The Crescent and the Couch Salman Akhtar, 2008-01-10 Attempting to advance knowledge about Islam and to create the possibility of a dialogue between Islam and psychoanalysis The Crescent and the Couch brings together a distinguished panel of Muslim and non Muslim contributors from the fields of history religion anthropology politics and psychoanalysis Together these authors highlight the world changing contributions of prominent Muslim figures and elucidate the encounter of Islam with Christianity Judaism and Hinduism Moving on to matters of family individual personality formation human sexuality and religious identity they also address clinical issues that arise in the treatment of Muslim patients as well as the technical work of Muslim psychoanalysts

Reframing difference Carrie Tarr, 2019-01-31 Reframing difference is the first major study of two overlapping strands of contemporary French cinema cinema beur films by young directors of Maghrebi immigrant origin and cinema de banlieue films set in France's disadvantaged outer city estates Carrie Tarr's insightful account draws on a wide range of films from directors such as Mehdi Charef Mathieu Kassovitz and Djamel Bensalah Her analyses compare the work of male and female majority and minority film makers and emphasise the significance of authorship in the representation of gender and ethnicity Foregrounding such issues as the quest for identity the negotiation of space and the recourse to memory and history she argues that these films challenge and reframe the symbolic spaces of French culture addressing issues of ethnicity and difference which are central to today's debates about what it means to be French This timely book is essential reading for anyone interested in the relationship between cinema and citizenship in a multicultural society

Encyclopedia of Arab Women Filmmakers Rebecca Hillauer, 2005 Arab women filmmakers Who are they What drives them What are their experiences in a male dominated profession How do they function within the contexts and constraints of patriarchal societies The answers are complex and sometimes surprising as complex and surprising as the vastly different films these women direct In this unprecedented book Rebecca Hillauer assembles a comprehensive and penetrating look into the history of Arab women's filmmaking as well as the political and social background of the countries Egypt Iraq Lebanon Syria Algeria among others from which these artists emerged In addition to the biographies filmographies and discussions of their most important works lively in depth interviews allow us to hear from the filmmakers themselves Collectively these women who hail from a wide range of professional religious and social backgrounds provide a varied and vivid picture of what it means to work in creative and journalistic fields in the modern Arab world For Hillauer the subject of a film its genesis and the personal story of the artist who created it reveal far more than a particular approach to cinematography Arab women filmmakers and their main characters who are often semi autobiographical not only afford us a look at seldom seen facets of Arab societies they personify an alternative women's model one that is far removed from western clichés Broad in scope and rich in insight Arab Women Filmmakers is a must read for cineastes as well as students of film feminism and the Middle East Ex-Centric Migrations Hakim Abderrezak, 2016-06-20 Plunges the reader into a tour de force across radically divergent artistic responses to Mediterranean migration Bulletin of Francophone Postcolonial Studies Ex Centric Migrations examines cinematic literary and musical representations of migrants and migratory trends in the western Mediterranean Focusing primarily on clandestine sea crossings Hakim Abderrezak shows that despite labor and linguistic ties with the colonizer migrants from the Maghreb Morocco Algeria and Tunisia no longer systematically target France as a destination but instead aspire toward other European countries notably Spain and Italy In addition the author investigates other migratory patterns that entail the repatriation of migrants His analysis reveals that the films novels and songs of Mediterranean artists run contrary to mass media coverage and conservative political discourse bringing a nuanced vision and expert analysis to the sensationalism and biased reportage of such events as the Mediterranean maritime tragedies Ex Centric Migrations is crucial reading for scholars and students of contemporary Maghrebi French and Spanish literatures and cultures It breaks new ground by encompassing the literature film and music of return migration and examining the trajectories of Maghrebi migration outside France H France Hakim Abderrezak convincingly illustrates how politically committed artistic practices serve to humanize the challenges of human migration and in the process dramatically improves our understanding of the complex cultural economic political and social realities that shape 21st century existence Dominic Thomas author of Africa and France Postcolonial Cultures Migration and Racism Existentialism and Contemporary Cinema Jean-Pierre Boulé, Ursula Tidd, 2012-09-01 Simone de Beauvoir's work has not often been associated with film studies which appears paradoxical when it is recognized that she was the first feminist thinker to inaugurate the concept of the gendered othering gaze This book is an attempt to redress this balance and reopen the dialogue between Beauvoir's writings and film studies The authors analyse a range of films from directors including Claire Denis Michael Haneke Lucille Hadzihalilovic Sam Mendes and Sally Potter by drawing from Beauvoir's key works such as The Second Sex 1949 The Ethics of Ambiguity 1947 and Old Age 1970 Europe - Space for Transcultural Existence? Martin Tamcke, Janny de Jong, Lars Klein, Margriet van der Waal, 2013 Europe Space for Transcultural Existence is the first volume of the new series Studies in Euroculture published by Göttingen University Press The series derives its name from the Erasmus Mundus Master of Excellence Euroculture Europe in the Wider World a two year programme offered by a consortium of eight European universities in collaboration with four partner universities outside Europe This master highlights regional national and supranational dimensions of the European democratic development mobility migration and inter multi and transculturality The impact of culture is understood as an element of political and social development within Europe The articles published here explore the field of Euroculture in its different elements it includes topics such as cosmopolitanism cultural memory and traumatic past's colonial heritage democratization and Europeanization as well as the concept of European identity in various disciplinary contexts such as law and the social sciences In which way have Europeanization and

