Empowering Readers Ten Approaches To Narrative:

Empowering Readers Garry Gillard, 2003 This useful guide to incorporating prominent literary theories into the reading process provides students with a substantial introduction to a wide range of ideas and practices Each chapter covers a text from the international canon and suggests how that text can also be interpreted by employing a particular literary theory Links are made between A Passage to India and postcolonialism Heart of Darkness and Marxism and The Turn of the Screw and psychoanalysis among others

Teenagers and Reading Jacqueline Manuel, Sue Brindley, 2012 This book brings together international research and practical perspectives on the current state of teenagers reading Contributions by teachers researchers and other educators explore the what how when where and why of adolescents reading advancing our grasp of the relationships between and among teenage readers texts and contexts

Digital Games Catherine Beavis, Joanne O'Mara, Lisa McNeice, 2012 Digital Games Literacy in action is the result of a wide ranging investigation into the educational possibilities involved in young people's games From their creation in the classroom to analysing games and the world of games as text academics and teachers are now taking seriously the serious play of young people

Teaching Australian Literature Brenton Doecke, Larissa McLean Davies, Philip Mead, 2011 Summary What role should Australian literature play in the school curriculum What principles should guide our selection of Australian texts To what extent should concepts of the nation and a national identity frame the study of Australian writing What do we imagine Australian literature to be How do English teachers go about engaging their students in reading Australian texts This volume brings together teachers teacher educators creative writers and literary scholars in a joint inquiry that takes a fresh look at what it means to teach Australian literature The immediate occasion for the publication of these essays is the implementation of The Australian Curriculum English which several contributors subject to critical scrutiny In doing so they question the way that literature teaching is currently being constructed by standards based reforms not only in Australia but elsewhere

English Teachers at Work Brenton Doecke, David Homer, Helen Nixon, 2003 By taking a global perspective on teaching English this work takes into account a wide variety of challenges English teachers face and stresses the importance of networking and communicating with colleagues around the world as a means of overcoming those challenges A richly differentiated view on what it means to be an English teacher is offered as are fascinating narratives about the diverse efforts of teachers in different communities Points of view from contributors in North America Australia Chile New Zealand New Guinea South Africa and the United Kingdom are expressed and placed in an illuminating context with practical and theoretical considerations about teaching English

English in Australia, 2007 The Publishers Weekly, 2004 Rays of Hope Priti Singhal, 2024-11-10 This book is more than just a collection of stories it is an invitation to dream reflect and explore Whether reading for entertainment seeking inspiration or enjoying quiet moments of reflection this book offers something unique The stories are crafted to leave a lasting impression encouraging readers to see the world with new eyes and appreciate the magic hidden in everyday moments Movement, embodiment, kinesemiotics: Interdisciplinary approaches to movement-based communication Arianna Maiorani, John A. Bateman, Sandra Petroni, Bettina E. Bläsing, Vito Evola, 2023-06-02 Ways of Being Male John Stephens, 2013-10-18 Given the substantial impact of feminism on children's literature and culture during the last quarter century it comes as no surprise that gender studies have focused predominantly on issues of female representation. The question of how the same patriarchal ideology structured representations of male bodies and behaviors was until very recently a marginal discussion. Now that masculinity has emerged as an overt theme in children's literature and film, critical consideration of the subject is timely if not long overdue. Ways of Being Male addresses this new concern in an unprecedented collection of essays examining how contemporary debates about masculinity are reflected in fiction and film for young adults. An outstanding team of scholars elucidates the ways in which different versions of male identity are constructed and presented to young audiences. The contributors, drawn from a variety of academic disciplines, employ international discourses in literary criticism, feminism, social sciences, film theory, psychoanalytic criticism, and queer theory in their wide-ranging exploration of male representation. With its illuminating array of perspectives, this pioneering survey brings a long neglected subject into sharp focus. News Writing and Reporting: A Strategic Approach to Storytelling

Chris R. Vaccaro, 2024-08-22 With a focus on how the modern newsroom runs and operates, News Writing and Reporting: A Strategic Approach to Storytelling prepares students to become successful journalists in today's competitive news industry. Author Chris Vaccaro applies an audience-centered and business-minded approach, discusses emerging media trends, and guides students through strategic thought in multiplatform reporting and storytelling. The book offers practical career tips, interviews with reporters, and full career and product development guides, while each chapter concludes with strategies and writing exercises to equip students with tactics for planning, structuring, and editing content across various platforms.

