innovative perspective on Muslim family life in British society Drawing on recent debates the book considers how theories of family have overlooked Muslim families and offers a comprehensive framework to address this oversight Informed by decolonizing approaches the book sheds light on the impact of narrow and stigmatizing perspectives that shape our understanding of Muslim families The author pays close attention to the increasing diversity of family forms and to the role of gender and generation whilst also considering race ethnicity and class In doing so she demonstrates how a better understanding of Muslim family life can inform policies to address inequalities and advocates for placing Muslim families at the heart of policy solutions

Gender and Equality in Muslim Family Law Lena Larsen, Ziba Mir-Hosseini, Christian Moe, Kari Vogt, 2013-04-30 Gender equality is a modern ideal which has only recently with the expansion of human rights and feminist discourses become inherent to generally accepted conceptions of justice In Islam as in other religious traditions the idea of equality between men and women was neither central to notions of justice nor part of the juristic landscape and Muslim jurists did not begin to address it until the twentieth century The personal status of Muslim men women and children continues to be defined by understandings of Islamic law codified and adapted by modern nation states that assume authority to be the natural prerogative of men that disadvantage women and that are prone to abuse This volume argues that effective and sustainable reform of these laws and practices requires engagement with their religious rationales from within the tradition Gender and Equality in Muslim Family Law offers a groundbreaking analysis of family law based on fieldwork in family courts and illuminated by insights from distinguished clerics and scholars of Islam from Morocco Egypt Iran Pakistan and Indonesia as well as by the experience of human rights and women s rights activists It explores how male authority is sustained through law and court practice in different contexts the consequences for women and the family and the demands made by Muslim women s groups The book argues for women s full equality before the law by re examining the jurisprudential and theological arguments for male guardianship qiwama wilaya in Islamic legal tradition Using contemporary examples from various contexts from Morocco to Malaysia this volume presents an informative and vital analysis of these societies and gender relations within them It unpicks the complex and often contradictory attitudes towards Muslim family law and the ways in which justice and ethics are conceived in the Islamic tradition The book offers a new framework for rethinking old formulations so as to reflect contemporary realities and understandings of justice ethics and gender rights
