Trade Openness and China's Economic Development Miaojie Yu, 2019-11-20 With the expansion of globalization international trade has played an increasingly significant role especially for developing countries As the largest developing country China has made a lot of efforts to integrate to the global market since its Open and Reform Policy in 1978 and has become the second largest economy in world So what is the effect of China's trade-oriented strategy for the country and the world How did it improve the country's economic development These are some critical questions this book discusses This book utilizes classic Western economic models to examine how China's openness policies have affected the manufacturing upgrading and economic development of the country. A large amount of micro level empirical evidence is added to support the conclusion. Scholars and students in economics and business will benefit from this book. Also it will appeal to readers interested in policy making and Chinese studies.

China's Diplomacy Responding to World Transformation in the New Era Honghua Men, 2025-07-25. This book delves into the innovative thinking, new and key agendas and practical evolution of China's diplomacy in the new era. As the world has entered a new epoch, the once in a century world transformation is accelerating and great power rivalry becomes increasingly prominent with the Sino-US strategic competition emerging as the driving force behind the tremendous shifts in international relations. The interaction between China and the world has undergone significant changes and China's diplomatic adjustments have captured global attention. This book elucidates the underlying logic behind these diplomatic adjustments, summarizes the manifestations of China's diplomatic concepts and innovative practices, highlights the numerous new issues arising from China's interaction with the world, analyzes the challenges and dilemmas faced by Chinese diplomacy and explores new directions for China's diplomatic breakthroughs. This book serves as a theoretical guide for professional researchers including experts, scholars, research personnel and students, while also offering a systematic understanding for a wide range of readers interested in China-related issues including those in the business world, policy circles and international activists. The translation was done with the help of artificial intelligence. A subsequent human revision was done primarily in terms of content.

The Palgrave Handbook on China-Europe-Africa Relations Yichao Li, Francisco José B. S. Leandro, Jorge Tavares da Silva, Carlos Rodrigues, 2024. Zusammenfassung: This handbook comprehensively covers topics in international relations with a specific focus on China-Europe-Africa relations. This triangular relationship brings substantial contribution for the formation of an emergent new international order. With China being the second largest economy and a growing power in military technology, trade and cultural relations, the book provides decisive research on the key aspects that ground the country's external relations with Europe and Africa. The first three parts of the book cover issues related to strategy, economy and security with specific case studies. In addition, the fourth part not only focuses on China-Europe-Africa but also extends to chapters on multilateralism and relations with other countries, regions and economic communities. In doing so, the book also addresses topics on the Ukraine war, Covid-19, the Belt and Road Initiative, the Global Gateway and the balance of major powers. Yichao Li received her Ph.D. from the Institute for Research on Portuguese-speaking Countries, City University of Macau, China, and a Post-Doc diploma from ISCTE IUL, Portugal. Currently, she is Assistant Research Fellow at Institute of African Studies, Zhejiang Normal University, China. Francisco José Leandro received his Ph.D. in political science and international relations from the Catholic University of Portugal, 2010. He is currently Associate Professor with Habilitation and Deputy Director of Institute of Global and Public Affairs, University of Macau, China, and researcher at OBSERVARE UAL and at CEI ISCTE IUL, Portugal. Jorge Tavares da Silva is an Assistant Professor at the University of Beira Interior, Portugal.

China and ASEAN: Pivoting Trade and Shock Transmission Mala Raghavan,Faisal Khan,Evelyn S. Devadason,2021-04-12 This book highlights the critical relationship between China and the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN associated with its trade interdependency As the largest trade partner in the region China has not only presented itself with opportunities for ASEAN to tap its market but also created great challenges for the region The fundamental question that this book addresses therefore is whether China s engagement with ASEAN comes at a cost for the latter following from the systemic risks tied to the China centric supply chains in the region The trade interactions between China and ASEAN though extensively explored are less understood in the context of its influence over the region amidst the recent changing dynamics that follow from China s global engagement and backlash from major powers The book therefore resolutely rises against stereotypes and cliché making readers reconsider many oversimplified assumptions of the benefits of trade engagement where economies are interconnected through complex production chains

China's Big Power Ambition under Xi Jinping Suisheng Zhao,2021-12-14 Instead of emphasizing China as a developing country Chinese President Xi Jinping has identified China as a big power and accentuated China s big power status This book explores the narratives and driving forces behind China s big power ambition Three narratives rooted in Sino centralism are examined One is China s demands for the reform of global governance to reflect the values and interests of China as a rising power Another is China s Belt and Road Initiative to construct a nascent China centred world order The third is the China model and self image promotion in the developing countries There are many forces that have driven or constrained China s big power ambition This collection focuses on two sets of forces One is China s domestic politics and economic incentives and disincentives The other is China s geo political and geo economic interests These forces have both motivated and constrained China s big power ambition The chapters in this book were originally published in the Journal of Contemporary China
