Extremely Violent Societies Christian Gerlach, 2010-10-14 In this groundbreaking book Christian Gerlach traces the social roots of the extraordinary processes of human destruction involved in mass violence throughout the twentieth century He argues that terms such as genocide and ethnic cleansing are too narrow to explain the diverse motives and interests that cause violence to spread in varying forms and intensities From killings and expulsions to enforced hunger collective rape strategic bombing forced labour and imprisonment he explores what happened before during and after periods of widespread bloodshed in countries such as Armenia Indonesia Bangladesh Nazi occupied Greece and in anti guerilla wars worldwide in order to highlight the crucial role of socio economic pressures in the generation of group conflicts By focussing on why so many different people participated in or supported mass violence and why different groups were victimized he offers us a new way of understanding one of the most disturbing phenomena of our times The Social Evolution of Indonesia F.

Tichelman, 2012-12-06 At a fairly early stage of socialism s penetration into the Afro Asian world a handful of European social democrats established an Indian Social Democratic Association ISDV They did so in a country Indonesia that was economically little developed and far away from any of the centres of European socialism and Asiatic radical nationalism The ISDV was soon able to bring its influence to bear on sections of the urban proletariat and to build up an Indonesian revolutionary movement This occurred in sharp competition with a nascent nationalist leadership and then without the usual intermediary role played by radicalizing groups of native intelligentsia In this way Dutch social democrats laid the foundations for one of the first communist parties in Asia and Africa a party which was destined to become one of the few communist mass parties of the Third World However in contrast to the major communist movements of China Vietnam this Indonesian party was to demonstrate a basic weakness successive and catastrophic defeats If we leave out Japan the only non Western country where a capitalist industrial revolution occurred we see that foreign and particularly Western minorities frequently did play a dominant role in the initial and formative phases of the socialist and workers movements of the Afro Asiatic world

Revolution and Chinese Foreign Policy Peter Van Ness, 1973 Twentieth-century Indonesia Wilfred T. Neill, 1973 In the 1930s a band of smart and able young men some still in their twenties helped Franklin D Roosevelt transform an American nation in crisis They were the junior officers of the New Deal Thomas G Corcoran Benjamin V Cohen William O Douglas Abe Fortas and James Rowe helped FDR build the modern Democratic Party into a progressive coalition whose command over power and ideas during the next three decades seemed politically invincible This is the first book about this group of Rooseveltians and their linkage to Lyndon Johnson s Great Society and the Vietnam War debacle Michael Janeway grew up inside this world His father Eliot Janeway business editor of Time and a star writer for Fortune and Life magazines was part of this circle strategizing and practicing politics as well as reporting on these men Drawing on his intimate knowledge of events and previously unavailable private letters and other documents Janeway crafts a riveting account of the exercise of power during the New Deal and its aftermath He shows how these men were at the nexus of reform impulses at the electoral level with reform thinking in the social sciences and the law and explains how this potent fusion helped build the contemporary American state Since that time efforts to reinvent government by brains trust have largely failed in the U S In the last quarter of the twentieth century American politics ceased to function as a blend of broad coalition building and reform agenda setting rooted in a consensus of belief in the efficacy of modern government Can a progressive coalition of ideas and power come together again The Fall of the House of Roosevelt makes such a prospect both alluring and daunting

Economists with Guns Bradley R. Simpson, 2008-03-28 Offering the first comprehensive history of U S relations with Indonesia during the 1960s Economists with Guns explores one of the central dynamics of international politics during the Cold War the emergence and U S embrace of authoritarian regimes pledged to programs of military led development Drawing on newly declassified archival material Simpson examines how Americans and Indonesians imagined the country s development in the 1950s and why they abandoned their democratic hopes in the 1960s in favor of Suharto s military regime Far from viewing development as a path to democracy this book highlights the evolving commitment of Americans and Indonesians to authoritarianism in the 1960s on

Area Handbook for Indonesia John William Henderson, 1970 Social political economic and governmental aspects of Indonesia

Suharto R. E. Elson, 2001-11-13 Suharto is synonymous with modern Indonesia He came to the leadership of Indonesia amidst extreme social upheaval and mass violence in 1966 and established an enduring regime known as the New Order He remained in command of the world s fourth most populous country until his dramatic fall from power in 1998 This book provides fascinating insights into a man who rose from humble beginnings to exert extraordinary power over a complex and volatile nation He presented himself as an infallible father of Indonesia yet he remained a mysterious and puzzling figure He sought to transform Indonesia into a strong united and economically prosperous nation but he is remembered today for human rights abuses and profound corruption The system of power he created collapsed with his decline and he left a problematic legacy for Indonesia s current leaders as they seek to create a new beginning for their country

Making Indonesia Daniel S. Lev, Ruth T. McVey, 2018-05-31 Dedicated to George McT Kahin this collection examines the genesis and evolution of the modern Indonesian nation state Essay topics range from the nation s imaginative conception to the Suharto government s political and financial infrastructure Contributors include F P Bunnell R McVey T Shiraishi and B R O G Anderson

Sexual Politics in Indonesia S. Wieringa, 2002-05-21 This book analyzes the interaction between nationalism feminism and socialism in Indonesia since the beginning of the twentieth century until the New Order State of President Suharto The focus is on the communist women s organization Gerwani which was by 1965 the largest communist women s organization in the non communist world Gerwani members combined feminist demands such as a reform of the marriage law with an insistence upon a political role for women The organization was destroyed in a campaign of sexual slander orchestrated by the military under General Suharto Hundreds of thousands of people were killed President Sukarno lost his power and General Suharto took over
