We hope that you will enjoy this wonderful classic work and that for you it becomes an enriching experience

The Colors of Zion George Bornstein, 2011-06-01 A major reevaluation of relationships among Blacks Jews and Irish in the years between the Irish Famine and the end of World War II The Colors of Zion argues that the cooperative efforts and sympathies among these three groups each persecuted and subjugated in its own way was much greater than often acknowledged today For the Black Jewish and Irish writers poets musicians and politicians at the center of this transatlantic study a sense of shared wrongs inspired repeated outpourings of sympathy If what they have to say now surprises us it is because our current constructions of interracial and ethnic relations have overemphasized conflict and division As George Bornstein says in his Introduction he chooses to let the principals speak for themselves While acknowledging past conflicts and tensions Bornstein insists on recovering the lost connections through which these groups frequently defined their plights as well as their aspirations In doing so he examines a wide range of materials including immigration laws lynching hostile race theorists Nazis and Klansmen discriminatory university practices and Jewish publishing houses alongside popular plays like The Melting Pot and Abie's Irish Rose canonical novels like Ulysses and Daniel Deronda music from slave spirituals to jazz poetry and early films such as The Jazz Singer The models of brotherhood that extended beyond ethnocentrism a century ago the author argues might do so once again today if only we bear them in mind He also urges us to move beyond arbitrary and invidious categories of race and ethnicity The Poems of Emma Lazarus Emma Lazarus,2015-09-02 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible Therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world and other notations in the work This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work As a reproduction of a historical artifact this work may contain missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant Jewcy Marla Brettschneider,2024-02-01 Jewcy Jewish Queer Lesbian Feminisms for the Twenty First Century presents the rich diversity of Jewish life from perspectives that center lesbian and queer Jewish feminist people and issues Blending scholarship with poetry memoir and other genres it reopens the field of Jewish lesbian writing that has been largely dormant since the early 2000s The contributors illustrate the diversity of Jewish lesbian experience through a range of topics voices and genres and explore how this experience intersects with Black Mizrahi Sephardi Indigenous and trans identities Opening timely new dialogues between the various fields of Jewish feminist queer trans decolonial and critical race studies Jewcy encourages readers both inside and outside the academy to rethink narrow conceptions of Jewishness
