Indiscreet Journeys:

Secret Journeys Marilyn C. Wesley, 1999-01-01 Examines the subversive and constructive narrative of female journey in American literature from the seventeenth century to the present The Short Story Anthology and Women's Writing

Aleix Tura Vecino, 2025-08-14 Hundreds of anthologies of women's short stories have appeared in the literary market between the 1970s and now This publishing and cultural phenomenon is considered for the first time in this book which argues that during this period anthologies have become a literary technology used not only to make visible female short story writers but also to think about and mould ideas of womanhood Through creative and contextualised readings of the most important anthologies produced in this period this study shows that this literary form has contributed to and in some cases pioneered key developments in gender theory and feminist thought including questions of political combination among women which underlie contemporary global movements such as MeToo In doing so the book also develops the first book length conceptualisation of the features and meaning making mechanisms of the short story anthology as a literary form This book will benefit academics and students working in the fields of short fiction publishing and women's studies as well as feminist scholars and a growing number of specialists interested in the anthology as a literary form worldwide

Translating Women Luise von Flotow, 2011-03-08 Feminist theory has been widely translated influencing the humanities and social sciences in many languages and cultures However these theories have not made as much of an impact on the discipline that made their dissemination possible many translators and translation scholars still remain unaware of the practices purposes and possibilities of gender in translation Translating Women revives the exploration of gender in translation begun in the 1990s by Susanne de Lotbinière Harwood's Re belle et infidèle The Body Bilingual 1992 Sherry Simon's Gender in Translation 1996 and Luise von Flotow's Translation and Gender 1997 Translating Women complements those seminal texts by providing a wide variety of examples of how feminist theory can inform the study and practice of translation Looking at such diverse topics as North American chick lit and medieval Arabic Translating Women explores women in translation in many contexts whether they are women translators women authors or women characters Together the contributors show that feminist theory can apply to translation in many new and unexplored ways and that it deserves the full attention of the discipline that helped it become internationally influential Atlantic Automobilism Gijss Mom, 2014-12

Offering a sweeping transatlantic perspective this book explains the current obsession with automobiles by delving deep into the motives of early car users It provides a synthesis of our knowledge about the emergence and persistence of the car using a broad range of material including novels poems films and songs Travel Writing Carl Thompson, 2011-05-16 An increasingly popular genre addressing issues of empire colonialism post colonialism globalization gender and politics travel writing offers the reader a movement between the familiar and the unknown In this volume Carl Thompson introduces the genre outlining competing definitions and key debates provides a broad historical survey from the medieval period to the present day explores the autobiographical dimensions of the form looks at both men and women s travel writing surveying a range of canonical and more marginal works drawn from both the colonial and postcolonial era utilises both British and American travelogues to consider the genre s role in shaping the history of both nations Concise and practical Travel Writing is the ideal introduction for those new to the subject as well as a crucial overview of current debates in the field The Second Battlefield Angela K. Smith,2000 This book investigates the connection between women s writing about WWI and the development of literary modernisms focusing on issues of gender which remain topical today Drawing on a wealth of unpublished diaries and letters the book examines the way in which the new roles undertaken by women triggered a search for new forms of expression Blending literary criticism and history the book contributes to the scholarship of women and expands our definition of modernisms Indiscreet Journeys Lisa St Aubin de Terán,1989 Penelope Voyages Karen R. Lawrence,2018-08-06 Looking at travel writing by British women from the seventeenth century on Karen R Lawrence asks an intriguing question What happens when instead of waiting patiently for Odysseus Penelope voyages and records her journey when the woman who is expected to waitsets forth herself and traces an itinerary of her own Lawrence ranges widely discussing both fiction and nonfiction and traversing the genres of travel letters realistic and sentimental novels ethnography fantasy and postmodern narrative In examining works as dissimilar as Margaret Cavendish s rendition of the Renaissance adventure narrative and Christine Brooke Rose s postmodernist Between she explores not only the significance of gender for travel writing but also the value of travel itself for testing the limits of women s social freedoms and restraints Lawrence shows how writings by Frances Burney Mary Wollstonecraft Sarah Lee Mary Kingsley Virginia Woolf and Brigid Brophy reconceive the meanings of femininity in relation to such apparent oppositions as travel home other self and foreign domestic Despite the differences historical generic political among these writers Lawrence maintains they share common insights Their accounts overturn the dichotomy between adventure and domesticity demonstrating something illusory within both the stability of home and the freedom of travel The Fatal Gift of Beauty Manfred Pfister,1996 This is the first anthology of British travel writing on Italy which traces the development of the genre and the history of the British perception of Italy from the Renaissance to the present As an anthologie raissonn eit presents the texts in thematic clusters and chronological order providing commentary and annotations for each of them and their nearly hundred authors some of them like Smollett Byron Dickens or Huxley well known others virtually unknown amongst them many unduly neglected women writers Further features are a substantial introduction to the travelogue and the writing of Italy more than thirty illustrations visualizing the British experience of Italy and an extensive bibliography of primary and secondary sources Tourists with Typewriters Patrick Holland,Graham Huggan,1998 Looks at how contemporary travel writing reflects gender cultural history and social class Republic of Drivers Cotten Seiler,2009-05-15 Rising gas prices sprawl and congestion global warming even obesity driving is a factor in many of the most contentious issues of our time So how did we get here How did automobile use become so vital to the identity of Americans Republic of Drivers looks back at the period between 1895 and 1961 from the founding of the first automobile factory in America to the creation of the Interstate Highway System to find out how driving evolved into a crucial symbol of freedom and agency Cotten Seiler combs through a vast number of historical social scientific philosophical and literary sources to illustrate the importance of driving to modern American conceptions of the self and the social and political order He finds that as the figure of the driver blurred into the figure of the citizen automobility became a powerful resource for women African Americans and others seeking entry into the public sphere And yet he argues the individualistic but anonymous act of driving has also monopolized our thinking about freedom and democracy discouraging the crafting of a more sustainable way of life As our fantasies of the open road turn into fears of a looming energy crisis Seiler shows us just how we ended up a republic of drivers and where we might be headed