Globalization influenced life in Europe more specifically To what extent have people in Europe turned transcultural The trans is understood as indicator of an overlapping mix of cultures that does not allow for the construction of sharp differentiations It is explored in topics such as immigration and integration as well as cultural products and lifestyle The present economic crisis and debt crisis have led as side result to a public attack on the open cosmopolitan outlook of Europe The values of the multicultural and civil society and the idea of a people's Europe have become debatable This volume offers food for thought and critical reflection

Re-hybridizing Transnational Domesticity and Femininity Stacey Weber-Fève, 2010-01-05 Re-hybridizing Transnational Domesticity and Femininity examines the problems of voicing the personal when considering the role and place of women in the home Analyzing a collection of first person cinematic and literary narratives by Assia Djebar Annie Ernaux Simone de Beauvoir Raja Amari Coline Serreau Leïla Sebbar and Yamina Benguigui Weber Fève explores the transnational processes of identity formation gender performance and construction of culture and society Through a closer look at contemporary representations of French Algerian and Tunisian women on the page and on the screen this study discusses the ways in which homemaking nation and gender are intricately bound to one another and situated in personal history Working within as well as beyond so called national systems of visual and written representation these women artists challenge inherited and monolithic performances definitions and discourses of femininity In doing so they create re-hybridized subjects that begin to recognize and embrace the differences within themselves The authors and filmmakers in this study through their female protagonists the protagonists homes and homemaking acts and the investigative lens of the interrogation of the personal are interested in exploring how the process of uncovering or articulating new and other identities and subjectivities ushers in new and re-hybridized ways of seeing knowing and being female

From Solidarity to Schisms, 2009-01-01 From Solidarity to Schisms is the first collection to expand discussions of the effects the events of 11 September 2001 and their aftermath have had on fiction and film beyond an exclusively US based focus The essays brought together here go beyond critiquing the US to examine the cultural shifts taking place in fiction and cinema from places such as Britain France Germany Australia Pakistan Canada Israel and Iran From these many sites of production the works discussed in this collection illustrate more precisely how 9/11 was global without succumbing to neat categorizations such as us vs them East vs West Christianity vs Islam and so on From Solidarity to Schisms is an important supplement to the US centered cultural and critical production addressing 9/11 providing researchers and teachers alike with resources and contexts that will allow them to broaden their own examinations of novels and films by Americans and about the US It also provides a valuable resource for students and scholars of contemporary global history and international politics who are interested in approaching 9/11 terrorism and counter terrorism and related topics from a cultural standpoint study of cinematic representations of first generation Muslim women from the Maghreb Algeria Morocco Tunisia in France