Cambridge English Empower Upper Intermediate Student's Book Adrian Doff, Craig Thaine, Herbert Puchta, Jeff Stranks, Peter Lewis-Jones, 2015-02-12 Cambridge English Empower is a general adult course that combines course content from Cambridge University Press with validated assessment from the experts at Cambridge English Language Assessment. The Upper Intermediate Student's Book gives learners an immediate sense of purpose and clear learning objectives. It provides core grammar and vocabulary input alongside a mix of skills. Speaking lessons offer a unique combination of functional language, pronunciation, and conversation skills, alongside video filmed in the real world. Each unit ends with a consolidation of core language from the unit and focuses on writing within the context of a highly communicative mixed skills lesson. This version of the Student's Book does not provide access to the video assessment package and online workbook. A version with full online access is available separately. Handbook of Research on Contemporary Storytelling Methods Across New Media and Disciplines Mih?e?, Lorena Clara, Andreescu, Raluca, Dimitriu, Anda, 2021-01-15 Stories are everywhere around us, from the ads on TV or music video clips to the more sophisticated stories told by books or movies.

Everything comes wrapped in a story and the means employed to weave the narrative thread are just as important as the story itself. In this context there is a need to understand the role storytelling plays in contemporary society which has changed drastically in recent decades. Modern global society is no longer exclusively dominated by the time tested narrative media such as literature or films because new media such as videogames or social platforms have changed the way we understand, create and replicate stories. The Handbook of Research on Contemporary Storytelling Methods Across New Media and Disciplines is a comprehensive reference book that provides the relevant theoretical framework that concerns storytelling in modern society as well as the newest and most varied analyses and case studies in the field. The chapters of this extensive volume follow the construction and interpretation of stories across a plethora of contemporary media and disciplines. By bringing together radical forms of storytelling in traditional disciplines and methods of telling stories across newer media, this book intersects themes that include interactive storytelling and narrative theory across advertisements, social media and knowledge sharing platforms among others. It is targeted towards professionals, researchers and students working or studying in the fields of narratology, literature, media studies, marketing and communication, anthropology, religion or film studies. Moreover, for interested executives and entrepreneurs or prospective influencers, the chapters dedicated to marketing and social media may also provide insights into both the theoretical and the practical aspects of harnessing the power of storytelling in order to create a cohesive and impactful online image. Handbook of Emergent Methods Sharlene Nagy Hesse-Biber, Patricia Leavy, 2013-10-15. Social researchers increasingly find themselves looking beyond conventional methods to address complex research questions. This is the first book to comprehensively examine emergent qualitative and quantitative theories and methods across the social and behavioral sciences. Providing scholars and students with a way to retool their research choices, the volume presents cutting edge approaches to data collection, analysis and representation. Leading researchers describe alternative uses of traditional quantitative and qualitative tools, innovative hybrid or mixed methods and new techniques facilitated by technological advances. Consistently formatted chapters explore the strengths and limitations of each method for studying different types of research questions and offer practical in depth examples.

Literacy Assessment and Intervention for Classroom Teachers Beverly DeVries, 2017-07-05. The fourth edition of this comprehensive resource helps future and practicing teachers recognize and assess literacy problems while providing practical, effective intervention strategies to help every student succeed. The author thoroughly explores the major components of literacy, providing an overview of pertinent research, suggested methods and tools for diagnosis and assessment, intervention strategies and activities and technology applications to increase students' skills. Discussions throughout focus on the needs of English learners, offering appropriate instructional strategies and tailored teaching ideas to help both teachers and their students. Several valuable appendices include assessment tools, instructions and visuals for creating and implementing the book's more than 150 instructional strategies and activities and other resources. Higher
