Falling In Love:

Falling in Love Ayala Pines, Ayala Malach Pines, 2013-05-13 Falling in Love is the first book to unlock the mysteries of how and why we fall in love. Renowned psychologist Ayala Pines shows us why we fall for the people we do and argues convincingly that we love neither by chance nor by accident. She offers sound advice for making the right choices when it comes to this complicated emotion. Packed with helpful suggestions for those seeking love and those already in it, this book is about love's many puzzles. The second edition furthers the work of the popular and successful first edition. With expanded research, theory, and practice, this book once again provides one of a kind understandings of the experience of love. The new edition offers updated references to recent research, new chapter exercises, and case examples of romantic stories to begin each chapter.

Falling in Love, 2006-05-31 Falling in love with all its accompanying problems was a subject of obsessive interest among writers and readers in the Ming Dynasty when society held strictly to arranged marriages. The stories in this engaging collection all deal with this theme in very different ways, sometimes comically, sometimes tragically. They portray young people choosing their own lovers, resorting to ingenious stratagems and risky escapades in defiance of contemporary mores. Chosen to represent the best works from the great age of the vernacular story, they offer an admirable introduction to the world of Chinese fiction in this era. All of the stories in Falling in Love have been translated especially for this volume and most appear here in translation for the first time. They are taken from two works: Constant Words to Awaken the World (Xing shi heng yan) and a related collection The Rocks Nod Their Heads (Shi dian tou), both published in the early seventeenth century.

Falling in Love Grant Allen, 2019-09-25 Reproduction of the original Falling in Love by Grant Allen. Falling in Love Zachary Seager, 2025-04-03 The great subject of love, finding it, keeping it, losing it, has fascinated and consumed us since the beginning of time. Why do we fall in love? What does it mean? And how do we cope in relationships? Through essays and letters, these questions are tackled by an array of classic writers from ancient to modern times. Falling in Love explores romance, infatuation, and everything in between. In a letter of advice, poet Rainer Maria Rilke talks about how change is an inevitable part of relationships. Plato traces the idea of an other half to humanity's beginnings. Mae M. Franking relates the ups and downs of a couple from different cultures. Whereas Emma Goldman sets out a lively debate separating marriage and love. Though Stendhal highlights how we fall into the trap of overidealising a loved one, Sappho is not afraid to woo her beloved above all else. Combining self-help, erudition, and healing wisdom, here's a book to help us make sense of the wonderful and complex idea of love. Part of the Macmillan Collector's Library, a series of stunning pocket-sized classics. These beautiful books make perfect gifts or a treat for any book lover.