Prairie Schooner

Lowry Charles Wimberly, 1992

Selected Stories Katherine Mansfield, 2002 I was jealous of her writing The only writing I have ever been jealous of Virginia Woolf Virginia Woolf was not the only writer to admire Mansfield s work Thomas Hardy D H Lawrence and Elizabeth Bowen all praised her stories and her early death at the age of thirty four cut short one of the finest short story writers in the English language This selection covers the full range of Mansfield s fiction from her early satirical stories to the subtly nuanced comedy of The Daughters of the Late Colonel and the macabre and ominous A Married Man s Story The stories that pay what Mansfield calls a debt of love to New Zealand are as sharply etched as the European stories and she recreates her childhood world with mordant insight Disruption is a constant theme whether the tone is comic tragic nostalgic or domestic echoing Mansfield s disrupted life and the fractured expressions of Modernism This new edition increases the selection from 27 to 33 stories and prints them in the order in which they first appeared in the definitive texts established by Anthony Alpers

form of mobility as an image of liberation whether exile or distance provides a better vantage point for cultural criticism than centrality and stability the place of personal memoir in academic writing and much more Jeanette Winterson Susana Onega, 2013-07-19 This is the first full length study of Jeanette Winterson's complete oeuvre offering detailed analysis of her nine novels as well as addressing her non fiction and minor fictional work Susana Onega combines the study of formal issues such as narrative structure perspective and point of view with thematic analyses approached from a variety of theoretical perspectives from narratology and feminist theory to Hermetic and Kabalistic symbolism to provide a comprehensive vertical analysis of Winterson's novels Onega reveals the books as complex linguistic artefacts crammed with intertextual echoes She demonstrates the inseparability of form and meaning within Winterson's work and positions her within the wider context of contemporary British fiction alongside fellow visionaries such as Peter Ackroyd Maureen Duffy and Marina Warner Ah, What Is It? – That I Heard Anne Mounic, 2014 The spirit of the narrative is mankind's reflexive consciousness or poetic genius our unique access to ourselves our desperate endeavour to be REAL It brings to light the dark unknown which is the zest of our lives it gives shape to the tremor of our inner souls otherwise nearly imperceptible Ah what is it that I heard Katherine Mansfield wondered throughout her whole life and writings poems and stories letters and notebooks Through the metamorphic movement of her highly sensitive perceptive mind she highlights the deep ambivalence of light and dark mirth and awe fear and longing which is the keen feature of our naked existence She sketches her epic motifs with a dedicated sense of wonder A true poet she returns as Baudelaire Keats Hopkins Proust or Shakespeare to the origins of language this poignant contrast of light and dark following the alternate rhythm of night and day of yielding to darkness and converting it into speech Let there be light Poetic language is performative It means an everlasting questioning over the abyss with wings of wonder upon the face of the deep This volume will also be of interest to scholars and dedicated readers who wish to share in the current reassessment of Katherine Mansfield's poetic achievement Her awareness of the literary tradition and modernity the utmost finesse of her artistic thought the boldness of her temper make her a major twentieth century poet

Undoing Place? Linda McDowell, 2020-10-07 Does geography affect our sense of self How are social characteristics mapped out on the ground And is there any authentic sense of place now or are we increasingly placeless Concentrating on the period between the end of the Second World War and the end of the century this Reader argues that there is a reciprocal relationship between the constitution of places and people What it means to be a man or a woman to have a nationality and a sense of place has been transformed and reinvented as our view of the world has changed The present is perceived as a time of fear a period in which all that is solid seems to melt into air while the 1950s are a site of nostalgia a period of clarity and certainty a time when people know their place Bringing together an interdisciplinary collection of articles for social and cultural geographers this Reader critically examines the argument that the close associations of the 1950s between place the home the community and the nation state and the social divisions gender class and nationality are breaking down in the 1990s Drawing out the oppositional movements in each decade it seeks to show how the supposed stability of one and the mobility of the other are exaggerated

Multilingualism in Modernist Fiction J. Taylor-Batty, 2013-07-26 This new study argues that modernist literature is characterised by a multilingual turn Examining the use of different languages in the fiction of a range of writers including Lawrence Richardson Mansfield Rhys Joyce and Beckett Taylor Batty demonstrates the centrality of linguistic plurality to modernist forms of defamiliarisation