The Figure of the Migrant in Contemporary European Cinema Temenuga Trifonova, 2020-07-09 The Figure of the Migrant in Contemporary European Cinema explores contemporary debates around the concepts of Europe and European identity through an examination of recent European films dealing with various aspects of globalization the refugee crisis labour migration the resurgence of nationalism and ethnic violence neoliberalism post colonialism with a particular attention to the figure of the migrant and the ways in which this figure challenges us to rethink Europe and its core Enlightenment values citizenship justice ethics liberty tolerance and hospitality in a post national context of ephemerality volatility and contingency that finds people desperately looking for firmer markers of identity The book argues that a compelling case can be made for re orienting the study of contemporary European cinema around the figure of the migrant viewed both as a symbolic figure representing post national citizenship urbanization the gap between ethics and justice and as a figure occupying an increasingly central place in European cinema in general rather than only in what is usually called migrant and diasporic cinema By drawing attention to the structural and affective affinities between the experience of migrants and non migrants Europeans and non Europeans Trifonova shows that it is becoming increasingly difficult to separate stories about migration from stories about life under neoliberalism in general Small Cinemas in Global Markets David Desser, Janina

Falkowska, Lenuta Giukin, 2014-12-18 Small Cinemas in Global Markets addresses aspects such as identity revisiting the past internationalized genres new forms of experimental cinema markets and production as well as technological developments of alternative small screens that open new perspectives into small cinema possibilities Small and big markets for small industries reveal an unimagined diversification of the cultural product and consequently the need to analyze the impact at local regional and global levels Much needed to continue and expand the existing scholarship in the field this volume is based on research by authors who approach their subject from Western theoretical perspectives with a professional mostly native knowledge of the language cultural realities and film industry practices It covers aspects from fifteen different countries including Bolivia Brazil China Hong Kong Croatia East Africa Kenya Tanzania and Uganda Greece Indonesia Lithuania Bulgaria Poland Romania Morocco and the United States Since both film and documentary distribution from certain areas of the globe on international markets remains problematic it is important for the academic field to discuss and circulate them as much as possible and to create the basis for further exploration Documenting and reflecting on the role state and reception of the film industry provides scholarly understanding to the industry s wide range of seemingly chaotic technological transformations Childhood and Nation in Contemporary World Cinema Stephanie Hemelryk Donald, Emma

Wilson, Sarah Wright, 2017-02-09 The child has existed in cinema since the Lumi re Brothers filmed their babies having messy meals in Lyons but it is only quite recently that scholars have paid serious attention to her his presence on screen Scholarly discussion is now of the highest quality and of interest to anyone concerned not only with the extent to which adult cultural conversations invoke the figure of the child but also to those interested in exploring how film cultures can shift questions of agency and experience in relation to subjectivity Childhood and Nation in World Cinema recognizes that the range of films and scholarship is now sufficiently extensive to invoke the world cinema mantra of pluri vocal and pluri central attention and interpretation At the same time the importance of the child in figuring ideas of nationhood is an undiminished tic in adult cultural and social consciousness Either the child on film provokes claims on the nation or the nation claims the child Given the waning star of national film studies and the widely held and serious concerns over the status of the nation as a meaningful cultural unit the point here is not to assume some extraordinary pre social geopolitical empathy of child and political entity Rather the present collection observes how and why and whether the cinematic child is indeed aligned to concepts of modern nationhood to concerns of the State and to geo political organizational themes and precepts The Francophone Cultures and Geographies of Identity Zsuzsanna Fagyal, H. Adlai Murdoch, 2014-07-03 This collection of original essays challenges French centered conceptions of francophonie as the shaping force of the production and study of the French language literature culture film and art both inside and outside mainland France The traditional view of francophone cultural productions as offshoots of their hexagonal avatar is replaced by a pluricentric conception that reads interrelated aspects of francophonie as products of specific contexts conditions and local ecologies that emerged from post colonial encounters with France and other colonizing powers The twenty one papers grouped into six thematic parts focus on distinctive literary linguistic musical cinematographic and visual forms of expression in geographical areas long defined as the peripheries of the French speaking world the Caribbean the Indian Ocean the Maghreb sub Saharan Africa Quebec and hexagonal cities with a preponderance of immigrant populations These contested sites of French collective identity offer a rich formulation of distinctly local francophone identities that do not fit in with concepts of linguistic and ethnic exclusiveness but are consistent with a pluralistic demographic shift and the true face of Frenchness that is indeed plural

