Family Party:

Anasta Vladimir Megre, 2014-05-22 During a technocratic period of life people cease to be intelligent beings It is necessary to appeal not to their minds but to their feelings and through their feelings to inform them about the essence of the Divine program and in order to do this one has to sense and comprehend it for oneself Organizing Political Parties

Thomas Poguntke, Paul D. Webb, Susan E. Scarrow, 2017 Political party organizations play large roles in democracies yet their organizations differ widely and their statutes change much more frequently than constitutions or electoral laws How do these differences and these frequent changes affect the operation of democracy This book seeks to answer these questions by presenting a comprehensive overview of the state of party organization in nineteen contemporary democracies Using a unique new data collection the book's chapters test propositions about the reasons for variation and similarities across party organizations They find more evidence of within country similarity than of cross national patterns based on party ideology After exploring parties' organizational differences the remaining chapters investigate the impact of these differences The volume considers a wide range of theories about how party organization may affect political life including the impact of party rules on the selection of female candidates the links between party decision processes and the stability of party programmes the connection between party finance sources and public trust in political parties and whether the strength of parties' extra-parliamentary organization affects the behaviour of their elected legislators Collectively these chapters help to advance comparative studies of elections and representation by inserting party institutions and party agency more firmly into the centre of such studies Comparative Politics is a series for researchers teachers and students of political science that deals with contemporary government and politics Global in scope books in the series are characterised by a stress on comparative analysis and strong methodological rigour The series is published in association with the European Consortium for Political Research For more information visit www.ecpr.net eu The series is edited by Emilie van Haute Professor of Political Science Universite libre de Bruxelles Ferdinand Muller Rommel Director of the Center for the Study of Democracy Leuphana University and Susan Scarrow Chair of the Department of Political Science University of Houston Houses Henry S. Harrison, 1998-09 With over seventeen years in print this professional handbook has become a staple for real estate agents In clear language it begins with a look at communities neighbourhoods and sites then delves into the details of interior and exterior house construction and styles The topics covered include Construction Materials Mechanical Systems and Architectural Systems The Spiritually Vibrant Home Don Everts, 2020-03-03 What does it take to have a spiritually vibrant household Looking at everyday households of faith original research from the Barna Group and Lutheran Hour Ministries shows that some of the healthiest most vibrant homes extend beyond the nuclear family Don Everts shows how these households practice spirituality hospitality and community that make them delightful places for living and thriving Tiger Girls Minglu Chen, 2012-03-29 The existing scholarship on women in China suggests that gender inequality still exists against the background of the country's reform and opening in recent years. However, the situation of women in enterprise ownership and leadership seems to indicate that despite such notions of disadvantage amongst women, some of them are playing a more active and significant role in China's economic development. Based on a series of interviews with female enterprise owners, wives of enterprise owners, and women managers conducted in diverse locations in three different provinces of China, Tiger Girls examines the deeper realities of women entrepreneurs in China and, by extension, the role of leading women in the workforce. By analyzing information on these women's personal experiences, careers, and families, this book investigates their status at work and at home as well as their connections with local politics. The research results suggest that although traces of gender inequality can still be found in these women's lives, they appear to be actively engaged in the business establishment and operation and gradually casting off the leash of domestic responsibilities. This book will be of interest to students and scholars of Chinese Studies, Chinese Business, Chinese Economics, and Asian Studies. The Scoundrel's Daughter Anne Gracie, 2021-08-24 When Lady Charlton is forced into becoming London's most reluctant matchmaker, sparks fly and romance ensues from the national bestselling author of Marry in Scarlet. Alice, Lady Charlton, newly widowed and eager to embrace a life free of her domineering husband, is devastated when a scoundrel appears brandishing letters that could ruin her. To prevent their publication, he wants Alice to find a noble husband, a lord, for his daughter, Lucy. Alice is forced to agree to his blackmail, but when Lucy arrives, she has absolutely no interest in her father's scheme. A lord she says will only look down his nose at her, and she's having none of that. Desperate to retrieve the letters, Alice enlists the aid of her handsome young nephew, Gerald, who in turn seeks the help of his former commanding officer, James Lord Tarrant. James is soon beguiled by the marriage-averse lady and sets out to teach her about love. Meanwhile, Gerald and Lucy strike sparks each time they meet. To combat the dastardly plot, Alice and Lucy must learn to trust each other. But can Alice put the past behind her and open her heart to love? New Civilization II: Rites of Love Vladimir Megre, 2014-01-21 The New Civilization II: Rites of Love compares today's attitudes toward sex, childbirth, family, and education with those of our forebears. Their depth of understanding may cause you to wonder when and how we lost this extraordinary knowledge. Anastasia assures us that it can be regained. The Iran-Iraq War Williamson Murray, Kevin M. Woods, 2014-09-04 A comprehensive account of the Iran-Iraq War through the lens of the Iraqi regime and its senior military commanders. Truth, 1927 Ethics or the Right Thing? Sylvia Tidey, 2022-07-08 A sympathetic examination of the failure of anti-corruption efforts in contemporary Indonesia. Combining ethnographic fieldwork in the city of Kupang with an acute historical sensibility, Sylvia Tidey shows how good governance initiatives paradoxically perpetuate civil service corruption while also facilitating the emergence of new forms of it. Importing critical insights from the anthropology of ethics to the burgeoning anthropology of corruption, Tidey exposes enduring developmentalist fallacies that treat corruption as endemic to
