This Is Not Chick Lit Elizabeth Merrick, 2006-08-01 Chick lit A genre of fiction that often recycles the following plot Girl in big city desperately searches for Mr Right in between dieting and shopping for shoes Girl gets dumped sometimes repeatedly Girl finds Prince Charming This Is Not Chick Lit is a celebration of America's most dynamic literary voices as well as a much needed reminder that for every stock protagonist with a designer handbag and three boyfriends there is a woman writer pushing the envelope of literary fiction with imagination humor and depth The original short stories in this collection touch on some of the same themes as chick lit the search for love and identity but they do so with extraordinary power creativity and range they are also political provocative and at turns utterly surprising Featuring marquee names as well as burgeoning talents This Is Not Chick Lit will nourish your heart and your mind Including these original stories The Thing Around Your Neck by Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie Two Days by Aimee Bender An Open Letter to Doctor X by Francine Prose Gabe by Holiday Reinhorn Documents of Passion Love by Carolyn Ferrell Volunteers Are Shining Stars by Curtis Sittenfeld Selling the General by Jennifer Egan The Seventy two Ounce Steak Challenge by Dika Lam Love Machine by Samantha Hunt Ava Bean by Jennifer S Davis Embrace by Roxana Robinson The Epiphany Branch by Mary Gordon Joan Jeanne La Pucelle Maid of Orleans by Judy Budnitz Gabriella My Heart by Cristina Henríquez The Red Coat by Caitlin Macy The Matthew Effect by Binnie Kirshenbaum The Recipe by Lynne Tillman Meaning of Ends by Martha Witt Praise for This Is Not Chick Lit This Is Not Chick Lit is important not only for its content but for its title I'll know we're getting somewhere when equally talented male writers feel they have to separate themselves from the endless stream of fiction glorifying war hunting and sports by naming an anthology This Is Not a Guy Thing Gloria Steinem These voices diverse and almost eerily resonant offer us a refreshing breath of womanhood untamed ungroomed and unglossed Elle

Urban Spaces in Contemporary Latin American Literature José Eduardo González, Timothy R. Robbins, 2018-06-29 This collection of essays studies the depiction of contemporary urban space in twenty first century Latin American fiction The contributors to this volume seek to understand the characteristics that make the representation of the postmodern city in a Latin American context unique The chapters focus on cities from a wide variety of countries in the region highlighting the cultural and political effects of neoliberalism and globalization in the contemporary urban scene

Twenty first century authors share an interest for images of ruins and dystopian landscapes and their view of the damaging effects of the global market in Latin America tends to be pessimistic As the book demonstrates however utopian elements or spaces of hope can also be found in these narrations which suggest the possibility of transforming a capitalist dominated living space

Richard Wright in a Post-Racial Imaginary William E. Dow, Alice Mikal Craven, Yoko Nakamura, 2014-07-31 In African American fiction Richard Wright was one of the most significant and influential authors of the twentieth century Richard Wright in a Post Racial Imaginary analyses Wright's work in relation to contemporary racial and social issues bringing voices of established and emergent Wright scholars into dialogue with each other The essays in this volume show how Wright's best work asks central questions about national alienation as well as about international belonging and the trans national gaze Race is here assumed as a superimposed category rather than a biological reality in keeping with recent trends in African American studies Wright's fiction and almost all of his non fiction lift beyond the mainstays of African American culture to explore the potentialities and limits of black trans nationalism Wright's trans native status his perpetual outsiderness mixed with the essential humanness of his activist and literary efforts are at the core of the innovative approaches to his work included here

