and other parts of Asia Singapore was under sole British jurisdiction and a large naval base had been built after the First World War to defend the island at the foot of the Malay Peninsula The British Government believed Japan would never attack their prize territory and so left Singapore to fight for itself with limited troops and outdated equipment But after an attack on Pearl Harbor the under trained and undersupplied 18th Division was redirected to fight the Japanese Using extensive research and personal documents the authors account via their father s small faded diary and his 1990 tape recording tells of Stan s journey and arrival in Keppel harbor under shellfire the horrific 17 day battle to defend the island the Japanese Admonition and the harrowing forced labour conditions after capitulation Only a small percentage of the 85 000 British troops returned after the war Captivity and years of trauma ultimately stole years of the young soldiers lives which they were later ordered to forget by the British Government The aim of this work is to provide information for future generations to understand how ordinary men died under horrific conditions of war and how the lucky survived The New Continent