Screening Integration Sylvie Durmelat, Vinay Swamy, 2012-01-01 North African immigrants once confined to France's social and cultural margins have become a strong presence in France's national life Similarly descendants of immigrants from Morocco Algeria and Tunisia have gained mainstream recognition as filmmakers and as the subject of films The first collective volume on this topic Screening Integration offers a sustained critical analysis of this cinema In particular contributors evaluate how Maghrebi films have come to participate in promote and at the same time critique France's integration In the process these essays reflect on the conditions that allowed for the burgeoning of this cinema in the first place as well as on the social changes the films delineate Screening Integration brings together established scholars in the fields of postcolonial Francophone and film studies to address the latest developments in this cinematic production These authors explore the emergence of various genres that recast the sometimes fossilized idea of ethnic difference Screening Integration provides a much needed reference for those interested in comprehending the complex shifts in twenty first century French cinema and in the multicultural social formations that have become an integral part of contemporary France in the new millennium

Affaires de Famille Marie-Claire Barnet, Edward Welch, 2007 What are families like in contemporary France And what begins to emerge when we consider them from the point of view of recent theoretical perspectives faulty cohesion fake coherence carefully planned or subversive deconstruction loss of love confidence or credibility or even utter chaos and alarming confusion Which media revamp old stereotypes generate alternative reinterpretations and imply more ambiguous answers Uneasy contradictions and ambiguities emerge in this bilingual collection of approaches and genre studies The family plot seems to thicken as family ties appear to loosen Has the family been lost from sight or is it being reinvented in our collective imaginary This book proposes a new series of perspectives and questions on an old and familiar topic exploring the state and status of the family in contemporary literature culture critical and psychoanalytic theory and sociology Urban Bridges, Global Capital\(s\) Claire Launchbury, Megan C. MacDonald, 2021 Claire Launchbury and Megan C MacDonald s edited collection of essays offers a series of comparative analyses of the literary and filmic texts contexts and crossings of the Mediterranean region The book immediately illustrates the breadth depth and interdependence of what has become known as Mediterranean Studies The collection expands the borders of the Mediterranean space and posits it as a place of constant identitarian and linguistic interrogation for both those who occupy it and those who document it This collection will be a valuable resource for scholars who are looking for a contemporary and comprehensive entry point into Mediterranean Studies With its focus on transnationalisms genre and border crossings and complicated identities in the constantly reinvented and reinventing space of the Mediterranean Launchbury and MacDonald s collection offers a wealth of literary and cultural routes to follow Maria Vendetti Studies in 20th 21st Century Literature Post-beur Cinema: North African Emigre and Maghrebi-French Filmmaking in France since 2000 Will Higbee, 2013-07-31 Since the early 1980s filmmakers of Maghrebi origin have made a key contribution to the representation of issues such as immigration integration and national identity in French cinema However they have done so mostly from a position on the margins of the industry In contrast since the early 2000s Maghrebi French and North African emigre filmmakers have occupied an increasingly prominent position in on both sides of the camera announcing their presence on French screens in a wider range of genres and styles than ever before This greater prominence and move to the mainstream has not automatically meant that these films have lost any of the social or political relevance of Beur cinema of the 1980s or the banlieue film of the 1990s Indeed in the 2000s these films have increasingly questioned the boundaries between national transnational and diasporic cinema whilst simultaneously demanding either implicitly or explicitly a reconsideration of the very difference that has traditionally been seen as a barrier to the successful integration of North African immigrants and their descendants into French society Through a detailed study of this transformative decade for Maghrebi French and North African emigre filmmaking in France this book argues for the emergence of a Post Beur cinema in the 2000s that is simultaneously global and local in its outlook An absorbing introduction to this key development in contemporary French cinema Post Beur Cinema is essential reading for students and scholars in Film Studies French Studies and Diaspora Studies