The War Comes with You Stacey Peebles, 2024-12-12 How do we tell twenty first century war stories when the wars seem to go on forever In the post 2011 surge of war stories published in America and Iraq the defining characteristic is the depiction of combat violence that crosses borders overtakes civilian spaces and disrupts chronology In The War Comes with You Enduring War in Life Fiction and Fantasy Stacey Peebles picks up where her groundbreaking first book Welcome to the Suck Narrating the American Soldier's Experience in Iraq left off Via careful readings of fiction memoir and poetry by writers such as Ben Fountain Siobhan Fallon Brian Turner and Hassan Blasim as well as recent superhero and Star Wars films Peebles argues that in the face of real and fantasy forever wars things fall apart Language identities bodies and even the stories themselves fragment These narratives suggest that people need not accept incoherence and there is a range of meaningful responses to the experience of everywhere all the time war Peebles illustrates what to do that is when war comes with you

Exploring the Critical Issues of Beauty Gabrielle Simpson, 2020-05-18 Exploring the Critical Issues of Beauty offers a wide range of topics on concepts of Beauty from scholars academics and researchers around the world

The Hong Kong Modernism of Leung Ping-kwan C. T. Au, 2019-11-29 This book revolves around the fundamental question What is Hong Kong modernism To address this issue C T Au identifies three significant characteristics a renewal of traditions an obsession with ordinary things and an expression of concerns about social and political issues shared among Western modernisms Chinese modernism in the 1940s and such Hong Kong modernists as Ma Lang Liu Yichang and Leung Ping kwan Yasi Ye Si This research concentrates on an examination of the major modernist tenets embodied in Leung's literary works Leung Ping kwan is one of the most prominent and widely read

Hong Kong modernist writers however there exist only a few scholarly works which focus on the direct relationship between Leung's works and modernisms The author argues that Leung paid special attention to issues regarding tradition daily life and colonial culture in order to understand his past his identity and the unique features of Hong Kong modernism which celebrate multiple perspectives and inclusiveness This study not only helps differentiate Hong Kong modernism from other modernisms positioning the former as a variant of the latter but also provides a response to the problems evoked by Hong Kong's colonial milieu

The Postcolonial Exotic Graham Huggan, 2002-09-26 Graham Huggan examines some of the processes by which value is given to postcolonial works within their cultural field using both literary critical and sociological methods of analysis

Interdisciplinary Measures Graham Huggan, 2008-02-01 Interdisciplinary Measures makes the case for a cross disciplinary but literature centred approach to postcolonial studies Despite the anxieties that interdisciplinarity brings with it a combination of different discontinuously structured disciplinary knowledges is arguably best suited to address the tangled concerns of both the globalised present and the colonial past The book looks specifically at the intersections between literary criticism history anthropology geography and environmental studies while arguing more specifically for a postcolonialism across the disciplines in the service of informed cross cultural critique Bringing together a wide range of literary material from Africa Australia Canada the Caribbean New Zealand and South Asia the book also considers the different but sometimes related cultural contexts within which the key debates in postcolonial studies e.g. those around globalisation North South relations and the new imperialism are currently taking place These debates suggest the need for a multi-sited multilingual and not least multidisciplinary approach to postcolonial studies that consolidates its status as a comparative field

Hemispheric American Studies Caroline F. Levander, Robert S. Levine, 2007-10-04 This landmark collection brings together a range of exciting new comparative work in the burgeoning field of hemispheric studies Scholars working in the fields of Latin American studies Asian American studies American studies American literature African Diaspora studies and comparative literature address the urgent question of how scholars might reframe disciplinary boundaries within the broad area of what is generally called American studies The essays take as their starting points such questions as What happens to American literary political historical and cultural studies if we recognize the interdependency of nation state developments throughout all the Americas What happens if we recognize the nation as historically evolving and contingent rather than already formed Finally what happens if the fixed borders of a nation are recognized not only as historically produced political constructs but also as component parts of a deeper more multilayered series of national and indigenous histories With essays that examine stamps cartoons novels film art music travel documents and governmental publications Hemispheric American Studies seeks to excavate the complex cultural history of texts and discourses across the ever-changing and stratified geopolitical and cultural fields that collectively comprise the American hemisphere This collection promises to chart new directions in American literary and cultural studies
