Indexing Techniques For Advanced Database Systems:

Indexing Techniques for Advanced Database Systems Elisa Bertino, Beng Chin Ooi, Ron Sacks-Davis, Kian-Lee Tan, Justin Zobel, Boris Shidlovsky, Daniele Andronico, 2012-12-06 Recent years have seen an explosive growth in the use of new database applications such as CAD CAM systems spatial information systems and multimedia information systems The needs of these applications are far more complex than traditional business applications They call for support of objects with complex data types such as images and spatial objects and for support of objects with wildly varying numbers of index terms such as documents Traditional indexing techniques such as the B tree and its variants do not efficiently support these applications and so new indexing mechanisms have been developed As a result of the demand for database support for new applications there has been a proliferation of new indexing techniques The need for a book addressing indexing problems in advanced applications is evident For practitioners and database and application developers this book explains best practice guiding the selection of appropriate indexes for each application For researchers this book provides a foundation for the development of new and more robust indexes For newcomers this book is an overview of the wide range of advanced indexing techniques Indexing Techniques for Advanced Database Systems is suitable as a secondary text for a graduate level course on indexing techniques and as a reference for researchers and practitioners in industry

Advanced Database Indexing Yannis Manolopoulos, Yannis Theodoridis, Vassilis Tsotras, 2012-09-07 Advanced Database Indexing begins by introducing basic material on storage media including magnetic disks RAID systems and tertiary storage such as optical disk and tapes Typical access methods e g B trees dynamic hash files and secondary key retrieval are also introduced The remainder of the book discusses recent advances in indexing and access methods for particular database applications More specifically issues such as external sorting file structures for intervals temporal access methods spatial and spatio temporal indexing image and multimedia indexing perfect external hashing methods parallel access methods concurrency issues in indexing and parallel external sorting are presented for the first time in a single book Advanced Database Indexing is an excellent reference for database professionals and may be used as a text for advanced courses on the topic

Geospatial Information Technology for Emergency Response Sisi Zlatanova, Jonathan Li, 2008-01-24. Disaster management is generally understood to consist of four phases: mitigation, preparedness, response, and recovery. While these phases are all important and interrelated, response and recovery are often considered to be the most critical in terms of saving lives. Response is the acute phase occurring after the event and includes all arrangements.
