Marginality in the Urban Center Peary Brug, Zachary S.

Ritter, Kenneth R. Roth, 2018-12-22 This book examines the increasing marginalization of and response by people living in urban areas throughout the Western Hemisphere and both the local and global implications of continued colonial racial hierarchies and the often dire consequences they have for people perceived as different However in the aftermath of recent U S elections whiteness also seems to embody strictures on religion ethnicity country of origin and almost any other personal characteristic deemed suspect at the moment For that reason gender race and even class collectively may not be sufficient units of analysis to study the marginalizing mechanisms of the urban center The authors interrogate the social and institutional structures that facilitate the disenfranchisement or downward trajectory of groups and their potential or subsequent lack of access to mainstream rewards The book also seeks to highlight examples where marginalized groups have found ways to assert their equality No recent texts have attempted to connect the mechanisms of marginality across geographical and political boundaries within the Western Hemisphere

Social Psychology of Helping Relations Arie Nadler, 2019-12-09 Examines the major aspects of giving and receiving help in interpersonal and intergroup relations This unique book extends the traditional emphasis on interpersonal help giving in order to consider a wider spectrum of interpersonal and intergroup helping relations Help giving is viewed as reflecting people's care for others while at the same time dependency on help and giving help imply lower and higher places on the social hierarchy respectively It studies the psychology of what goes into helping someone and integrates experimental work conducted in the social psychological laboratory with applied research from volunteer organizations schools and work and family environments In addition to research on the giving of help the book considers the recipient of help and reviews research and theory on people's readiness to seek and receive help Unlike much of past research in this context that has been interested in the generosity question i.e. whether or not people help others the book considers how different kinds of assistance i.e. autonomy and dependency oriented help shape helping interactions It then goes beyond the analyses of the immediate helping interaction to consider the long term consequences of giving and receiving help Finally the book addresses theory and research on intergroup helping relations

Social Psychology of Helping Relations Solidarity and Hierarchy begins with a general introduction to the topic It then offers a series of broad perspectives covering the philosophical and psychological theory evolution and overview of social psychological research Next the book looks at the social psychology of helping relations examining the parties involved and the why behind their actions The positives and negatives of giving and receiving assistance and the links between status and interpersonal and intergroup helping relations are also covered It considers how giving seeking and receiving help maintains or challenges status relations between individuals and groups The book finishes with a conclusion that wraps up the many lessons learned Looks at solidarity and inequality in social interactions Examines why people are ready to give and receive help Studies the consequences of giving and receiving help Highlights important implications to different kinds of help beyond the dichotomy between giving receiving help or not Addresses research and theory on interpersonal and intergroup helping relations The implications of helping relations for personal and social change

Social Psychology of Helping Relations Solidarity and Hierarchy is an ideal book for advanced students researchers and individuals interested in social psychology counselling social work Sociology and Political Science in this book make evident the institutional barriers existing between most black and white Americans and offer insight into the means to dismantle them Teaching Health Centers ,1962
